ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

We wish to thank Lane Dennis for his unfailing commitment to this book. The development of this project and its manuscript are enhanced thanks to the keen editing of Lila Bishop and the attention of the entire publishing team. The artwork owes much to the invaluable insights of David Laplace. Thank you for your generous involvement, thoughtful suggestions, endless encouragement. Further, we are indebted to Graeme Goldworthy, who first helped us grasp the Bible along the lines of "God's people in God's Place under God's rule." To the myriad friends and family whose assistance and encouragement spurred us on, thank you. Among them, Stephanie, Lanelle, Amanda, and Elda, who each baby-sat for hundreds of hours so that Gail could paint. Finally, we especially thank God for our spouses, Lisa and Keith. Without your vital support and encouragement we would have faltered long ago.

OLD

TESTAMENT

PART 1.

The Bible is GOD's story and it begins with these big words:

In the.

eggining, GOD

"in the beginning,
God created the heavens and the earth."

CREA

Do you know how God Created everything?

Simply by speaking words,

Imagine making the world with words!

Strong words.

Powerful words.

With words
God created everything!

He made the stars
the Sun, and the Moon.

He made the animals, the fish, the trees, and flowers too.
Everything.

And then after all these things,
God created...

People!

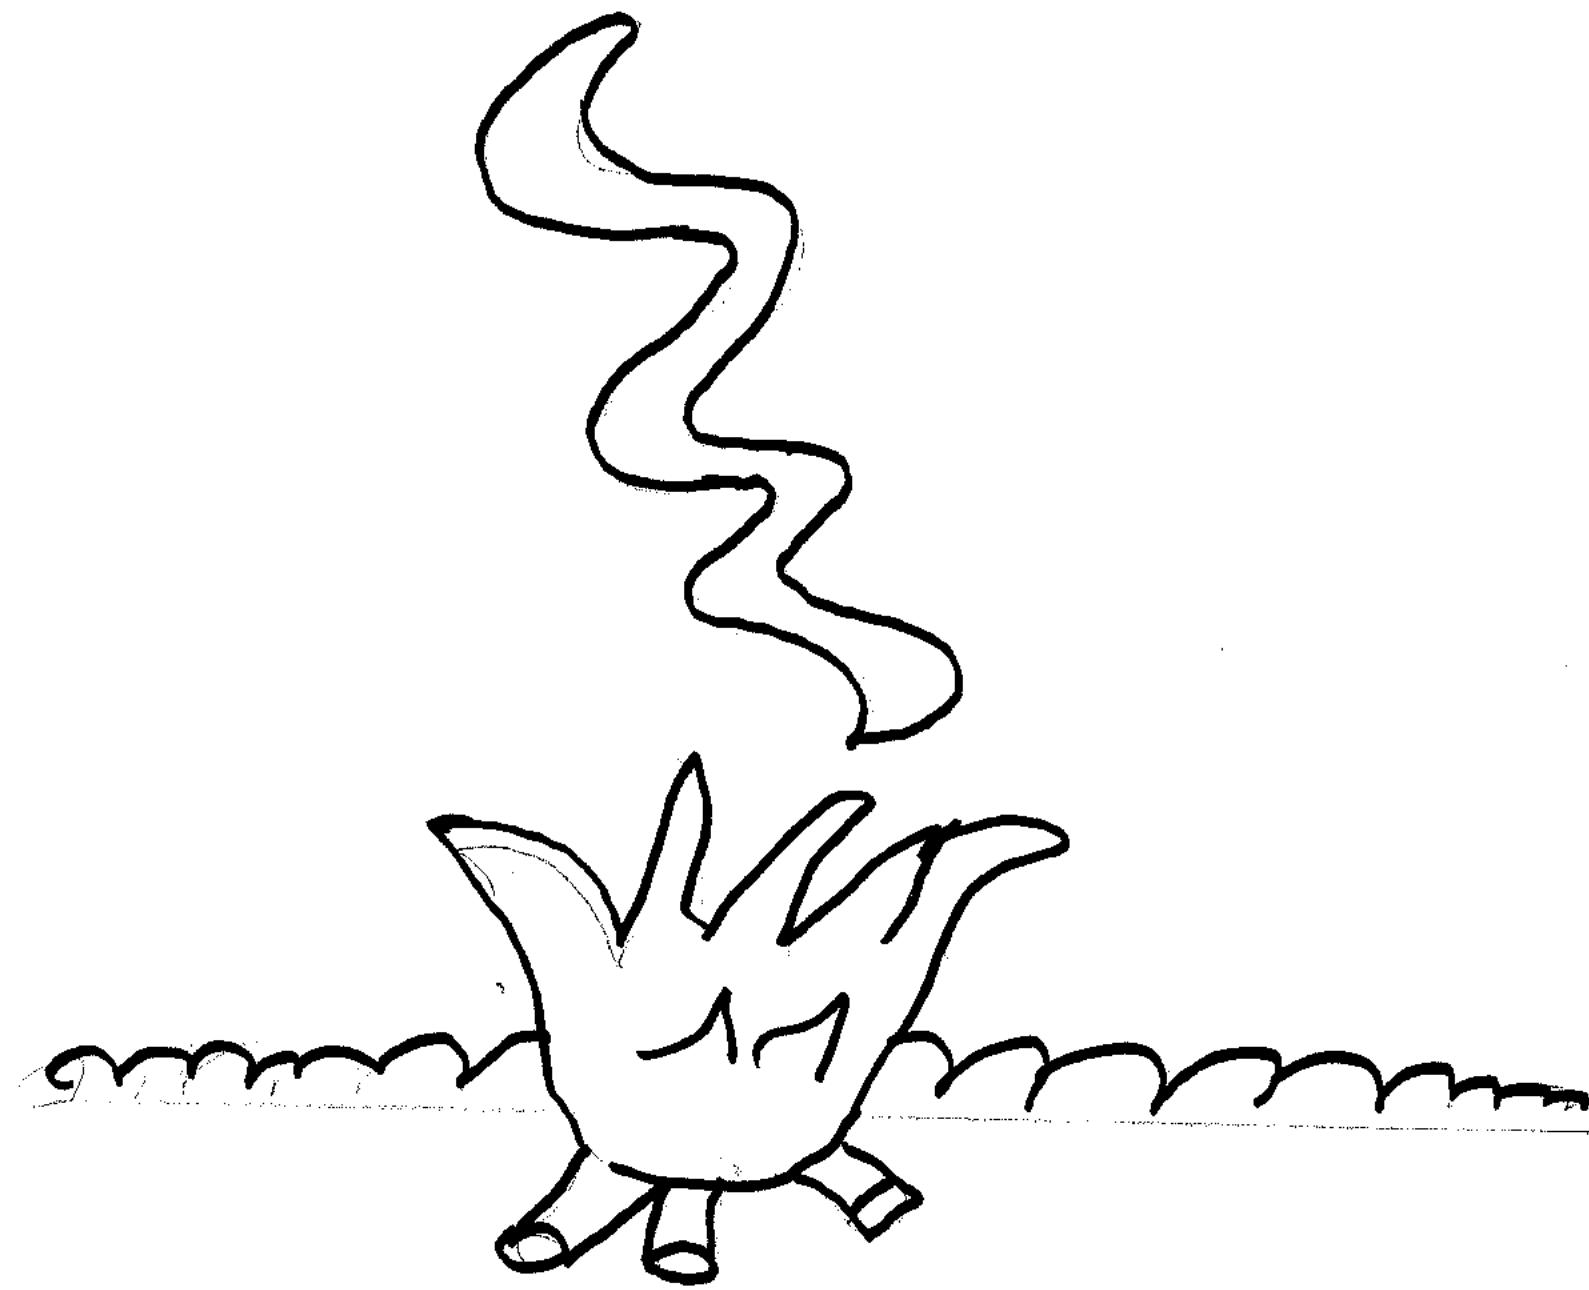

can you see Adam and Eve?

God put his people in the garden of Eden.

They were made in the image of God.

They were to be the rulers of Gods place.

Adam and Eve were very special to God.

Did you know that you are also very special to God?

You are special because you are made in his image too!

Being created in the 'image of God' must have made Adam and Eve very, very happy.

God was happy too.

He was pleased with his world and his people because he saw that were very good.

Nothing was wrong.

Nothing was bad.

Nobody disobeyed God.

in the very good beginning, everything and everyone knew how good God was.

God gave Adam and Eve good words to obey.

He told them not to eat from a special tree.

You see, God was teaching Adam and Eve that he was their king, that people were to obey God's word.

God also Said that IF Adam and Eve disobeyed his word, they would surely die .

So God's people, Adam and Eve, lived in God's place, the garden of Eden.
And they ruled God's world by obeying his good word.

Do you know what happened next?

Satan crept into God's beautiful garden looking like a snake

Satan hated God. Satan wanted to be God.

Satan tempted God's people to eat from the tree.

He told them to doubt God's goodness. He tempted them to disobey God's word.

He told them,
"you will not surely die"

Now Adam and Eve had a choice to make.

They could obey God's word
Or they could listen to Satan

What do you think you would have done?

Do you know what Adam and Eve did?

Adam and Eve chose to doubt God's goodness.

They chose to disobey God
's word

They did not let God be King over them

They ate Fruits from the tree.

They listened to the voice of Satan
Instead of the word of God

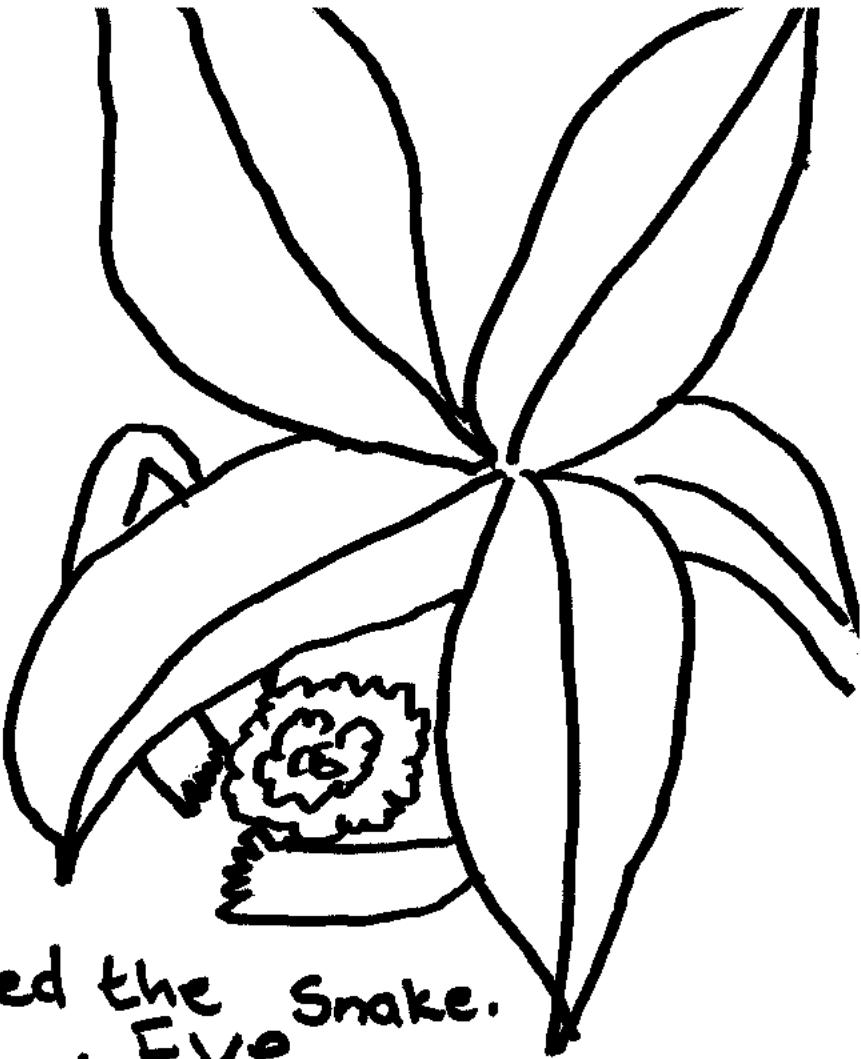

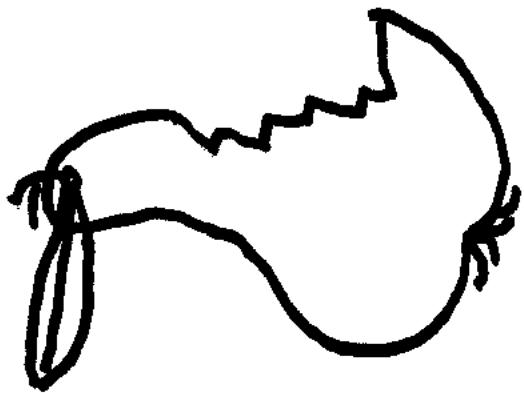

What a very sad day.

Can you imagine what God thought about all this?

God was very angry.

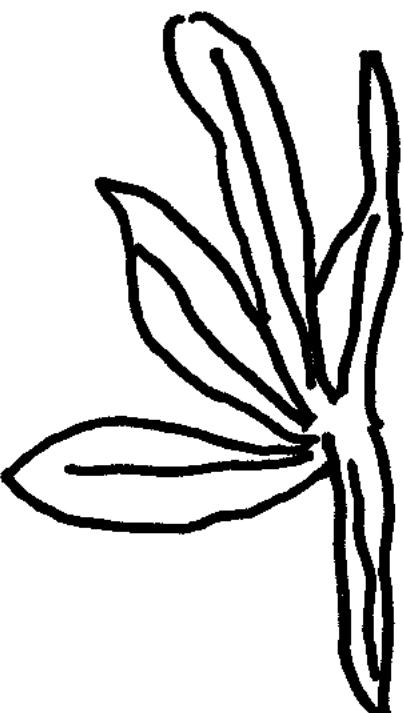

God Cursed the Snake.

God Punished Eve.

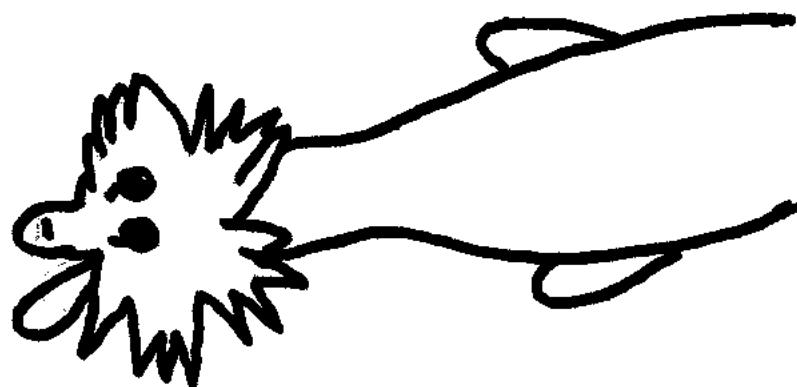

And God Punished Adam too

Do you know why God had to Punished them?

God punished them because they disobey God's word,
Which was meant to rule
Over his place and his people.

Did you know that some good news came on this sad day too?

God gave Adam and Eve a hit that he would not always be angry with them.

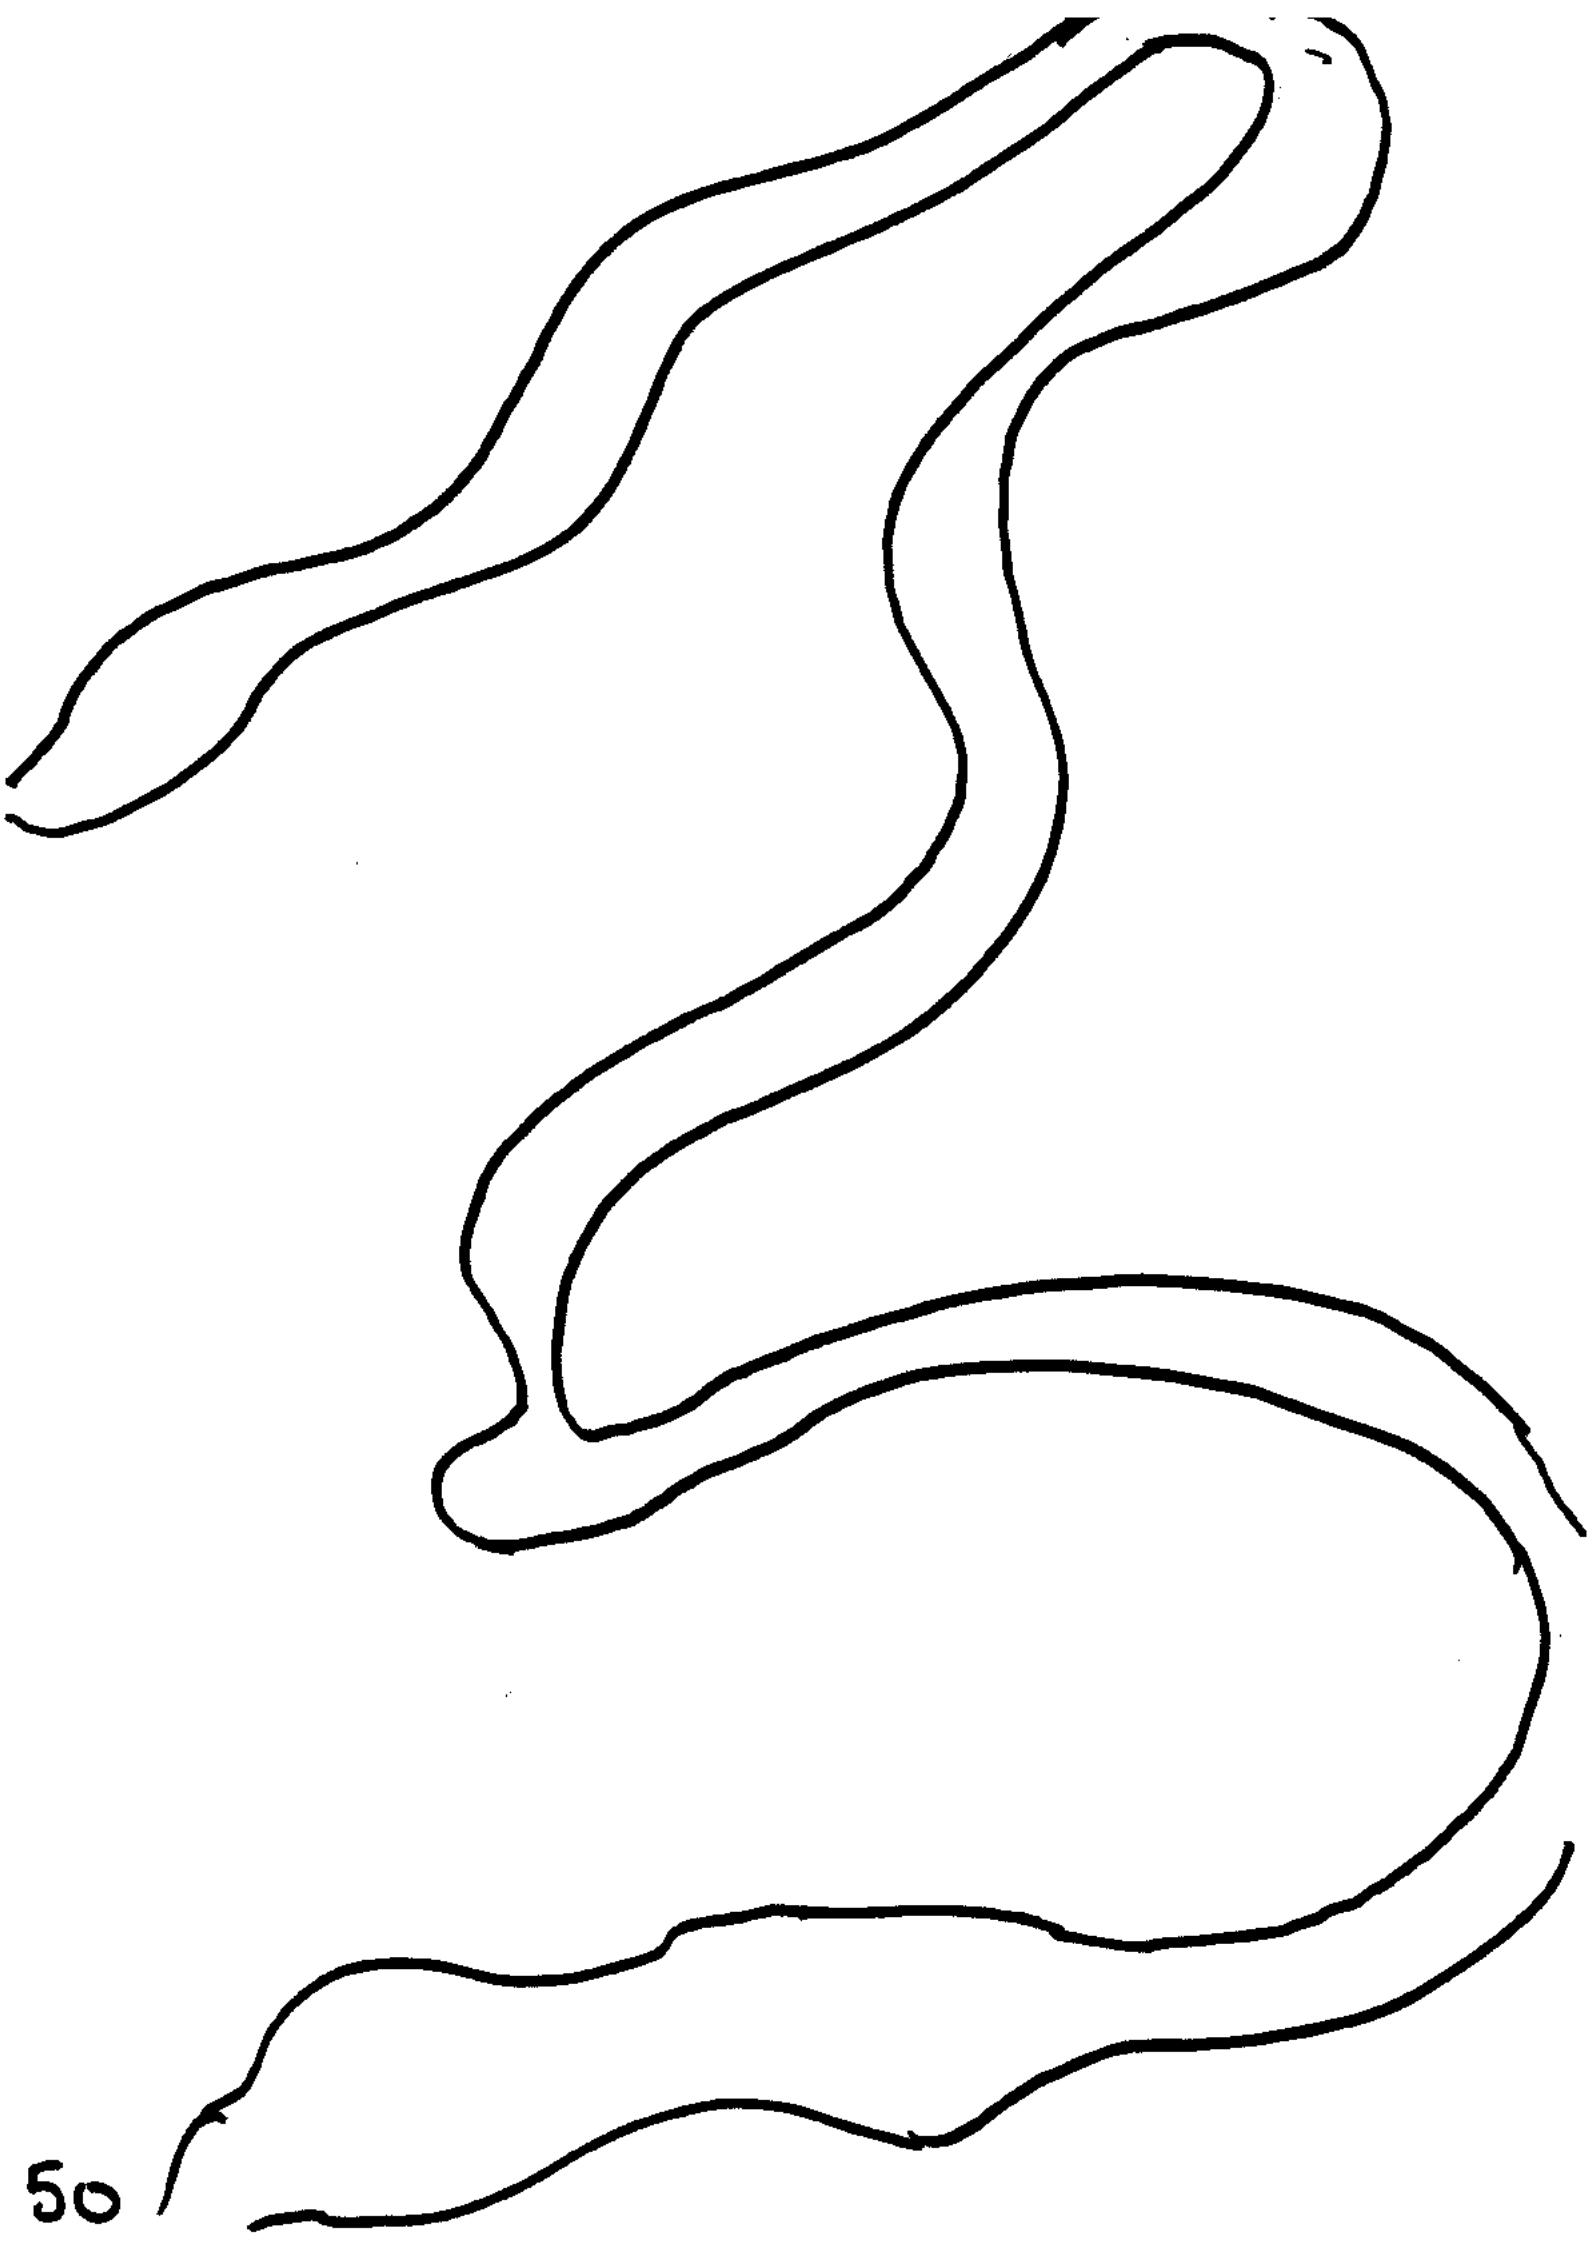

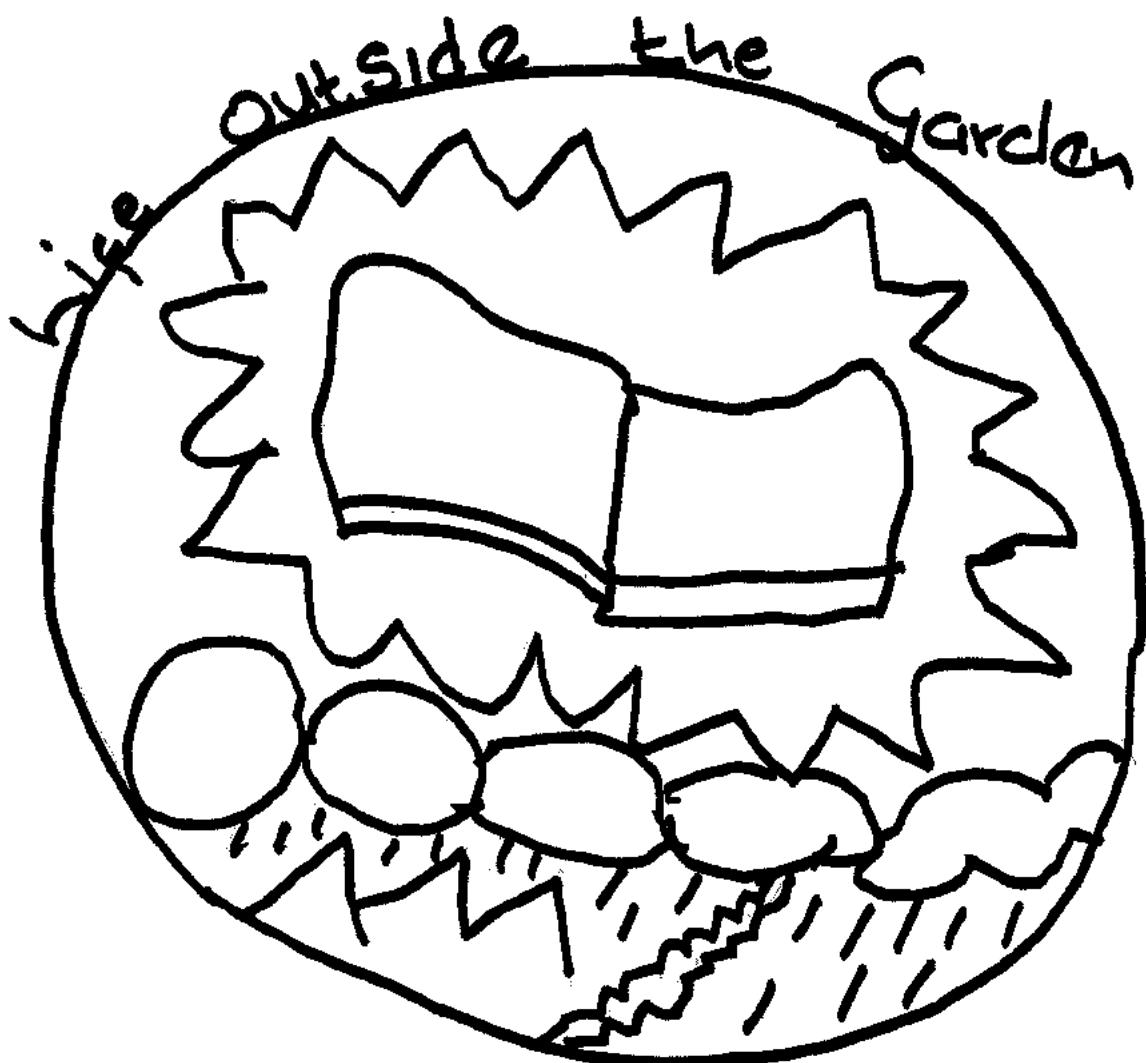

God promise that one day someone would come and crush Satan's power over people

But that day was a long way OFF. On this very sad day,

God made Adam and Eve leave the garden

Part 3

Do you remember why God's People had to leave God's place?

God drove Adam and Eve out of the garden of Eden
Because they disobey him and rejected him as King

And everything God had warned them about disobeying his word came true.

Adam and Eve were now separated from God and began having difficulty with each other. Raising children was hard.

Finding food was even harder. And their coming death was now beginning to make their bodies grow older.

Life outside the garden was terrible

Now Adam and Eve ruled the world in evil ways.

And they had children who did just the same.

Their children and grandchildren, and great-grandchildren all turned away from God

Outside the garden everyone doubted how God was.

Outside the garden
everyone disobeyed God
's word

Outside the garden
Everyone ruled the world
In evil ways

This made God very sad
All the people of the earth has rejected him as King

So..

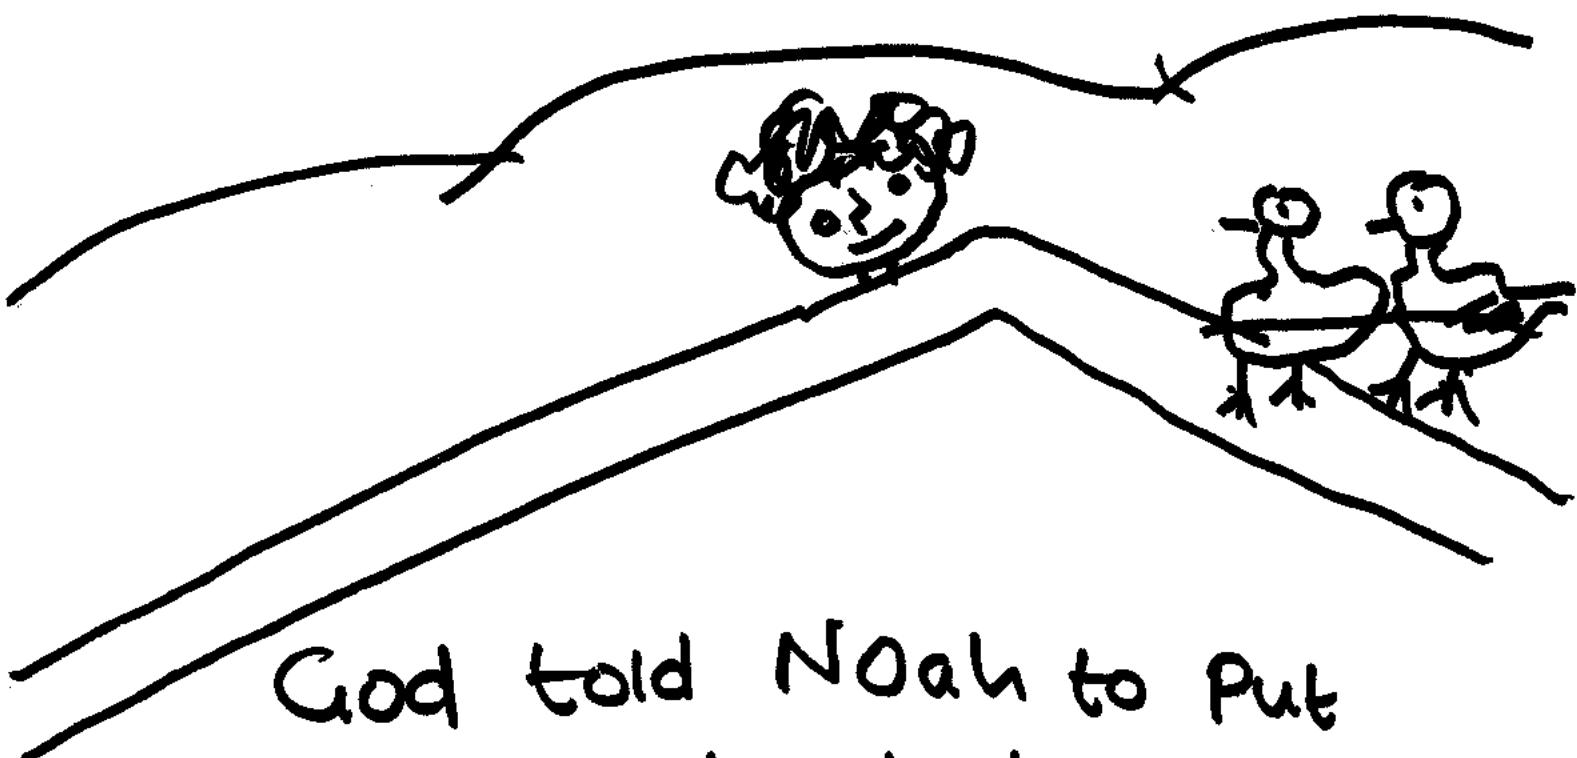

God decided to judge all the People of the earth. He decided to send a big Flood on the place he had made.

But there was one man, named Noah, who listened to God.

God told Noah to build a great big boat.

God told Noah to Put many animals on the boat.
God told Noah to bring his Family on the boat.
And Noah did what God said when...

God judged the World.

God sent a big flood of water.

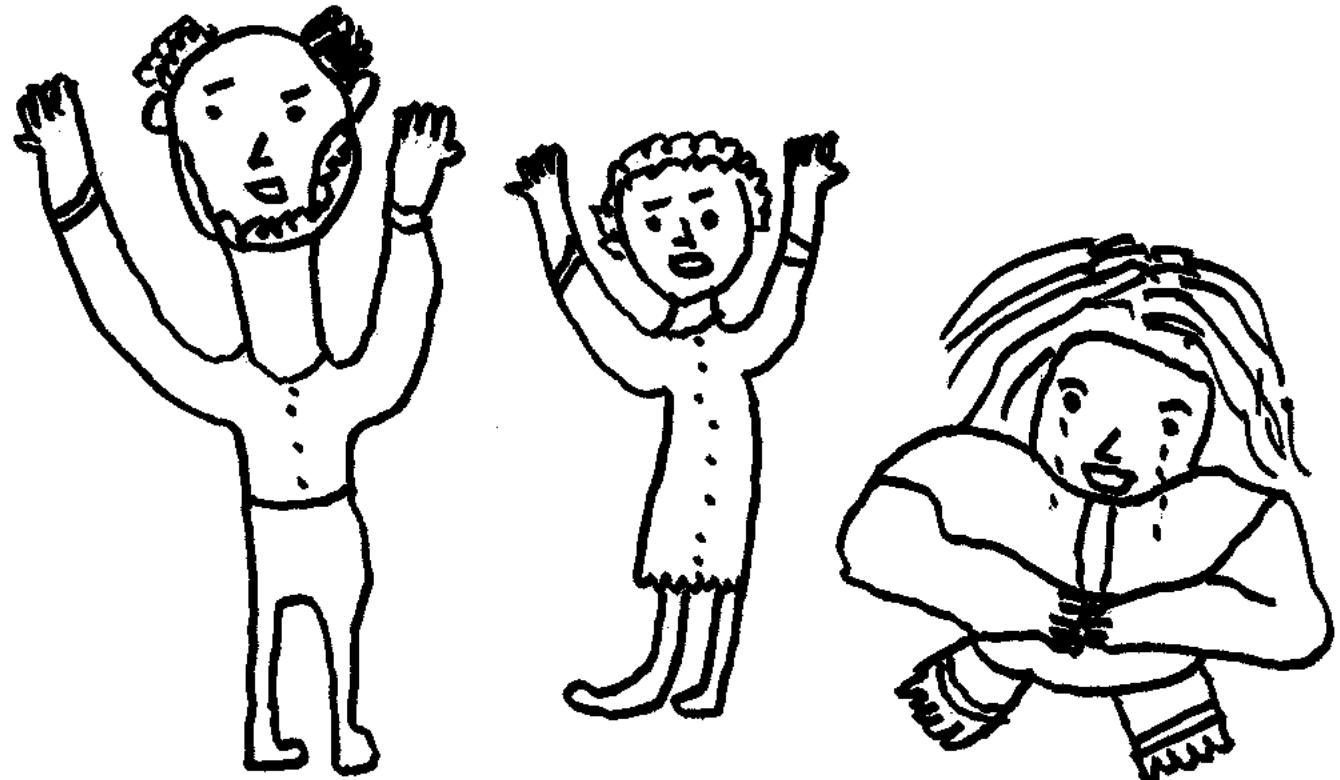

Everything that lived on land died.

But Noah, his Family and the animals on the boat Were Saved.

Do you know what the Flood teaches us?

God will judge every single person who rejects him as King.

And do you know what God's judgment teaches us?
Every single person needs God's blessing.

And guess what?

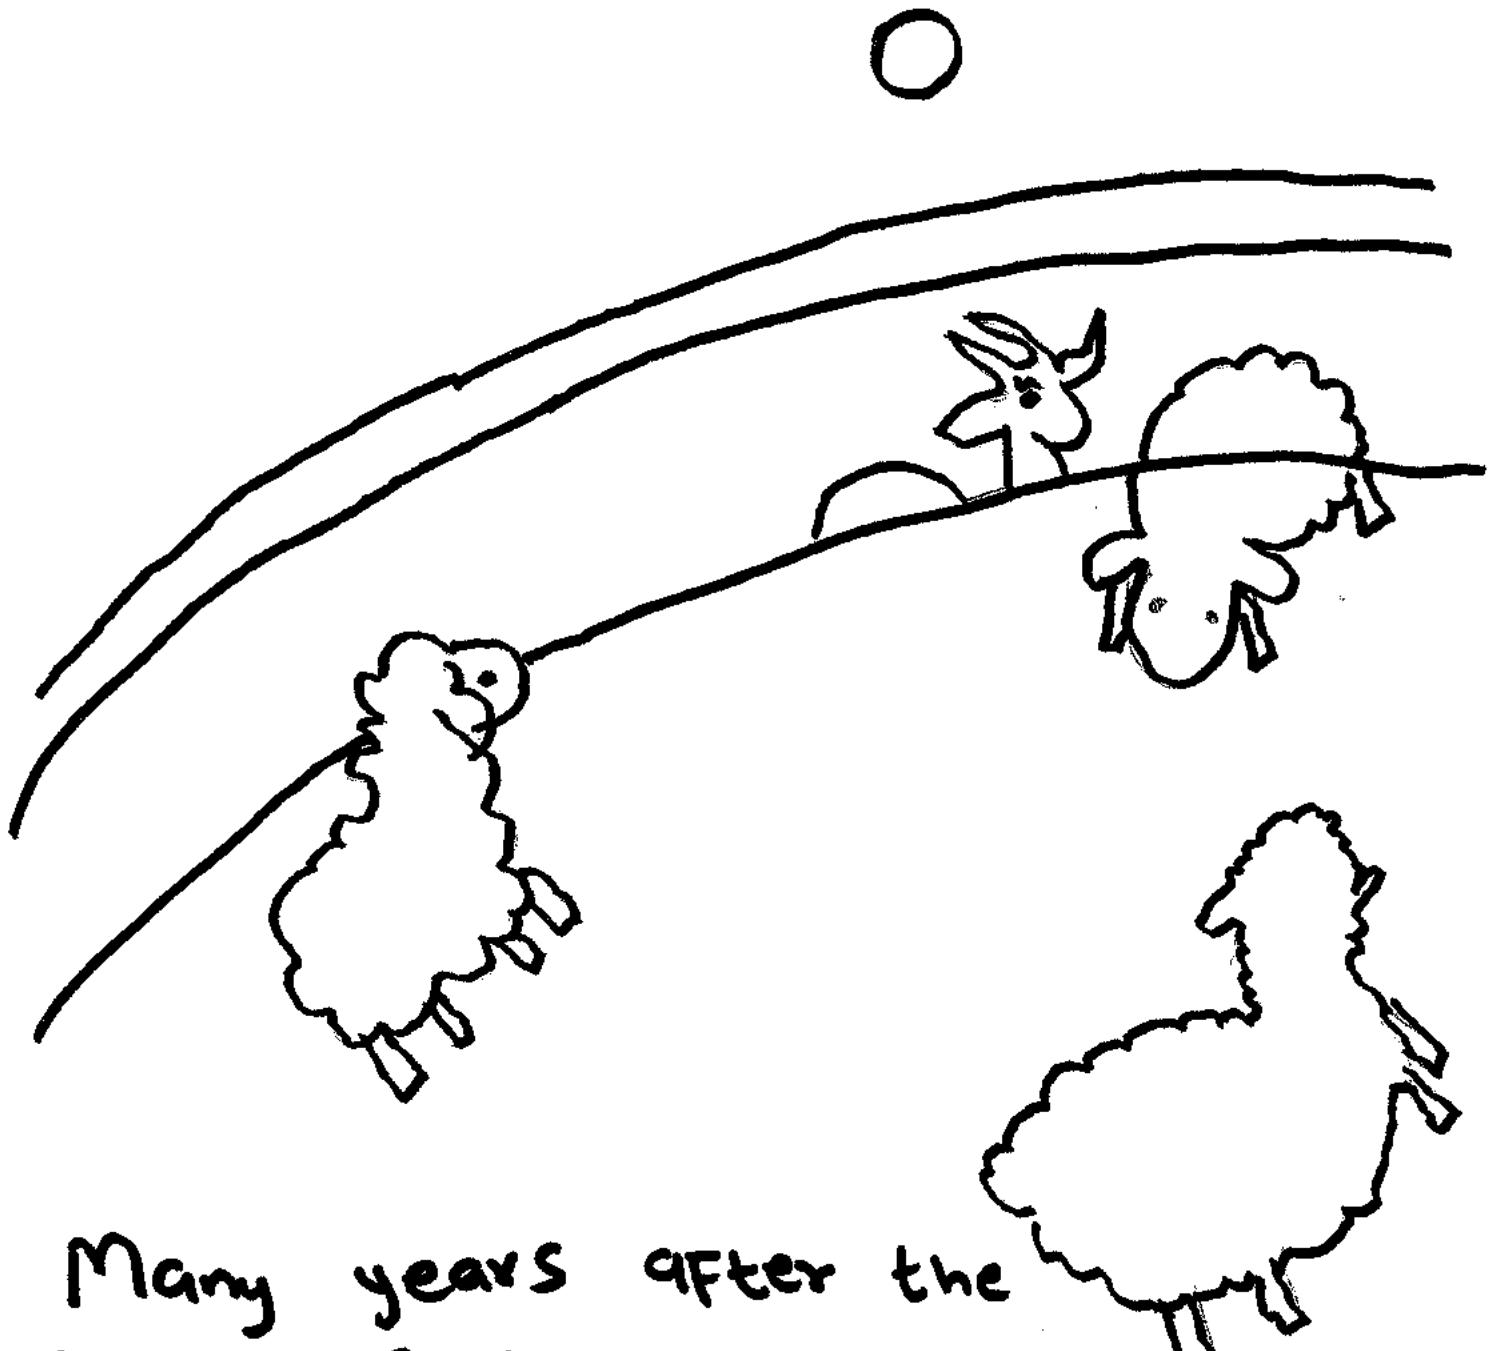

God Promised to do just that!

God Promised to bless

All the people of the earth!

Part 4

Many years after the Flood God made a big promise.

He said to a man named Abraham,

"Go... to the land I will show you.
And I will make of you a great nation... and in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed."

Wow! That was good news.
God told Abraham to go to a new place, because God was going to make a new people, so that God's blessing would spread to all people!

What a big Promise God
Made to Abraham!

Abraham listened to God's words, and then Abraham did what God said. Abraham went to the land God showed him.

Do you know how Abraham felt when he got there?

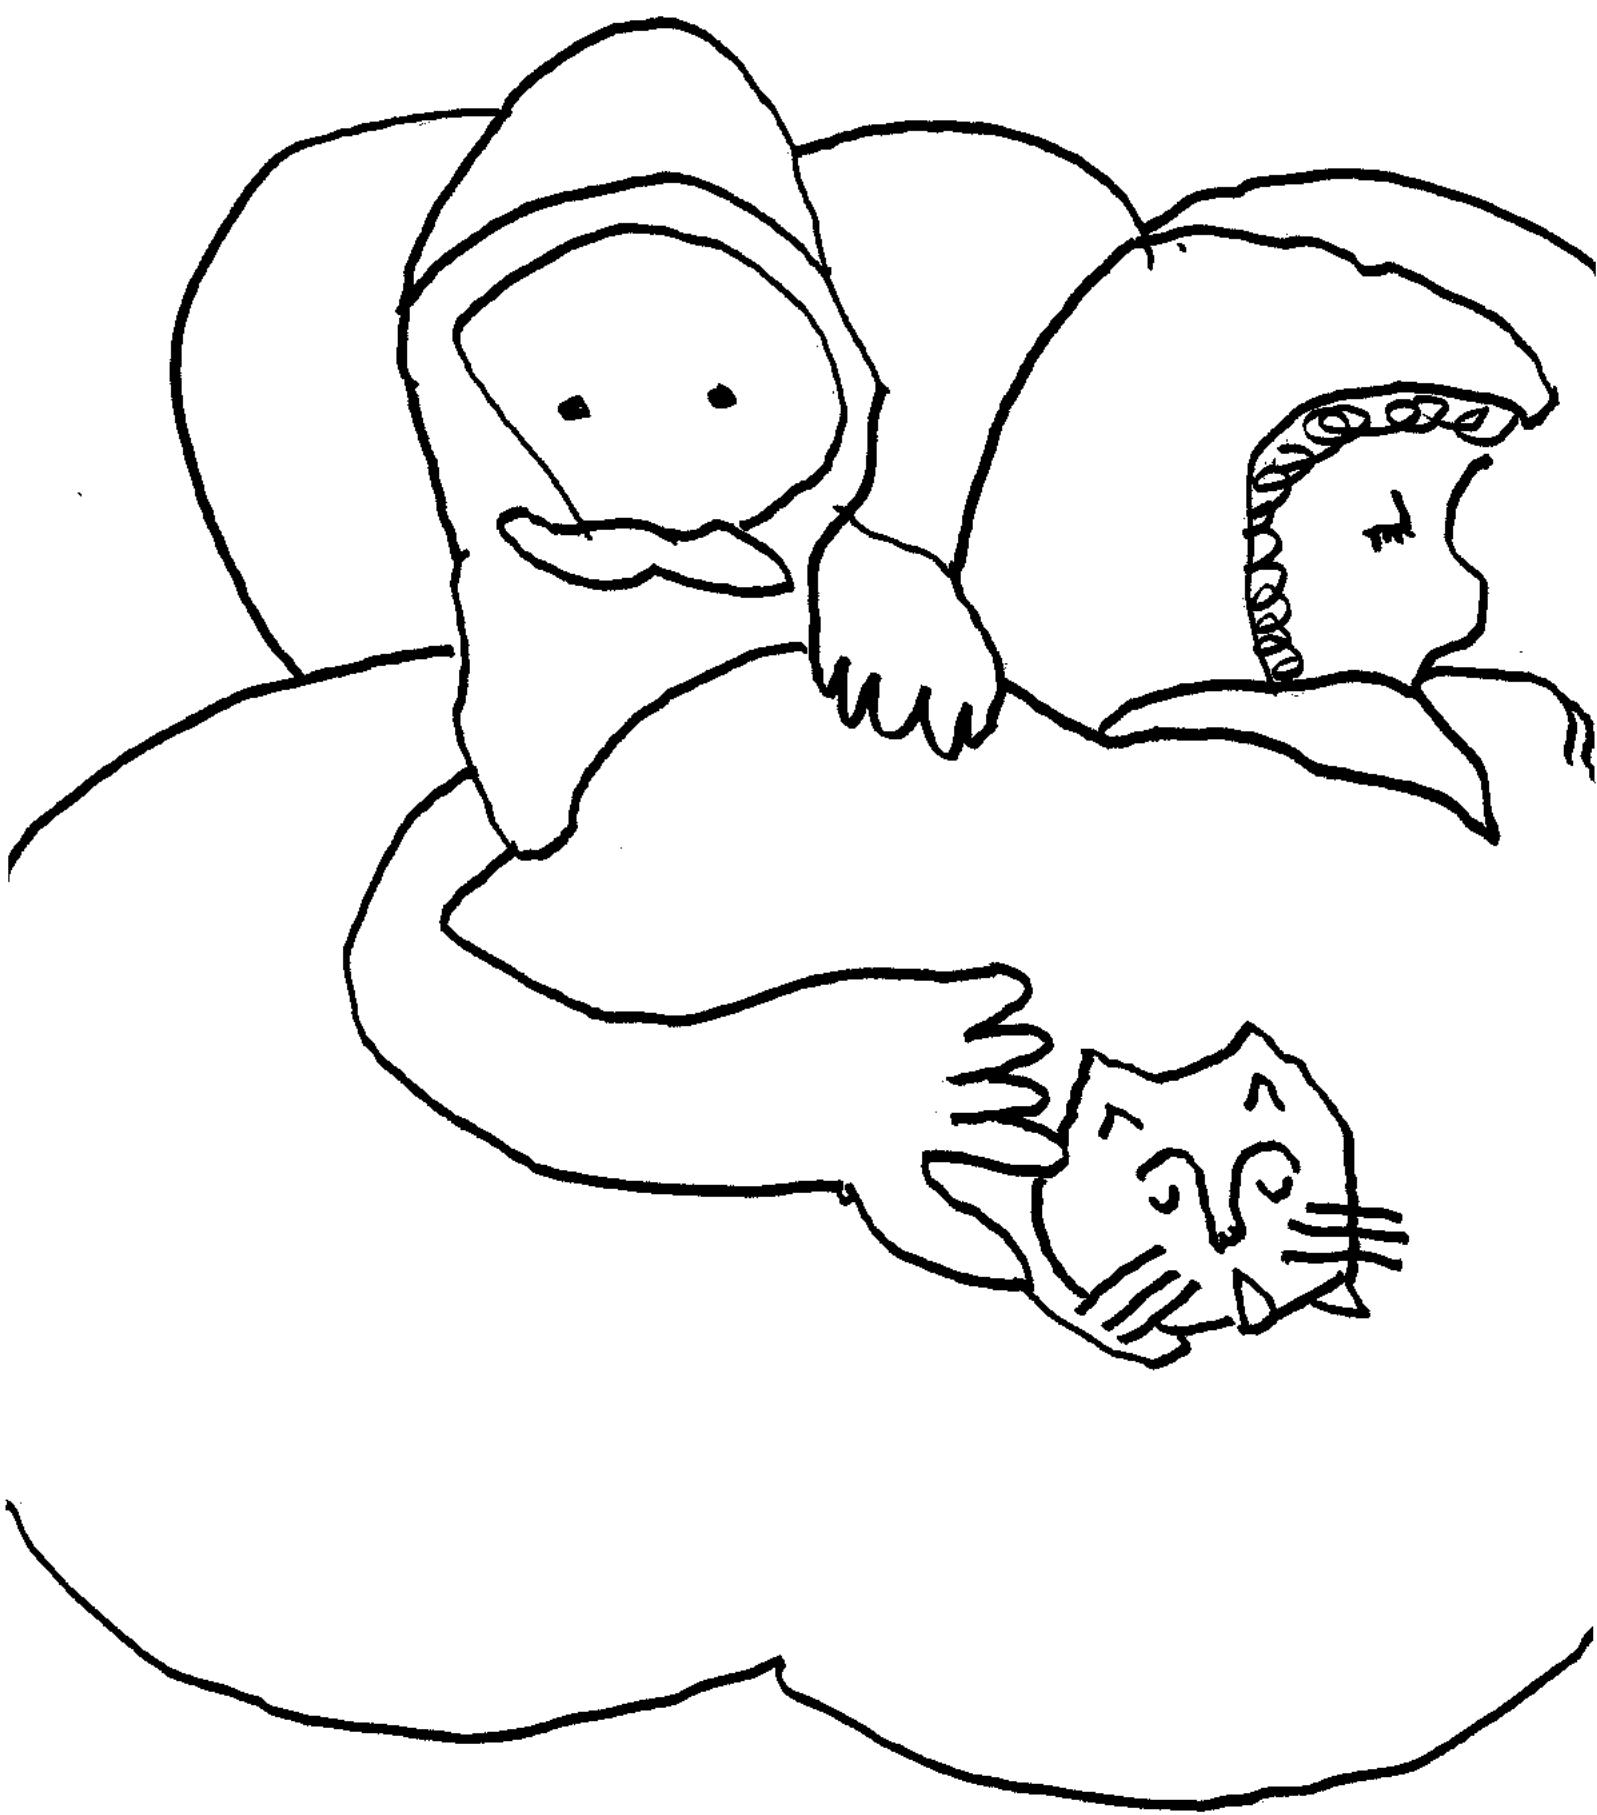

Abraham felt afraid.
He wasn't sure how God would keep his promise.

After all, Abraham and his wife, Sarah, were very old, too old to have children.

One night Abraham thought and thought, How could he become a great people if he didn't have even one child?

And how could he become a blessing to all people without children and grandchildren of his own?

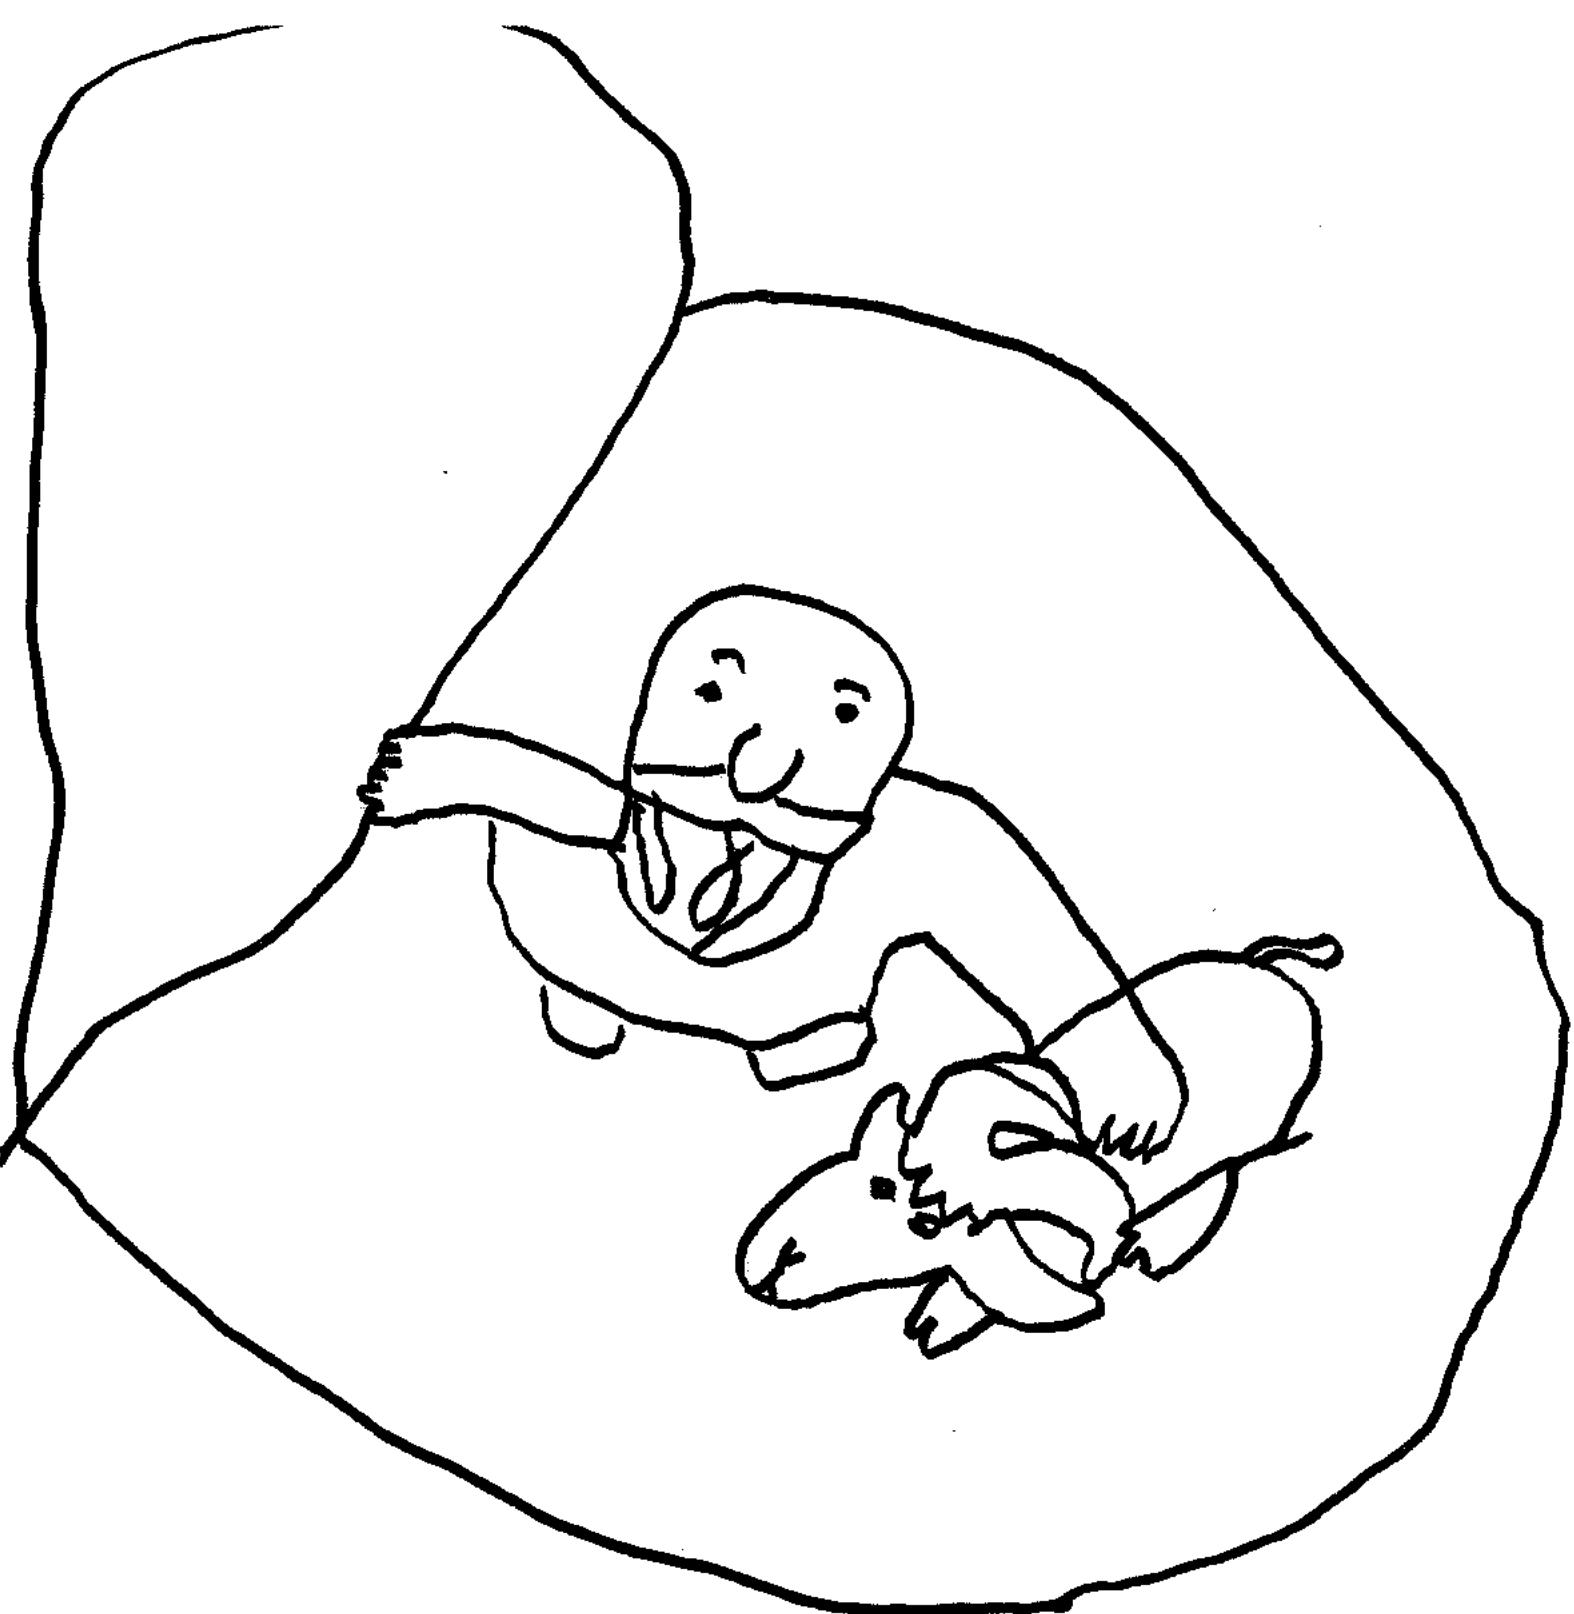

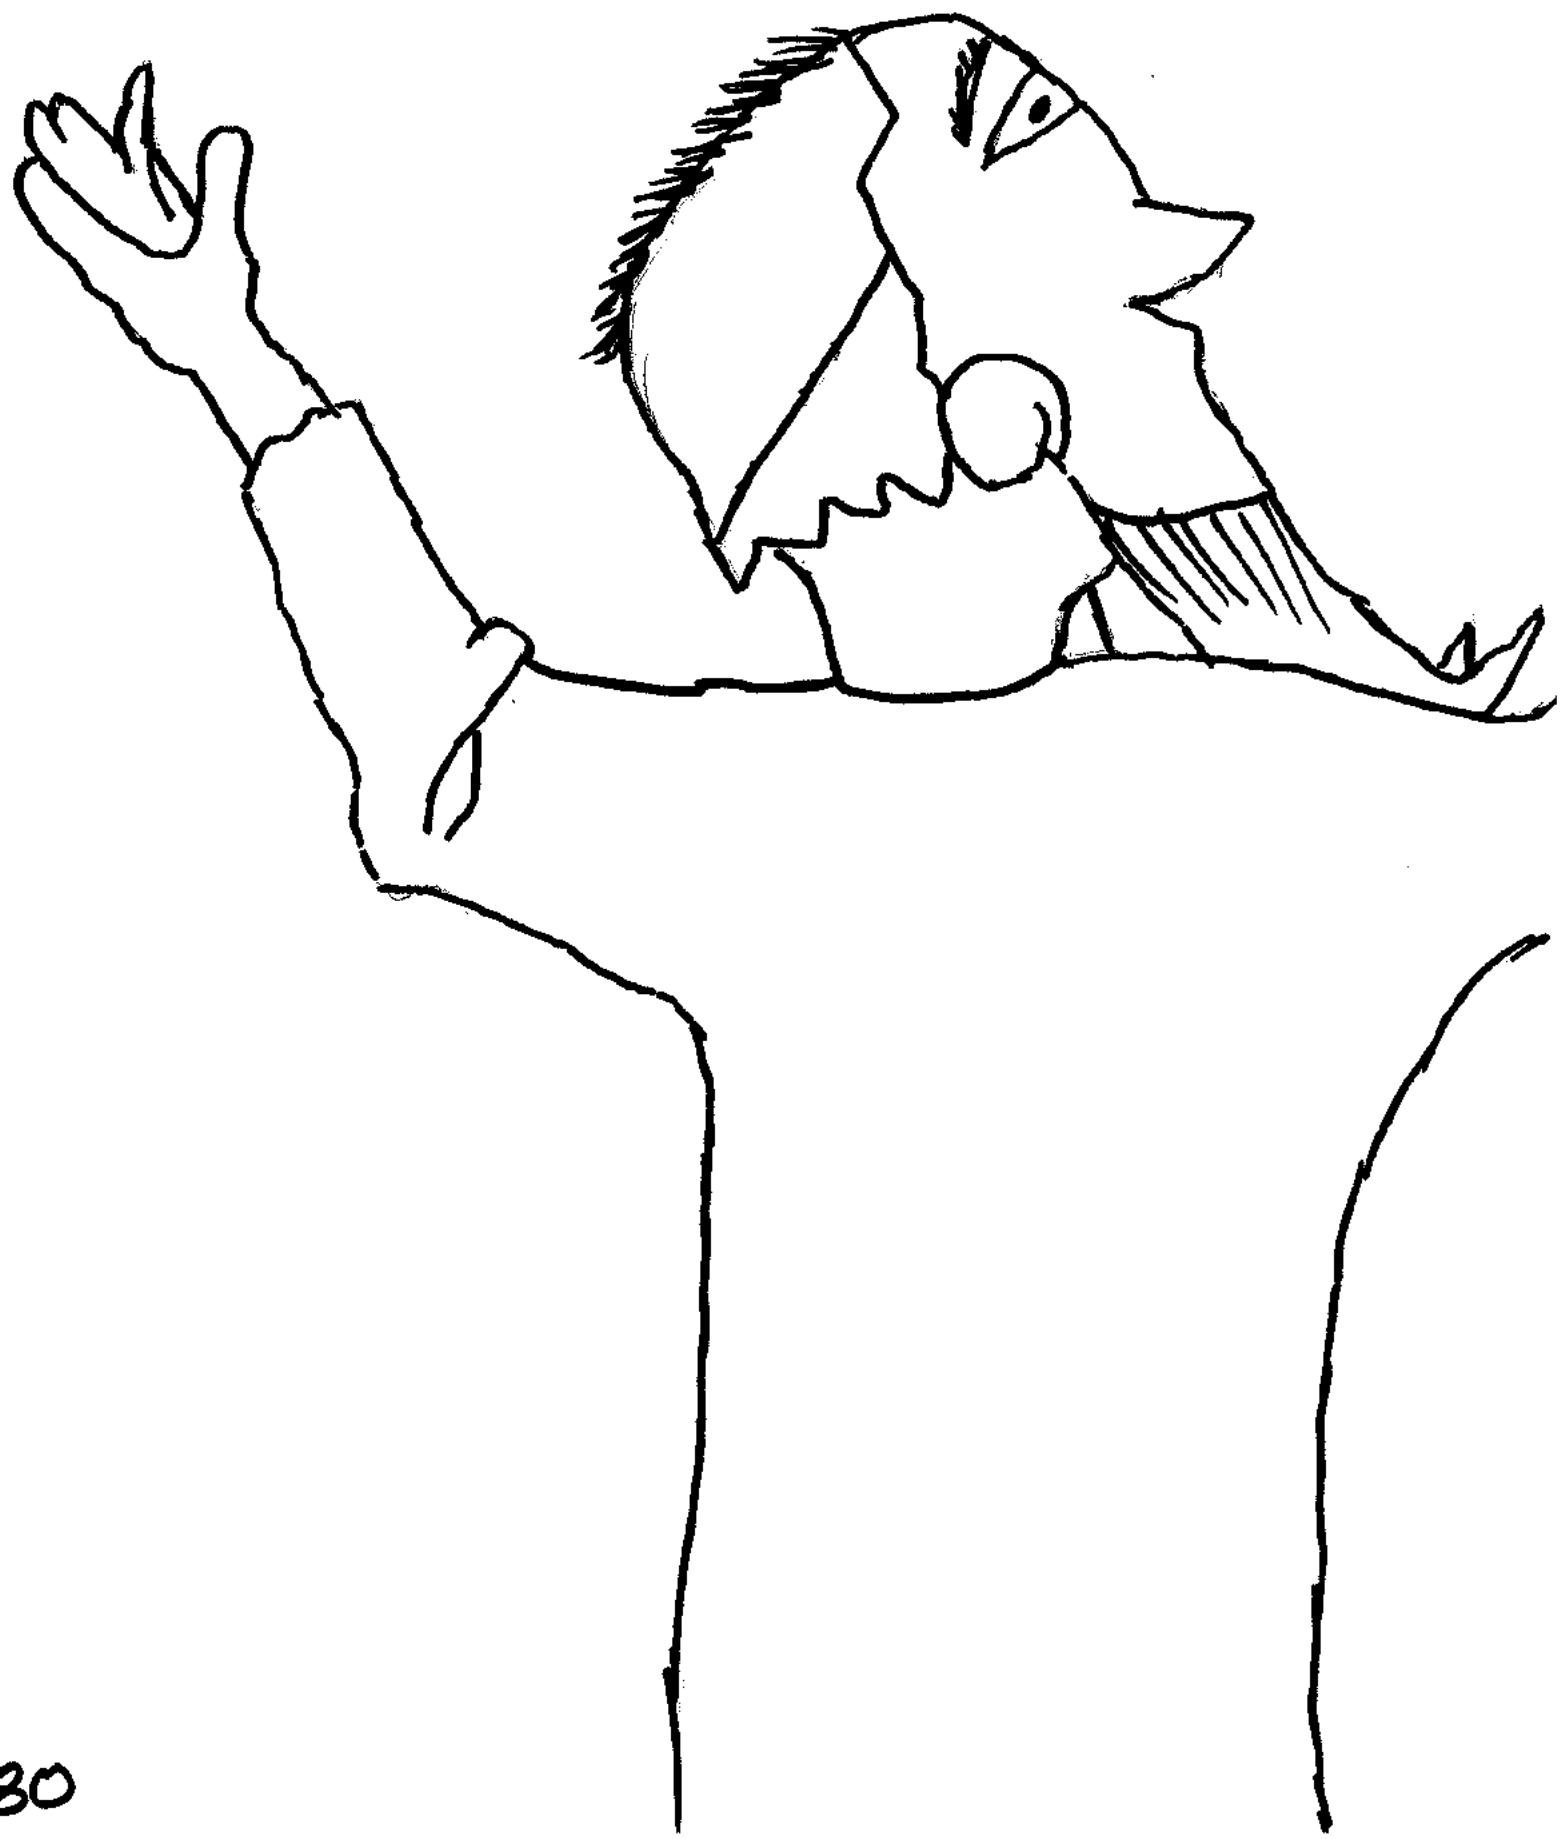

God knew what Abraham was thinking. God talked to him: "Don't be afraid, Abraham. Come outside and look up into the night sky. Count all the stars, if you can. You will have as many children as there are stars in the sky!"

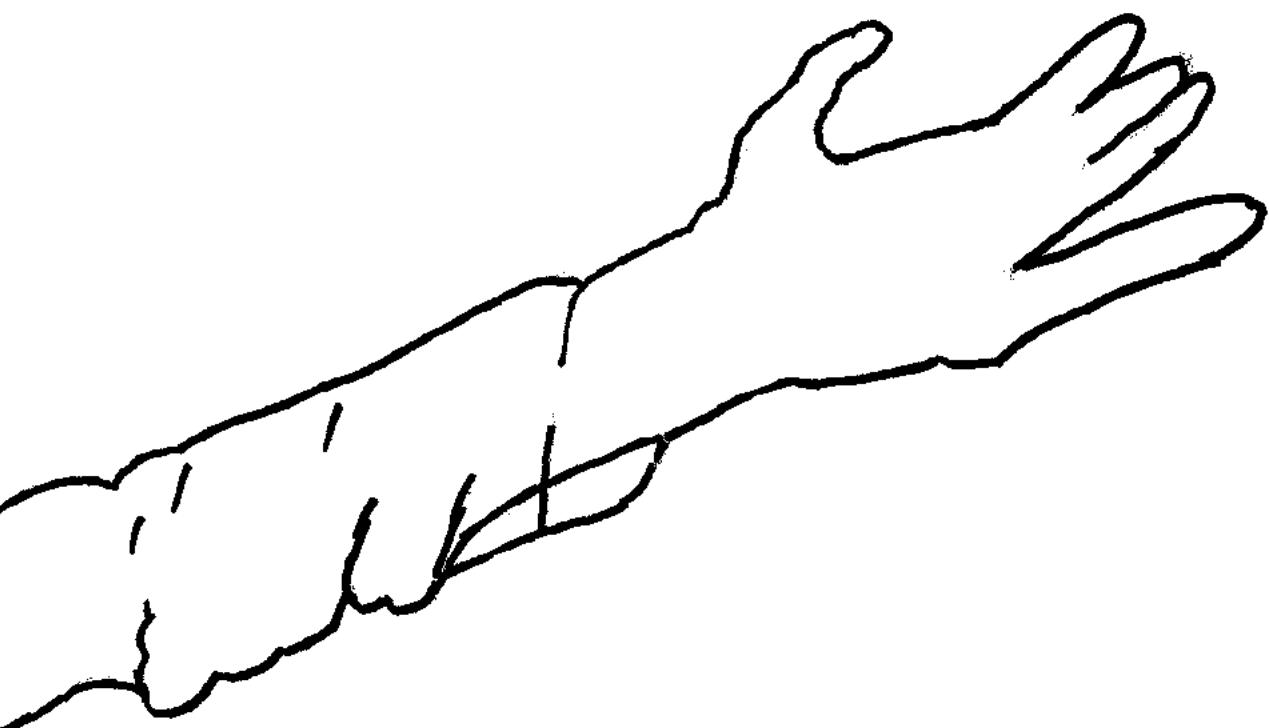

So Abraham went outside. Abraham looked up into the sky and tried to count the stars.

And then something happened. As he stood there counting, suddenly...

Abraham believed God's word!

That made God very happy. His Promise was very big, and Abraham's Faith in God's promise was very big too.

Part 5

At last it happened.
God kept his promise to Abraham and gave him a son, Isaac.
God's promise of a new people wa beginning to grow!
And so God's promise passed on from Abraham to Isaac.

When Isaac grew up, God gave him a Son, Jacob.

God's promise was beginning to grow and grow!

And so God's promise passed on from Abraham to Isaac to Jacob.

When Jacob grew up
God gave him twelve sons!
And he named them Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Zebulun, Issachar, Dan, Gad, Asher, Naphtali, Joseph, and Benjamin.

God's Promise was beginning to grow and grow and grow!!!
But while God's people were growing in number...

They also were growing apart.

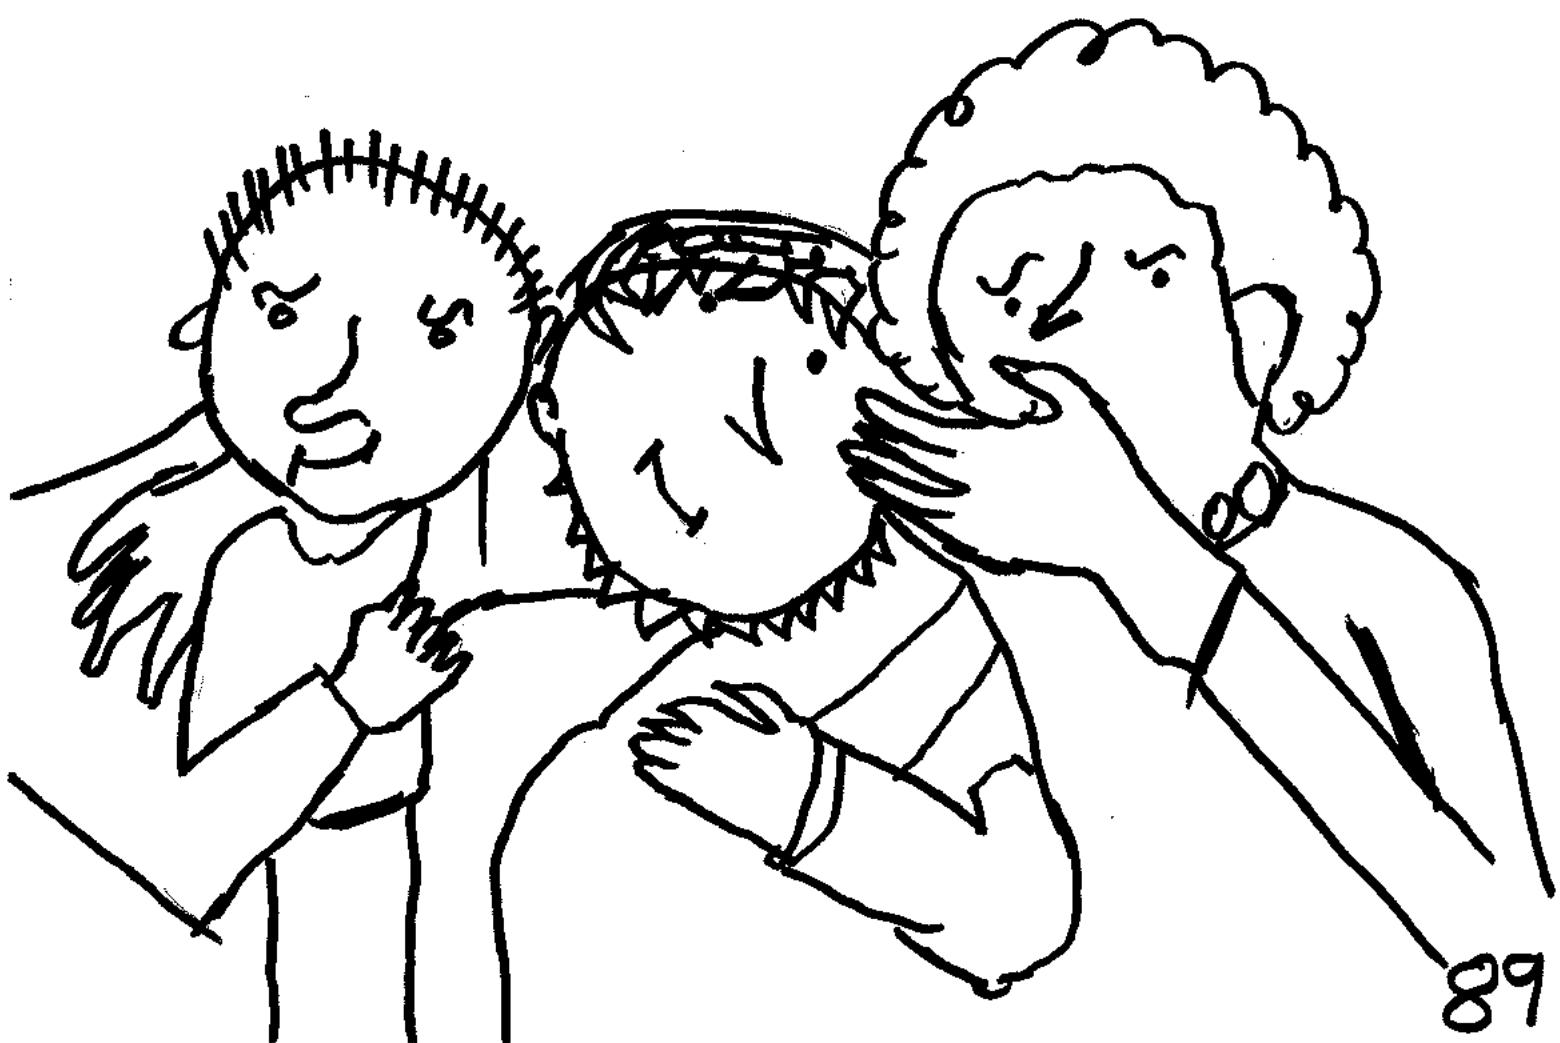

Jacob's many sons hated their younger brother Joseph.

They did an evil thing.

They put him in a pit and then sold him to be a slave in a faraway place.

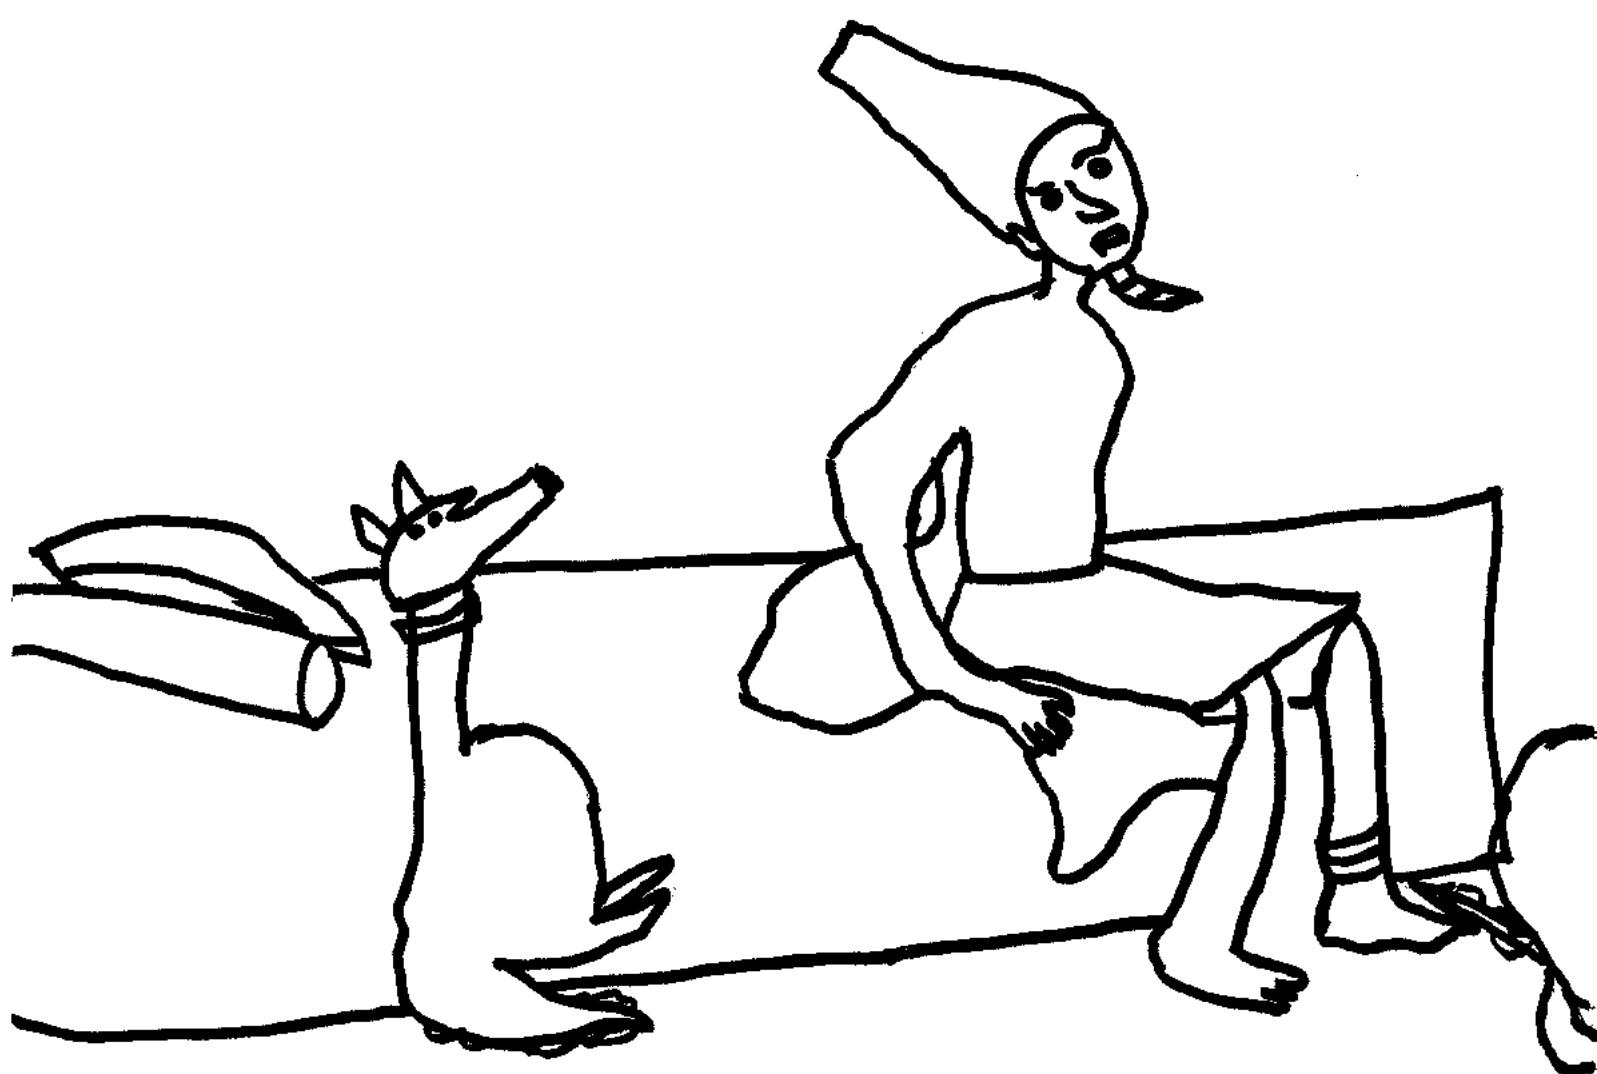

90

Isn't that sad?

Do you think Joseph was all alone in faraway Egypt?

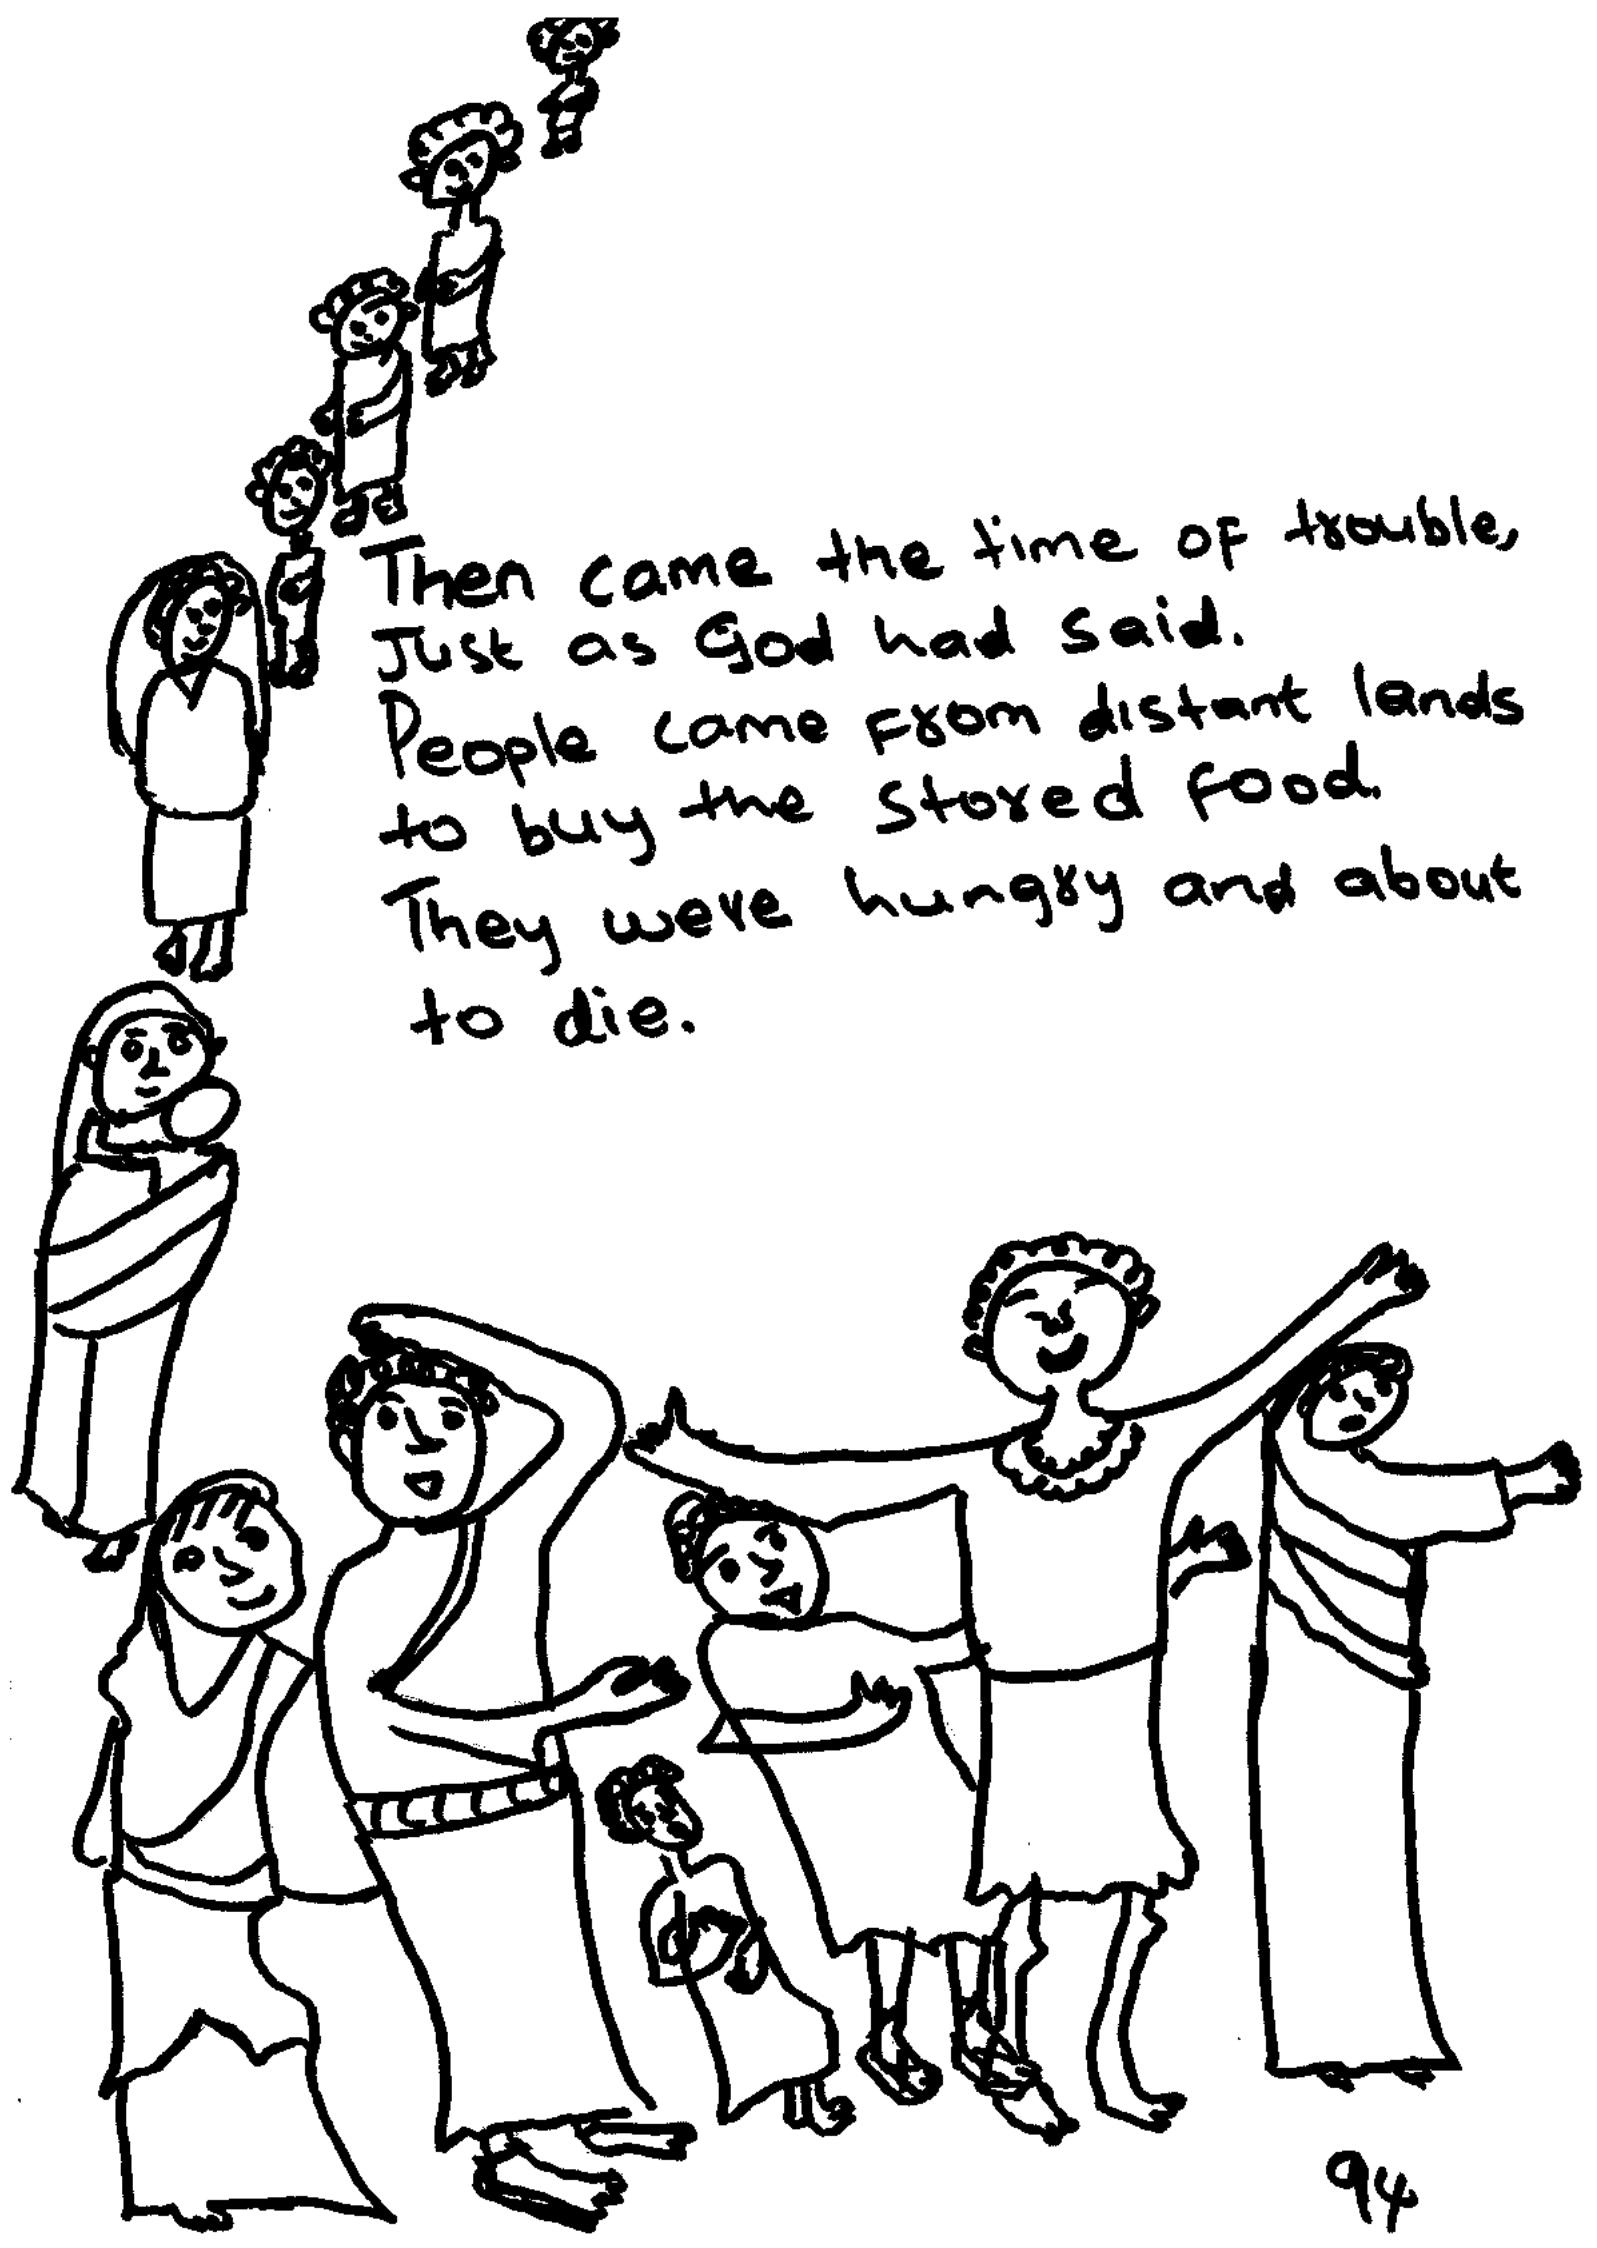

No. He was not alone
God was with Joseph.
And God was going to use this evil thing, that happened to Joseph for good!

God showed Joseph that in a few years there wouldn't be enough food for all the hungry people in the land. Joseph believed God.

And Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, believed Joseph. He put Joseph in charge of the kingdom, and Joseph helped him by storing up food.

Then came the time of trouble,
Just as God had said.
People came from distant lands to buy the stored food.
They were hungry and about to die.

When Joseph's father, Jacob, heard that there was food in Egypt....

He told his sons to go and buy some.
so they went
And Joseph,
now a very powerful man, recognized
them.
But his brother did not recognize Joseph.

After all these years Joseph could have gotten even with them. Joseph could have sold them as slaves.

Joseph could have killed
them.

But instead
Joseph gave them food.
Joseph forgave them.

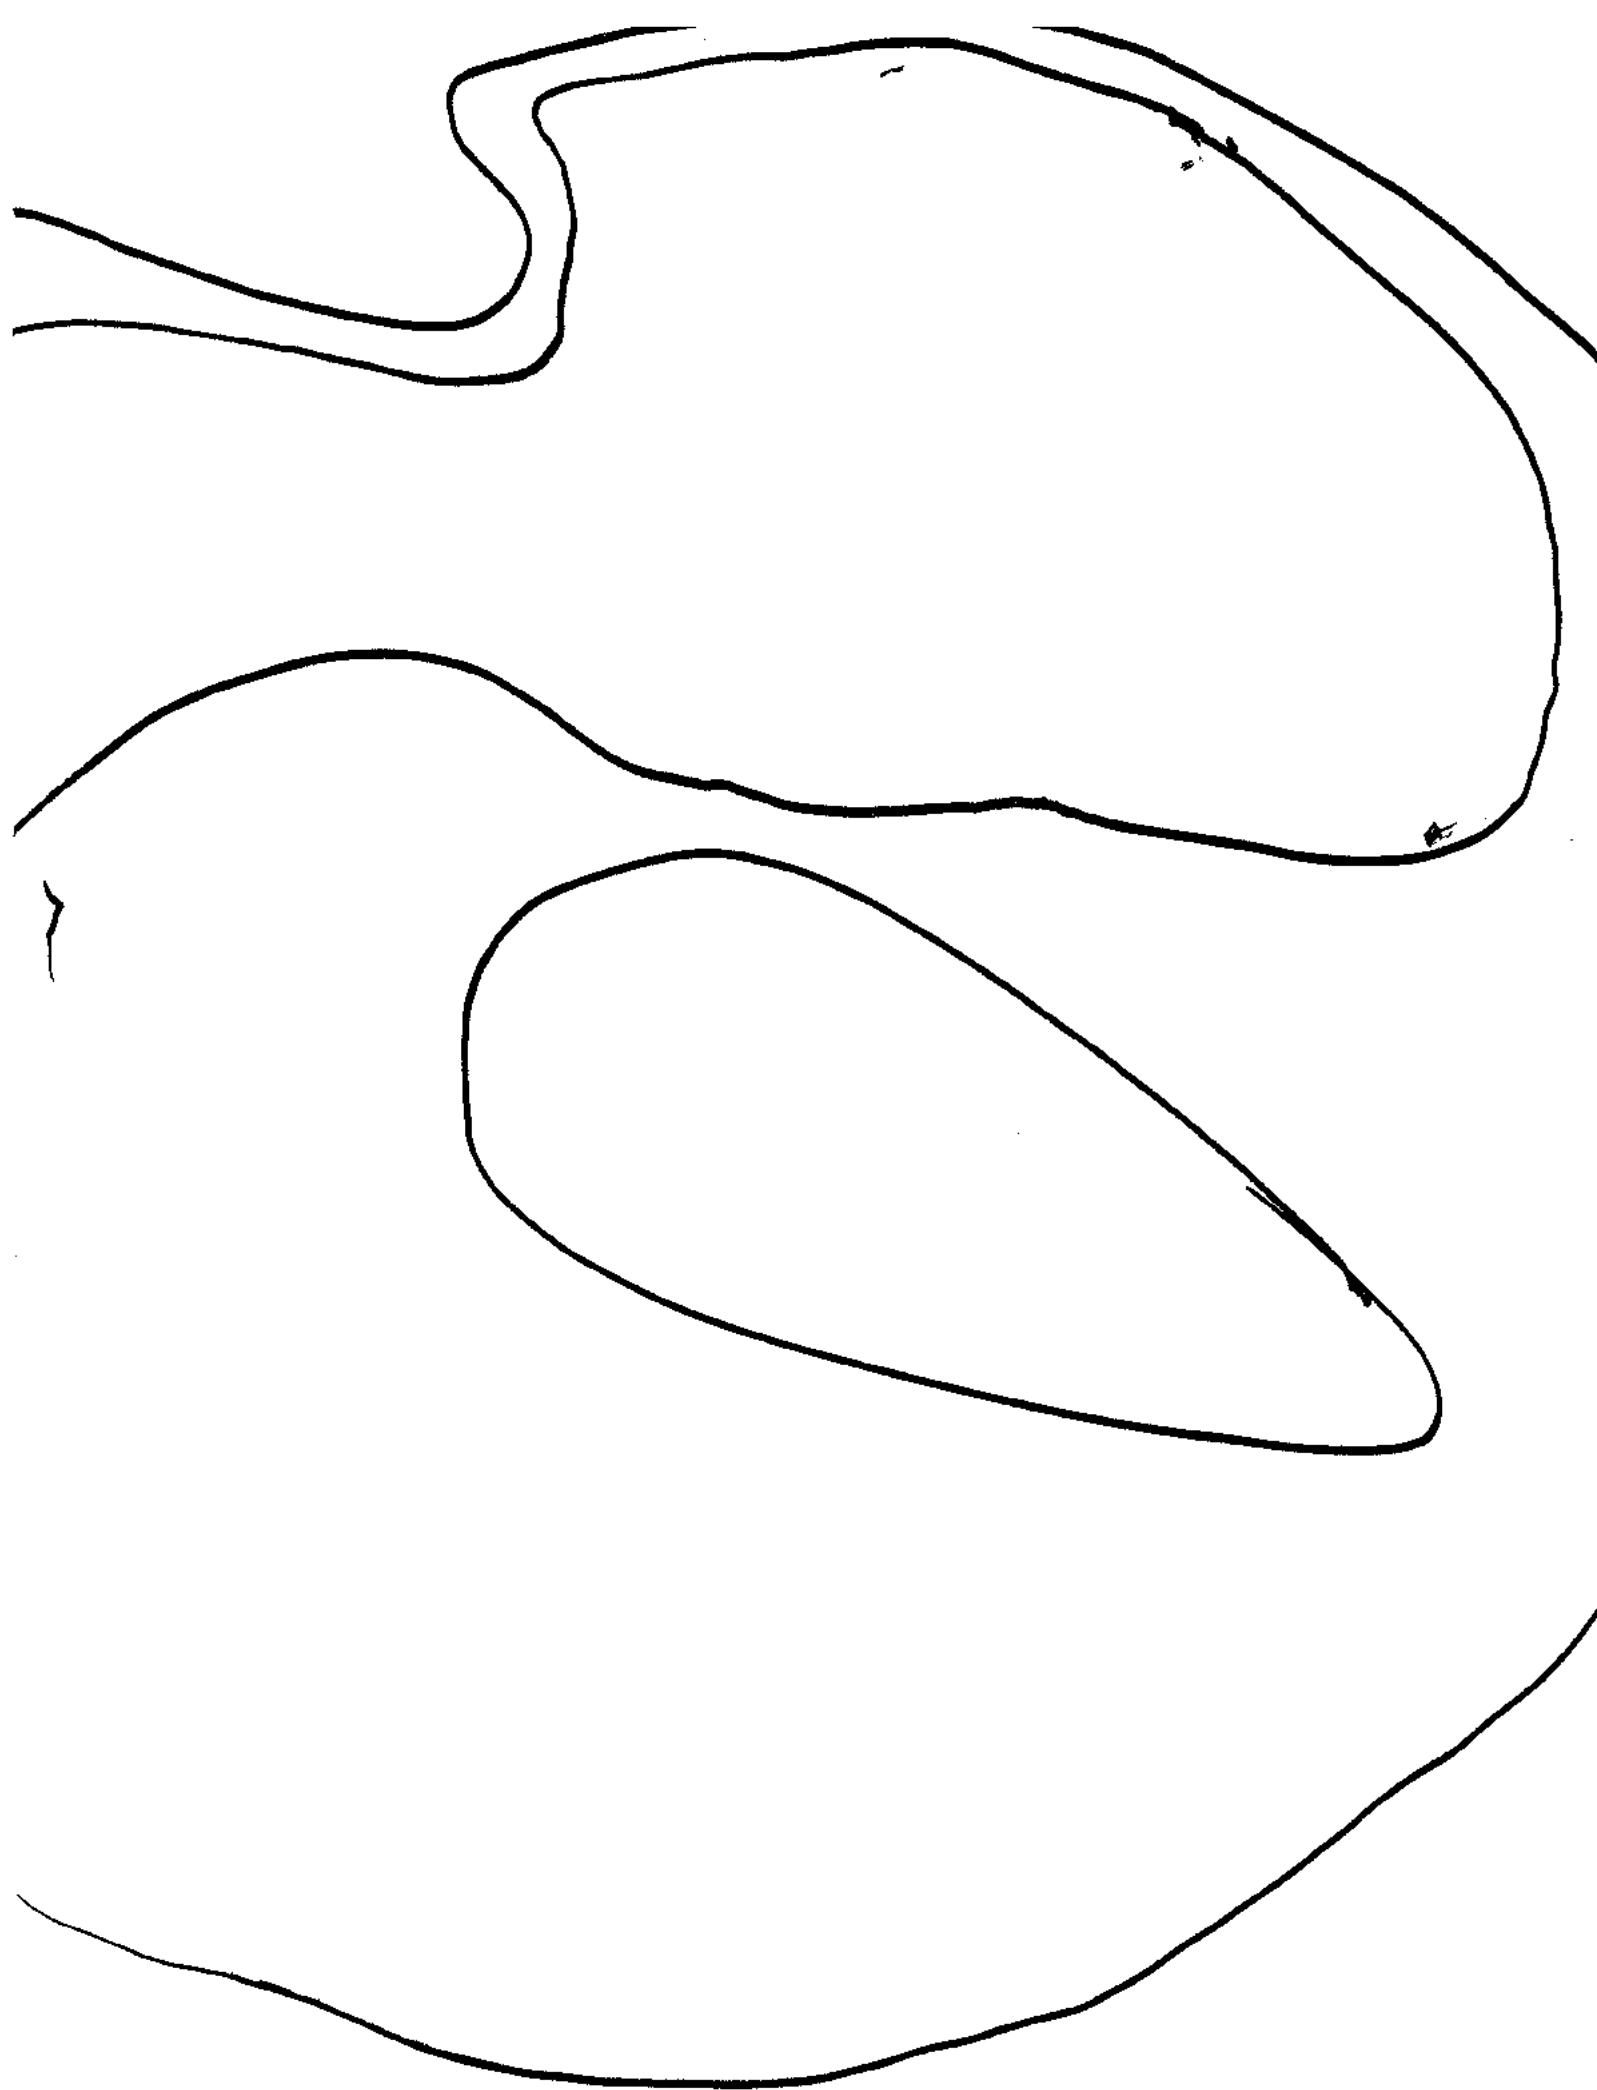

He told them not to worry.
He told them God had been with him in Egypt.
He told them God had sent him ahead to Egypt, so that God's people would not die.

Soon Jacob's family would begin to grow
in Egypt

God's people become great

Part 6

Jacob moved his growing household to Egypt.

Bags were packed.

Camels and donkeys were loaded with things, and everyone started out.

First came Jacob, the son of Isaac, the grandson of Abraham.

Next came Jacob's sons.

And then came all their families.

Seventy people moved to Egypt!

By now God's promise of a great people was really growing!

And God's promise kept growing long after Jacob and his sons died. After four hundred years in Egypt, God's people had grown into a great nation named Israel.

In fact, Israel had so many people that the land was filled with them.

Do you think the Egyptians liked having all these people in their land?

Pharaoh, the king of the land, hated the people of Israel.

Pharaoh hated Israel's God too.

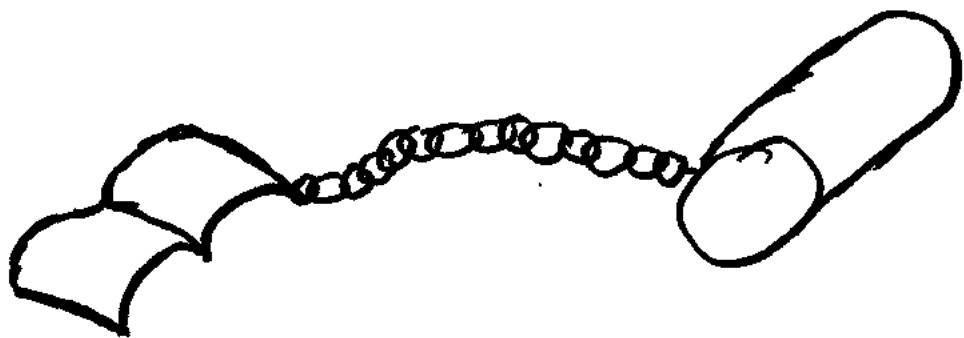

So he treated God's people like slaves.
He made them work, work, work.

He was so evil that he even killed some of God's people.

God's people were in trouble
They cried out to God for help and God heard them

Do you see the little baby boy?
He was God's answer to the people's cry for help.

His name was Moses, and one day he would rescue God's people.

When Moses grew up, God spoke to him.
Moses listened to God and then
Moses did what God told him to do.

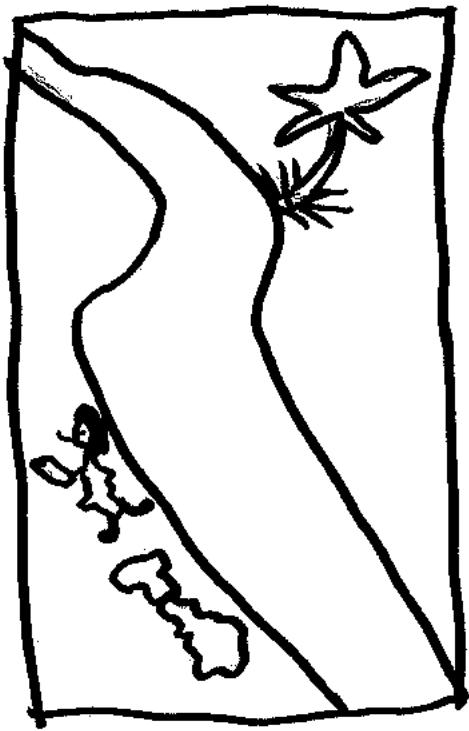

He went to pharaoh and said God's words:
"Let my people go!"
But the king said no.
He did not listen to God.

Moses told Pharaoh that if he disobeyed God's word, terrible things would happen to the Egyptians

Did that make the king decide to listen to God?
No, Pharaoh still refused to let God's people go.

So God made the river turn to blood

The entire land Swarmed with Frogs.

and dust turned into gnats.

But pharaoh still refused to let god's people go.

So God made the houses full of flies

The animals of Egypt got sick and died.

But pharaoh still refused to let God's people go.

and the people got painful sores.

So God made hail fall from the sky

Locusts covered the ground.

But pharaoh still refused to let God's people go.

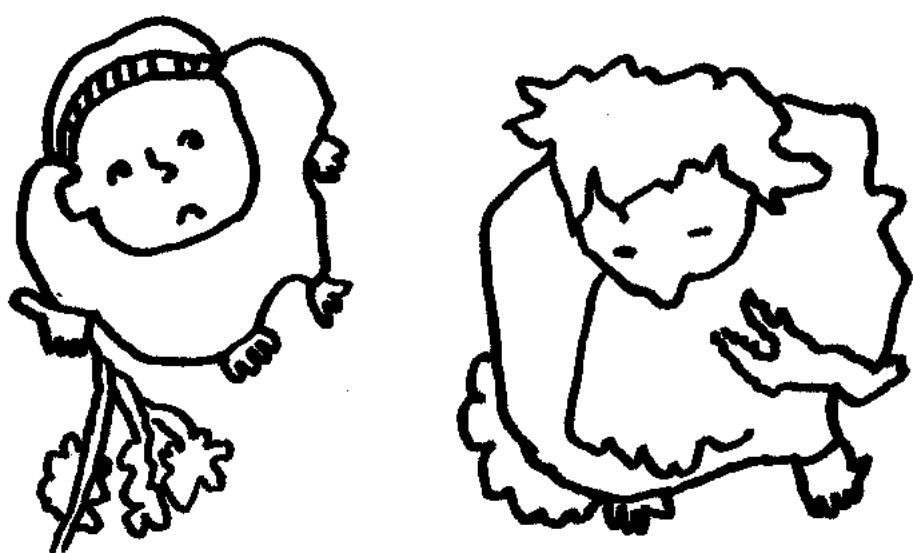

Can you imagine what it would take for Pharaoh to let God's people go?

That night the Lord took the lives of the firstborn in homes that did not have God's great Sign.
Many Egyptians died that night

But the Lord did not take the lives of the firstborn in homes
that had blood over their doors.
God "passed over" the families of Israel.

At last pharaoh stopped
Pretending to be God.
He listened to God and told God's people, "GO!"

God did keep his promise to Abraham!
He did make him into a great nation.
When God's people left Egypt, there were almost one million of them.

Do you know what God did next?

God gave this great nation us good word

Moses went upon a mountain top to meet with God.

The mountain shook, and lightning flashed.

God spoke to Moses then.

Moses told the people all that God had said.

Moses told them how to love God
Moses told them how to love others.
Moses told them how to live as God's people
And to make sure that no one would forget.

Moses had God's words written down in God's holy book.

But do you know what happened?
Something sad.

God's People Still Forgot God's Word:

Many of them doubted that God's Word was good.
Many of them disobeyed God's Word.
Many of them did not let God be King over them.

222

So God punished his people.
He made them live in the desert for a long, long time.
But after forty years, God was ready to keep another part of his promise.
God was ready to bring his people into their own place.

Part 8

God's special place was called Canaan.

And God chose a man named Joshua to lead his people into it.

But there was a problem
Other people already lived in canan

They lived in cities like Terecho with big, strong walls around them.
The cities were filled with people who did not listen to God.

God told Joshua
Be strong and courageous."

God told Joshua to have the people march around Jericho six days in a row.

So the people marched and marched all day long - one, two, three, four, five, six whole days they marched.

Do you know what happened on the seventh day? When the trumpets sounded and the people shouted...

God kept his promise, and the walls came tumbling down

God drove out their enemies.

Then God's people lived in the land he had promised them.

When Joshua was an old man,
he reminded the people to obey God's word.
"Choose this day whom you will serve . . ."

But as for me and my house,
we will serve the Lord!"

And the people said,
"We also will serve the Lord."

on that,
Many of God's good promises to Israel were fulfilled.

Israel promised to be God's people Israel promised to obey God's word.
If they kept their promise, they would always live in God's promised place.

Bunt oder beige?

Israel disobeyed God's word and rejected God from being king over them.

So God punished Israel.
He let their enemies rule over them.

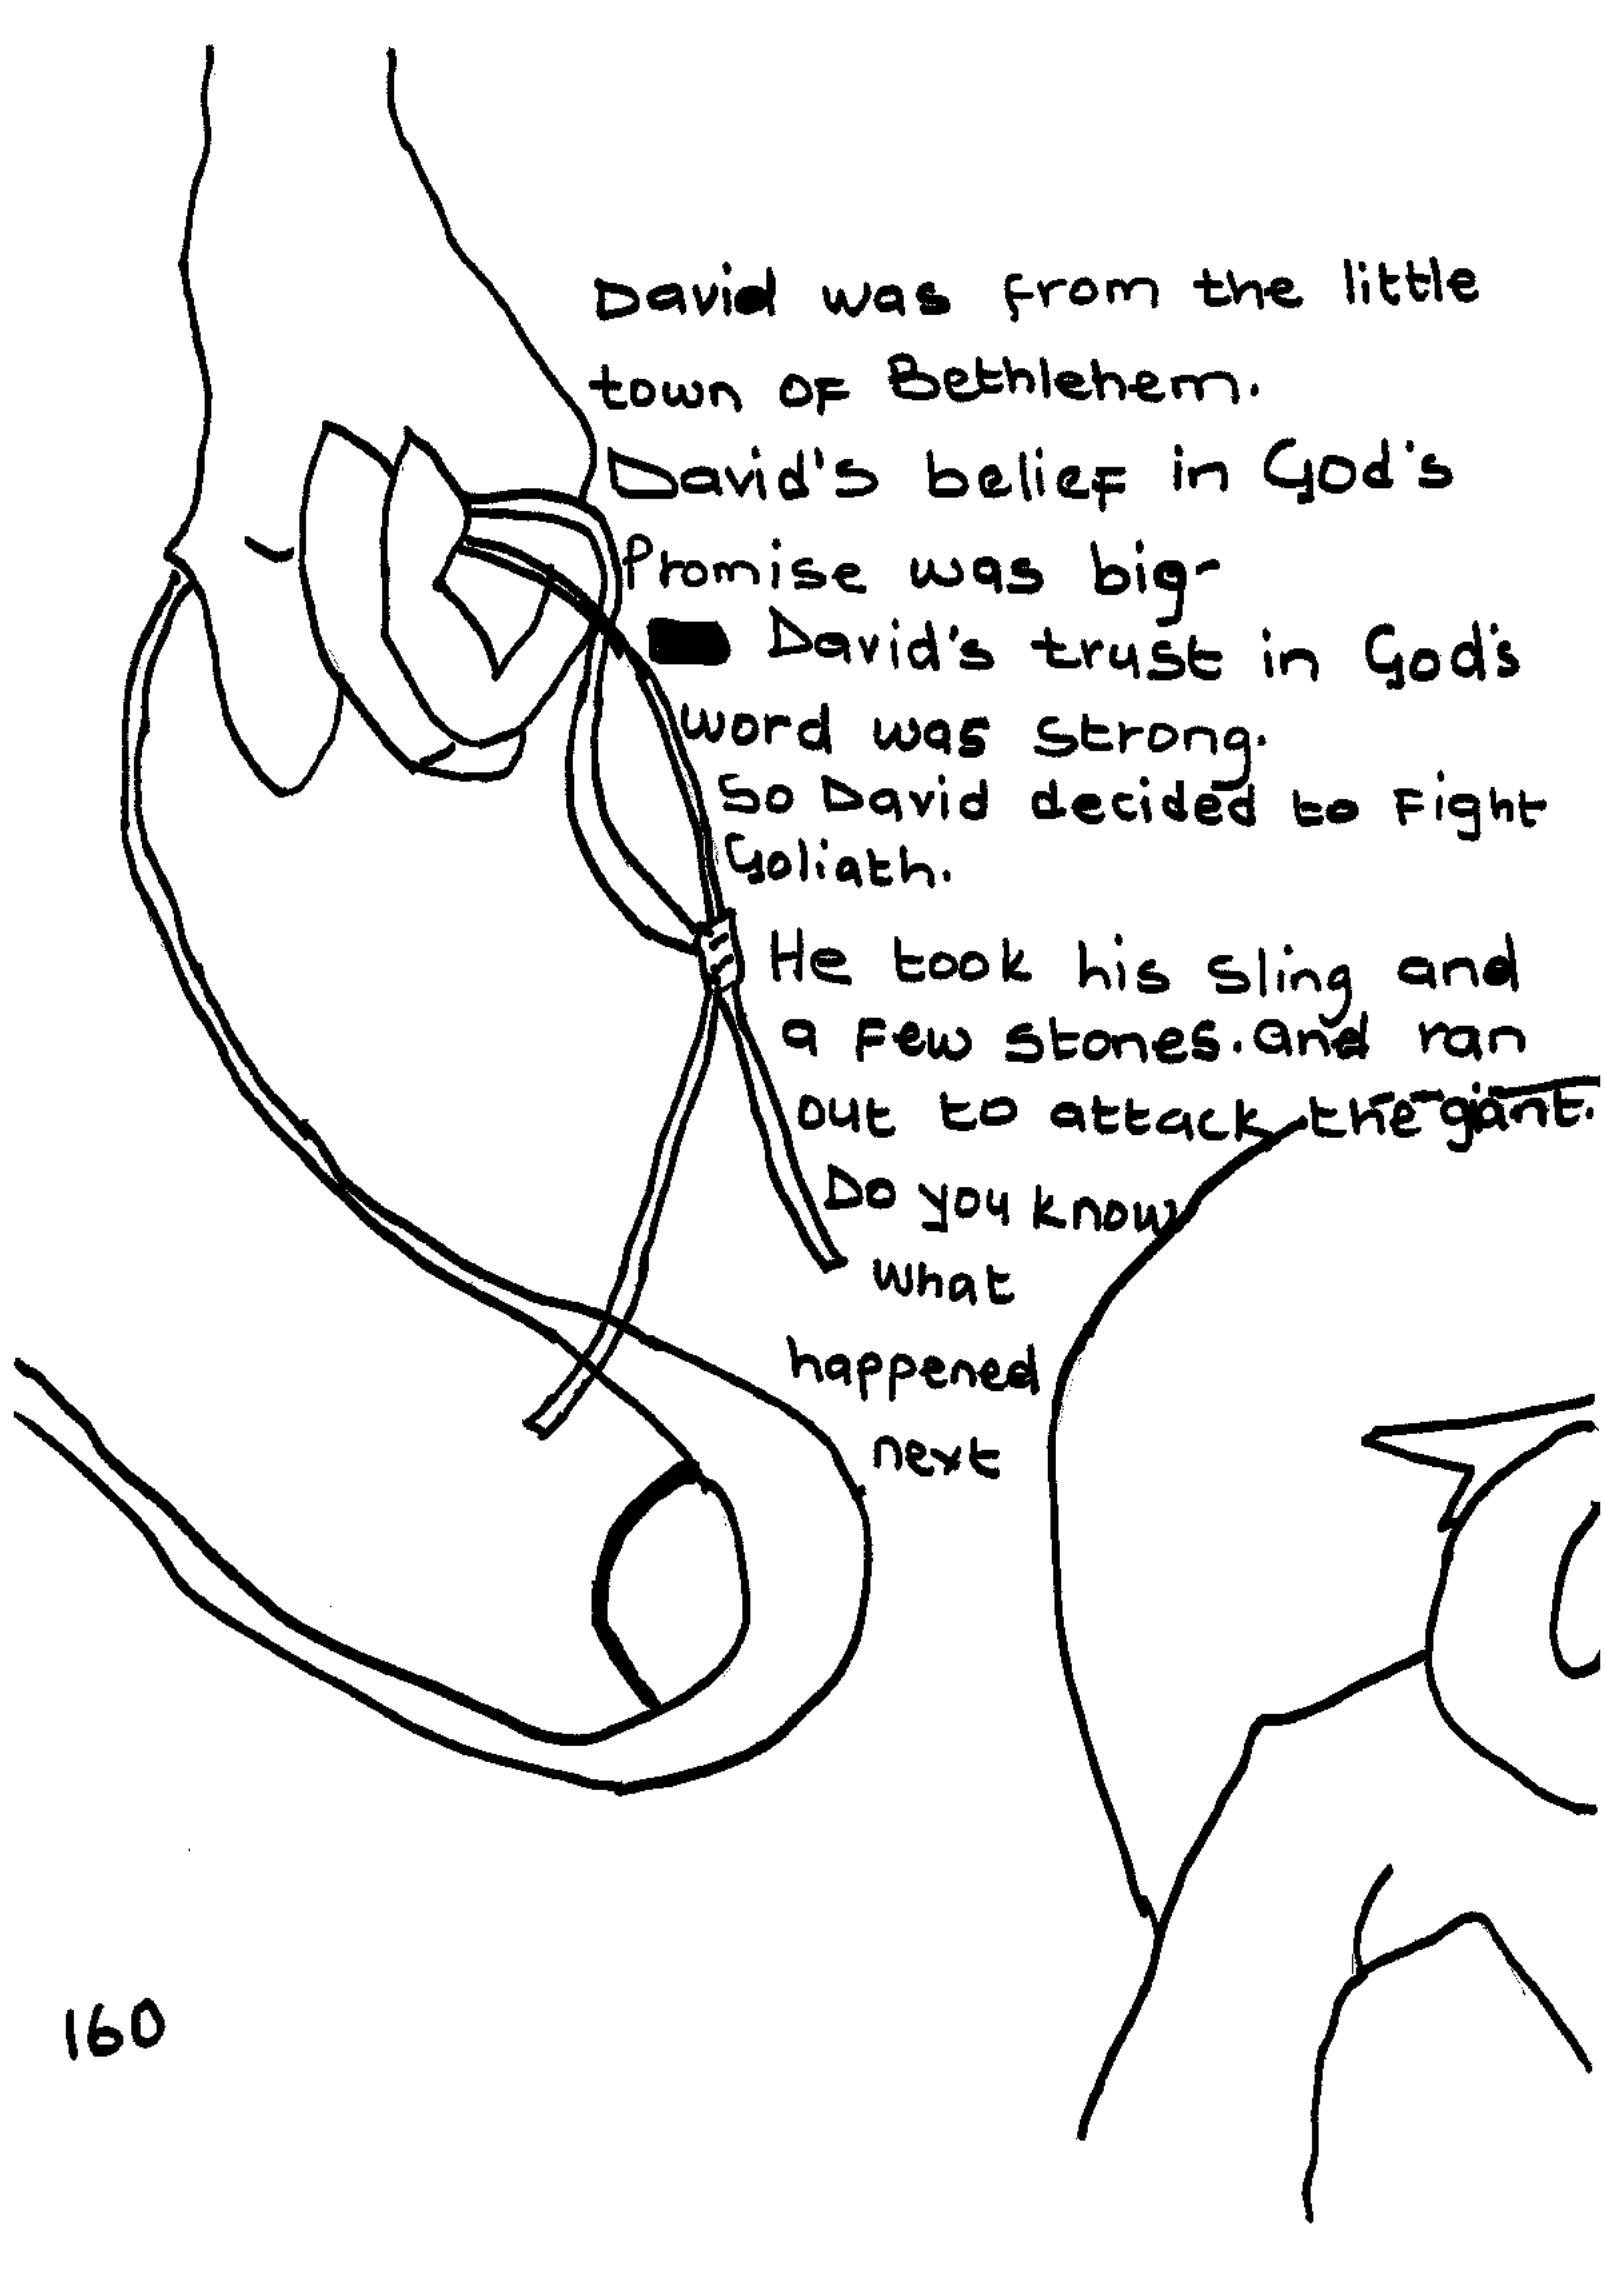

During this time philistines ruled God's people.
One of the philistines was so big and strong that not one of God's people would fight him.
Goliath was a giant.
He stood even nine feet tall.

Goliath hated God's people.
All the men of Israel were afraid of him.
All except one.

David was from the little town of Bethlehem.

David's belief in God's promise was big-

■ David's trust in God's word was strong.

So David decided to fight Goliath.

He took his sling and a few stones. And ran out to attack the giant.

Do you know what happened

next

God kept his promise to rescue his people!

The First Stone that Flew from David's sling hit Goliath right between the eyes.

David killed Goliath and rescued Israel from the Philistines.

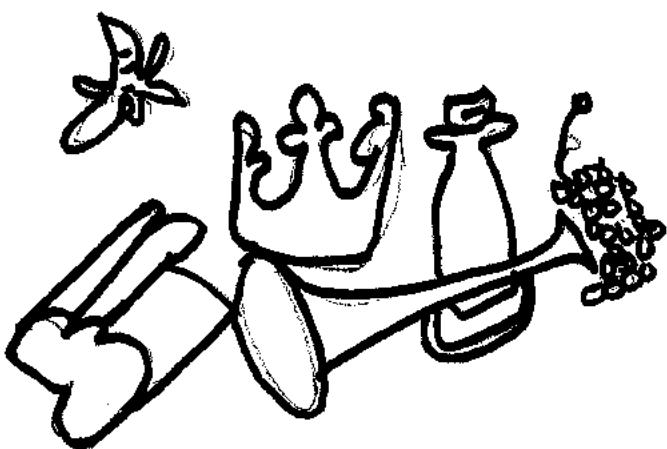

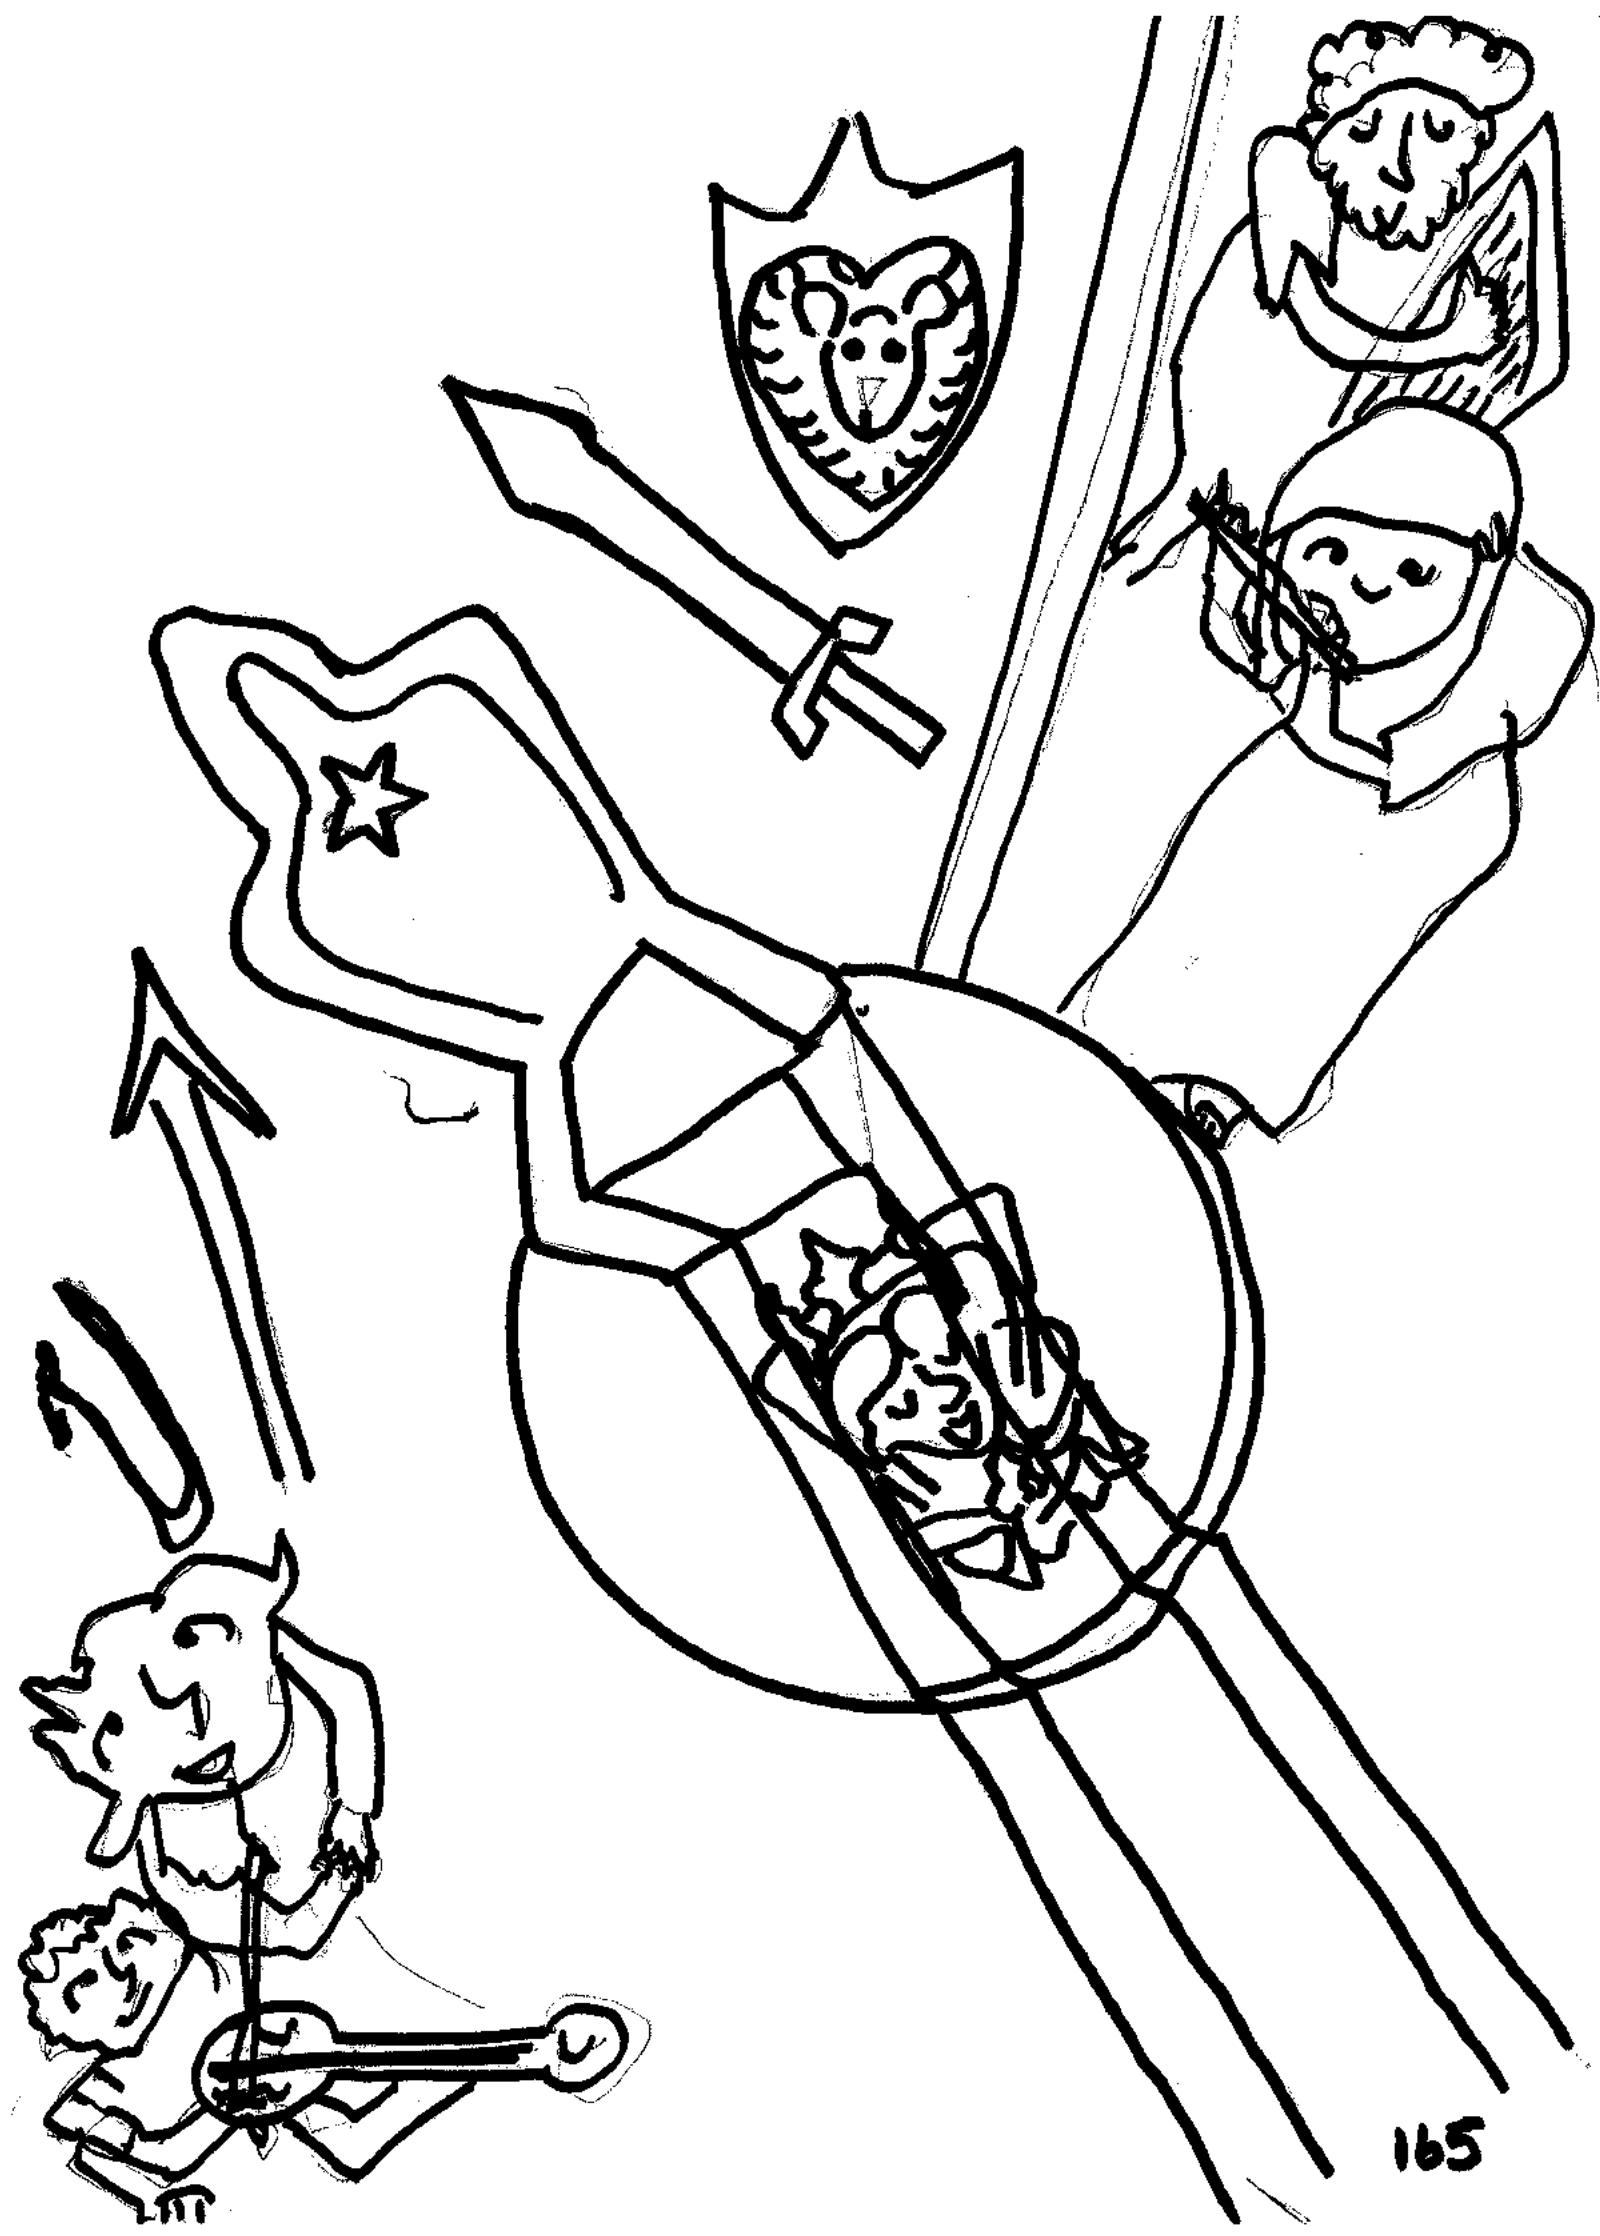

God was with David.

And God gave David victory Over his ~~bad~~ enemies in other battles.

David, the mighty warrior, became King over God's people.
David ruled over God's special place

Do you see David singing to God
He is thanking God for keeping his promises

Now that God's people were in God's place, it seemed that soon they would become a blessing to all people of the earth.

Part 9

David was amazed at how good God was.

David wanted to do something nice for God.

David decided to build God a house.

But one night God sent word to David He didn't want David to build him
a house.

God said that David's son would build the house instead.

The God surprised David.

God promised to build David
a house!

Not a real house made of bricks or wood but a kingdom - God's Kingdom

And then God surprised David again!
God promised him that someone from David's family would live forever as God's King

If that weren't enough, surprised David again!

This forever ruler would be the promised one who would bring God's blessing to all the people of the earth.

God's surprising promise made David very happy!
He thanked God, and the promise was written in God's holy book.
After David died ....

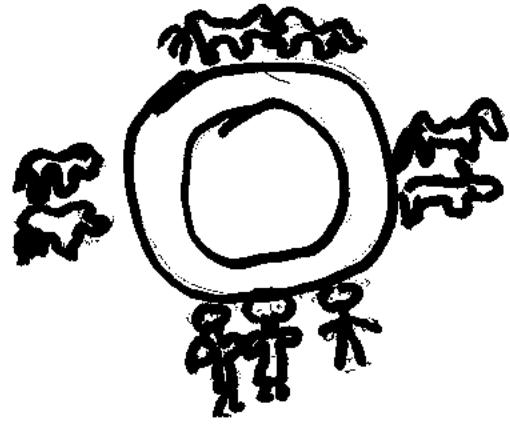

David's son Solomon became King.

With gold and wood he built a great house.
It was a beautiful place called a temple.

This temple was where the people made blood sacrifices for their sins.
When God saw that great sign he would forgive, or pass over, the sins of this people.

After the temple was finished,
God come down in a cloud.
The people were happy and gave thanks to the Lord, saying "He is good, for his steadfast love endures forever".

A queen come to see Solomon, his place, and the temple he had build.

She asked him lots of questions, and God gave Solomon wisdom for them all.
The Queen was amazed and greatly helped by all he said and was blessed by God for having come.

you see, God was keeping all his promises to Abraham

He had already made Abraham into a great nation.
and he had given Israel the land
And now God's King was bringing God's blessing to other people of the earth

Does this make you wonder
If Solomon might be God's forever
King?

Could he be the promised one to bring God's blessings to everyone?

Part 10

King Solomon turned his heart away from God. God's people turned their hearts away from God too.

They doubted that God was good.
They disobeyed God's word.
They rejected God as their king.

Before Solomon died, God told him that someday his kingdom would be torn apart.

After Solomon died, God's word came true.

God was angry. He sent prophets to warn God's kings and people to stop disobeying God's word.

One of those prophets was Elijah.

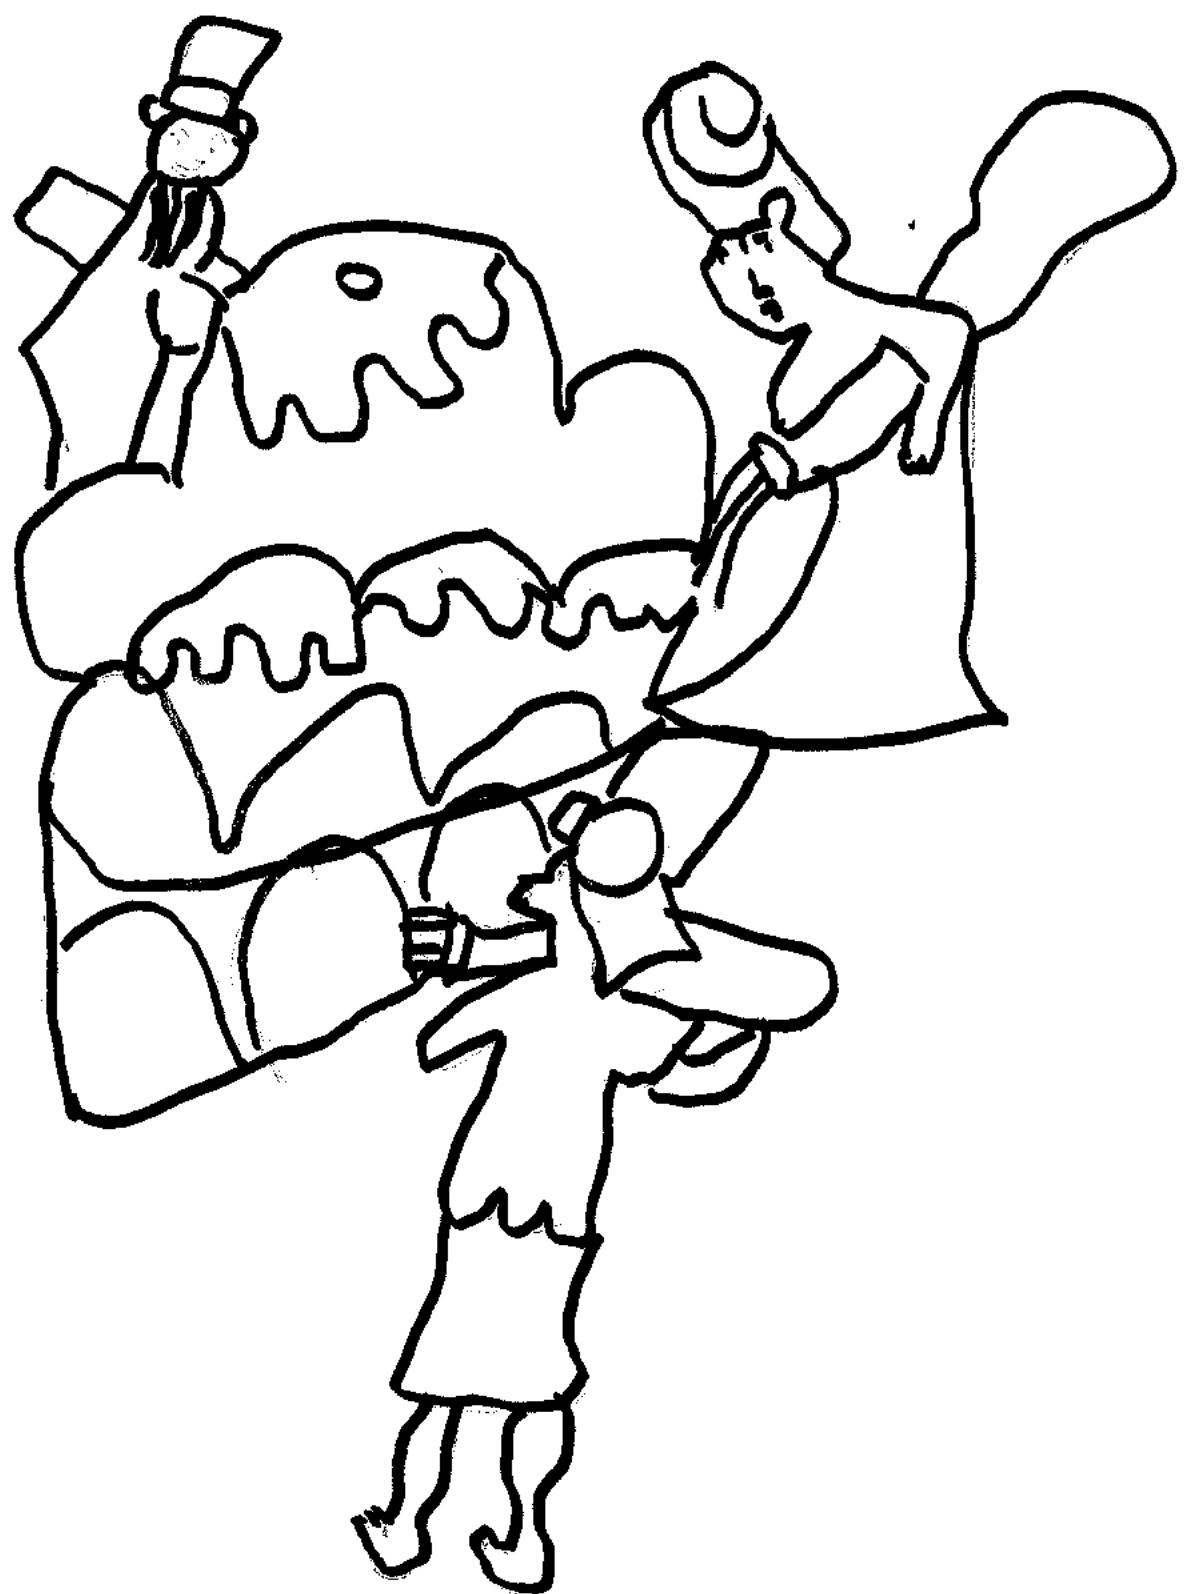

At that time the ruler over part of God's People was Ahab. Elijah challenged Ahab's prophets to a contest. He told the prophets to ask their god to send down fire on an alter. King Ahab's prophets asked and asked but fire never came.

Then Elijah build an alter.

He told the people to pour four big jar of water on his alter.

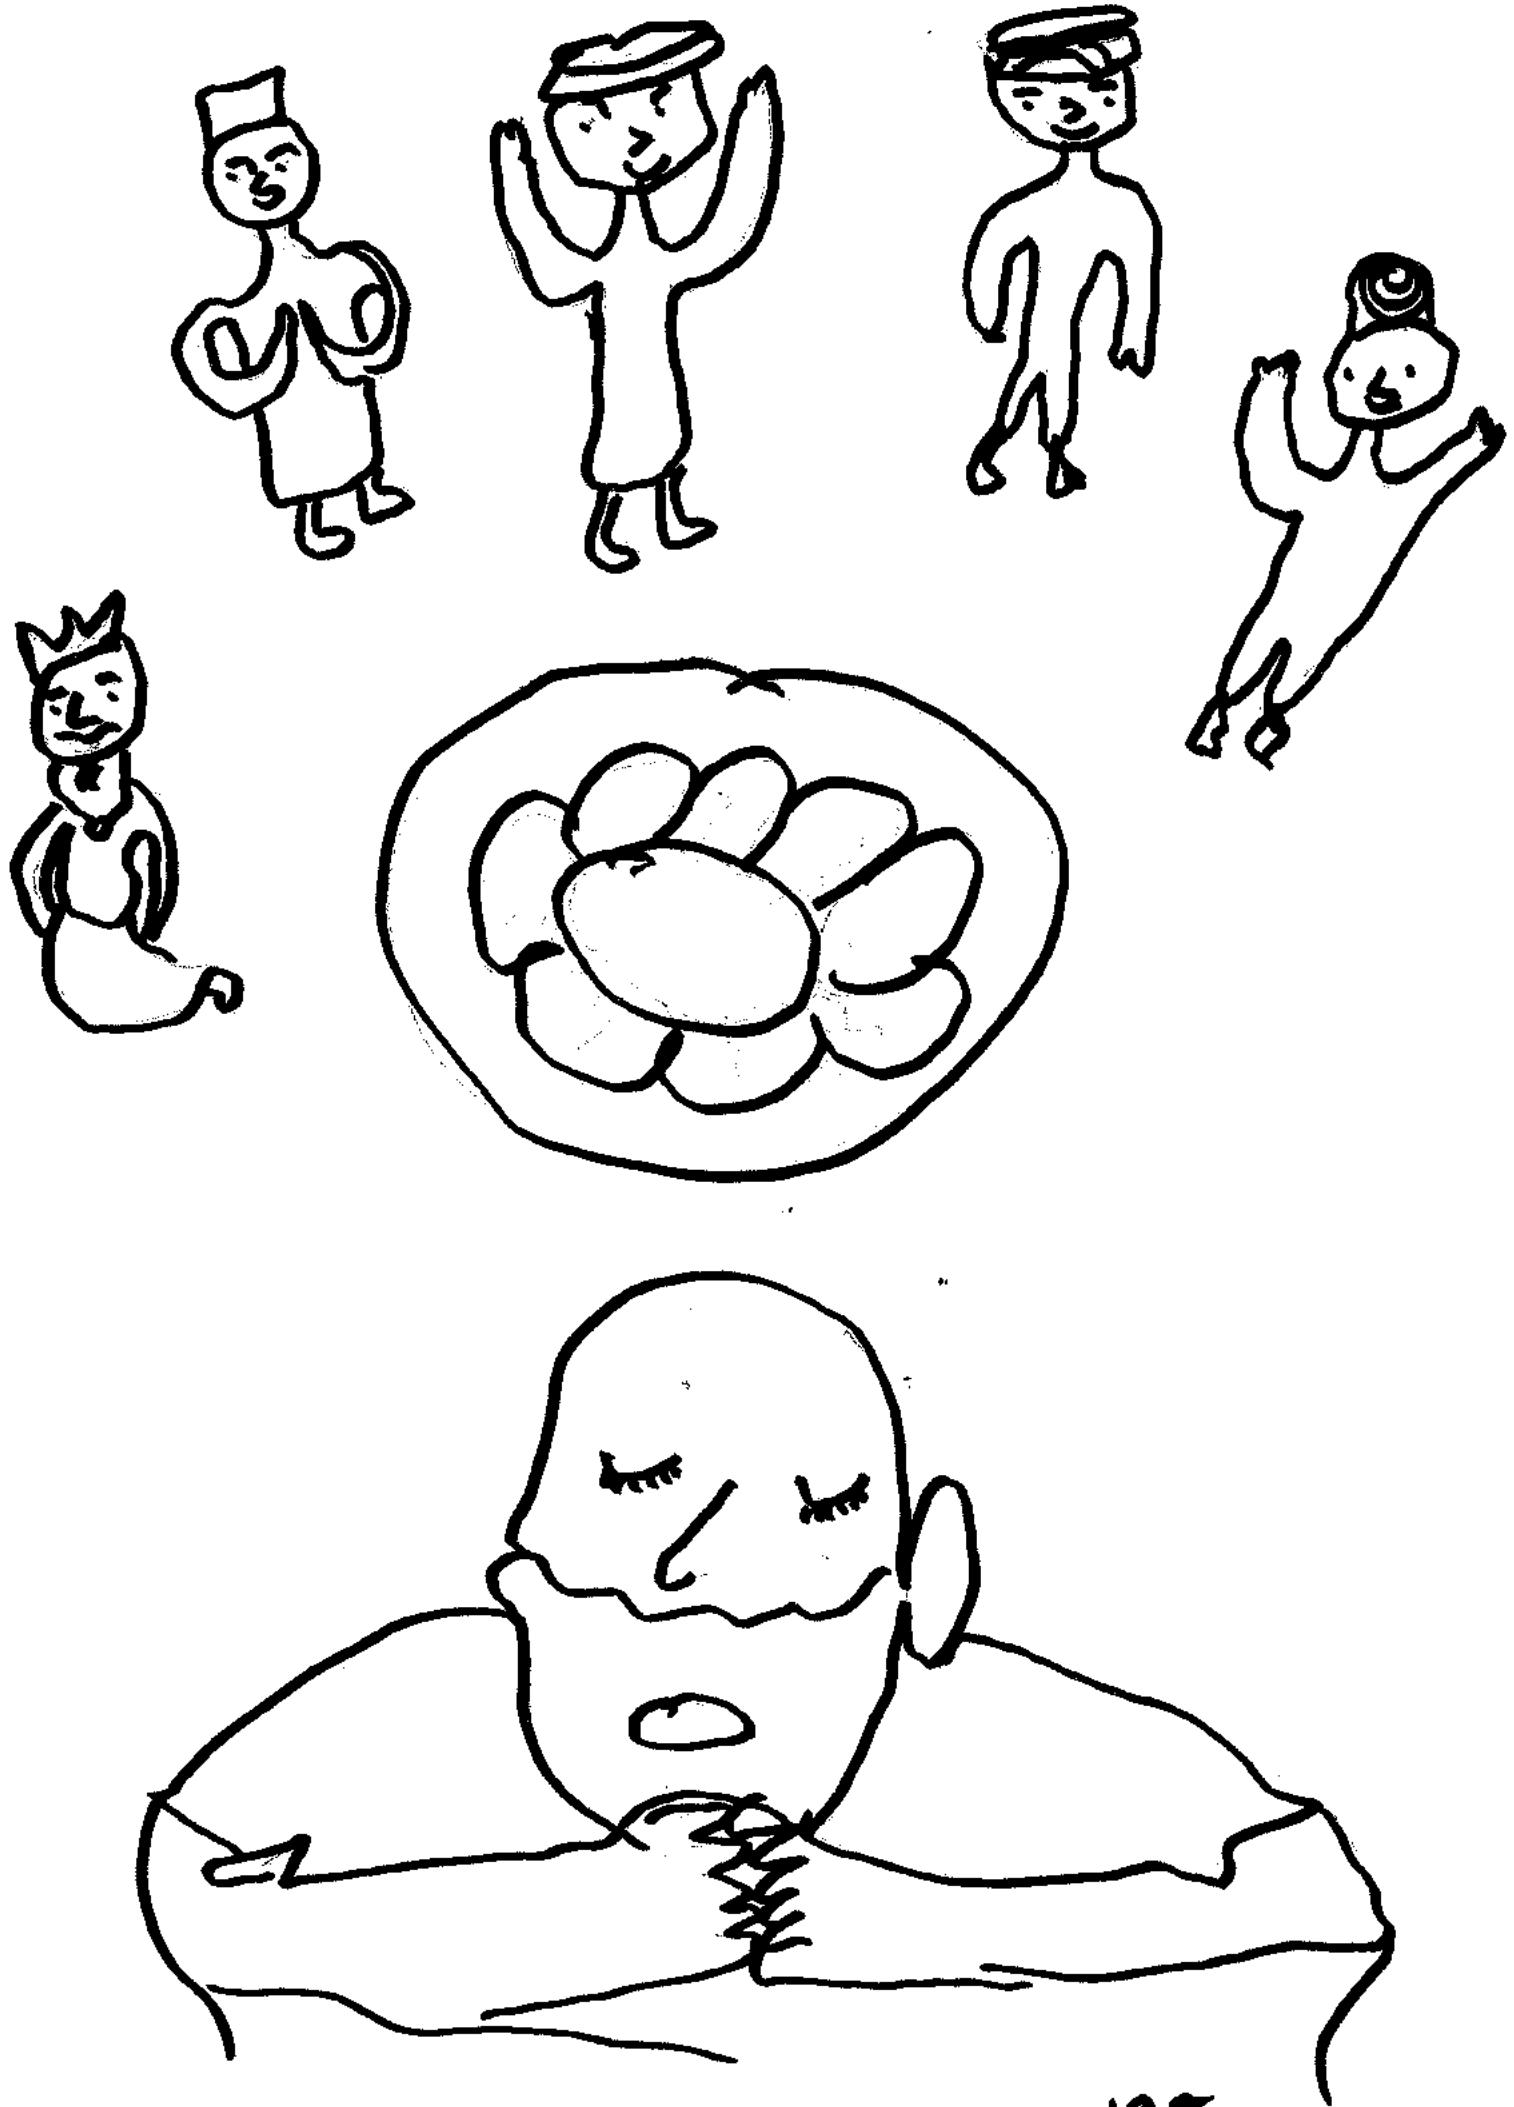

Then he told them to do it again, and again!

Twelve jars of water soaked Elijah's alter.

Only then did Elijah step forward and pray,
"O Lord, God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, let it be known this day that you are God in Israel ..."

Answer me ... that this people may know that you, O Lord, are God, and that you have turned their hearts back" and do you know what happened then?

God answered Elijah's prayer!

fire fell from the sky and burned up Elijah's Sacrifice. God's fire burned up the stones, the soil, and all the water that had soaked the altar.

The people were amazed!

But do you think this made them return to God?
No! It didn't They continued to disobey God's word

So . . .

God Punished his people by sending a ruler from far away to make war on them.
Many of God's people were killed or taken away.

Later, King Zedekiah ruled over the rest of God's people. He did many evil things, and still he did not think that God would punish him.

He thought to himself,
Didn't God promise us this land forever?
So God sent the prophet Jeremiah to say to the King, "No."

But Zedekiah refused to listen.
So...

God punished his people again by sending another king to make war on them.

King Nebuchadnezzar came all the way from Babylon, and he destroyed Jerusalem. He burned Solomon's temple to the ground and took the rest of God's people far away their land.

This was another very sad day.

God's people had to leave God's place because they would not have God for their King.

Do you remember when God sent Adam and Eve away from him, out of the garden?

Well, God was doing it again.
He was sending people out of his place because of their sin.

Even though God's people were far from home, God still spoke to them.

God sent more prophets.

They spoke all his words and wrote them down in God's holy book

The prophet Ezekiel wrote that one day God would raise the temple and give his people new hearts.

Isaiah reminded them that God's forever King would come from the family of David.

The prophet Jeremiah was hopeful too. He said that Israel would return home again in seventy years.

Seventy years passed, and the prophet.

Daniel prayed to God.

He asked God to remember his promise,
and God heard Daniel's prayer.

Finally God's people went home to Jerusalem.

They returned to the land
But they had a lot of work to do.

Jerusalem and the temple were ruined.

They worked very hard
And when the foundation
Was finished

Can you see the People rebuilding the city Walls and the temple?

The people celebrated

All the people shouted loud praise to God.
They were happy. With trumpets and cymbals they sang to God.

"For he is good, for his steadfast love endures forever..."

But many of the older men cried.
Can you guess why?

They cried because they remembered Solomon's beautiful temple and knew that Israel could never completely rebuild
God's place.

٩٦٦

They cried because they still longed for God's forever king to come.

THE NEW TESTAMENT

MANY SILENT TEARS

Years Passed

230

Without a single word from God.

and the years turned into many years, and the many years turned into hundreds of years, and the great promises of God seemed to fade away.

Israel became less important in the world.
Other nations became great - strong nations, powerful nations whose kings ruled over God's people.
One such king ----

233

Was Caesar Augustus.

This Roman ruler thought he was very important.

One day he wondered to himself,

-How will everyone know that I am the great Caesar, the Roman ruler,
the King of the world?

I know

I will count all the people under my rule.
Surely that will show the world how great I am.

So Caesar, the Roman ruler the king of the whole Roman world, began counting all his people to show everyone how great he was.

What Caesar did not know was that ...

God

the world's true ruler, the king OF the Universe, was getting ready to show everyone how great he was.

God was going to end his many years of silence.

God was going to keep his promise of a forever King.

And do you know how God was going to do this?

Not like Caesar . . .

Not proudly, by counting all his people, but humbly, by becoming one of his people

In the power of his spirit God would bring his forever King into the world as a baby!

God's promised one is BORN

Look at all people on the road to Bethlehem

They were on their to be counted,
And they were very unhappy

They were mad at king, and they frowned as they walked
They were angry with the king, and they grumbled as they walked.

But not everyone was unhappy.
Do you see the happy couple on the road?

If they were mad at King, their face didn't show it.

Do you have any idea why they were so happy?

Mary soon was going to have baby!

GOD had told Mary and Joseph that their baby was the one promised long ago.
He would rescue God's people, give God's place back to them, and bless all the people of the earth.

But in this crowded city,
Where would this Special baby be born?

All the nice, big and clean homes were filled up with people.

Can you guess where this special baby would be born?

God's forever King was born in a stable, a place for animals.

His parents named him
Jesus.

They wrapped him up warmly and laid him in a manger.

What a strange place for the promised one!
Who would have imagined it?

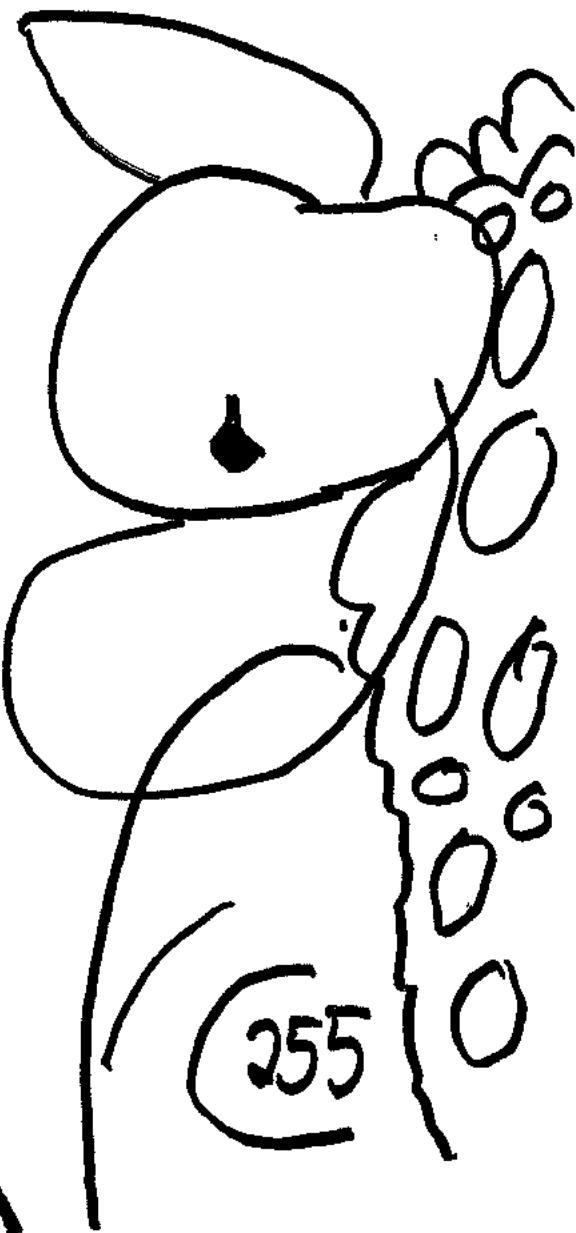

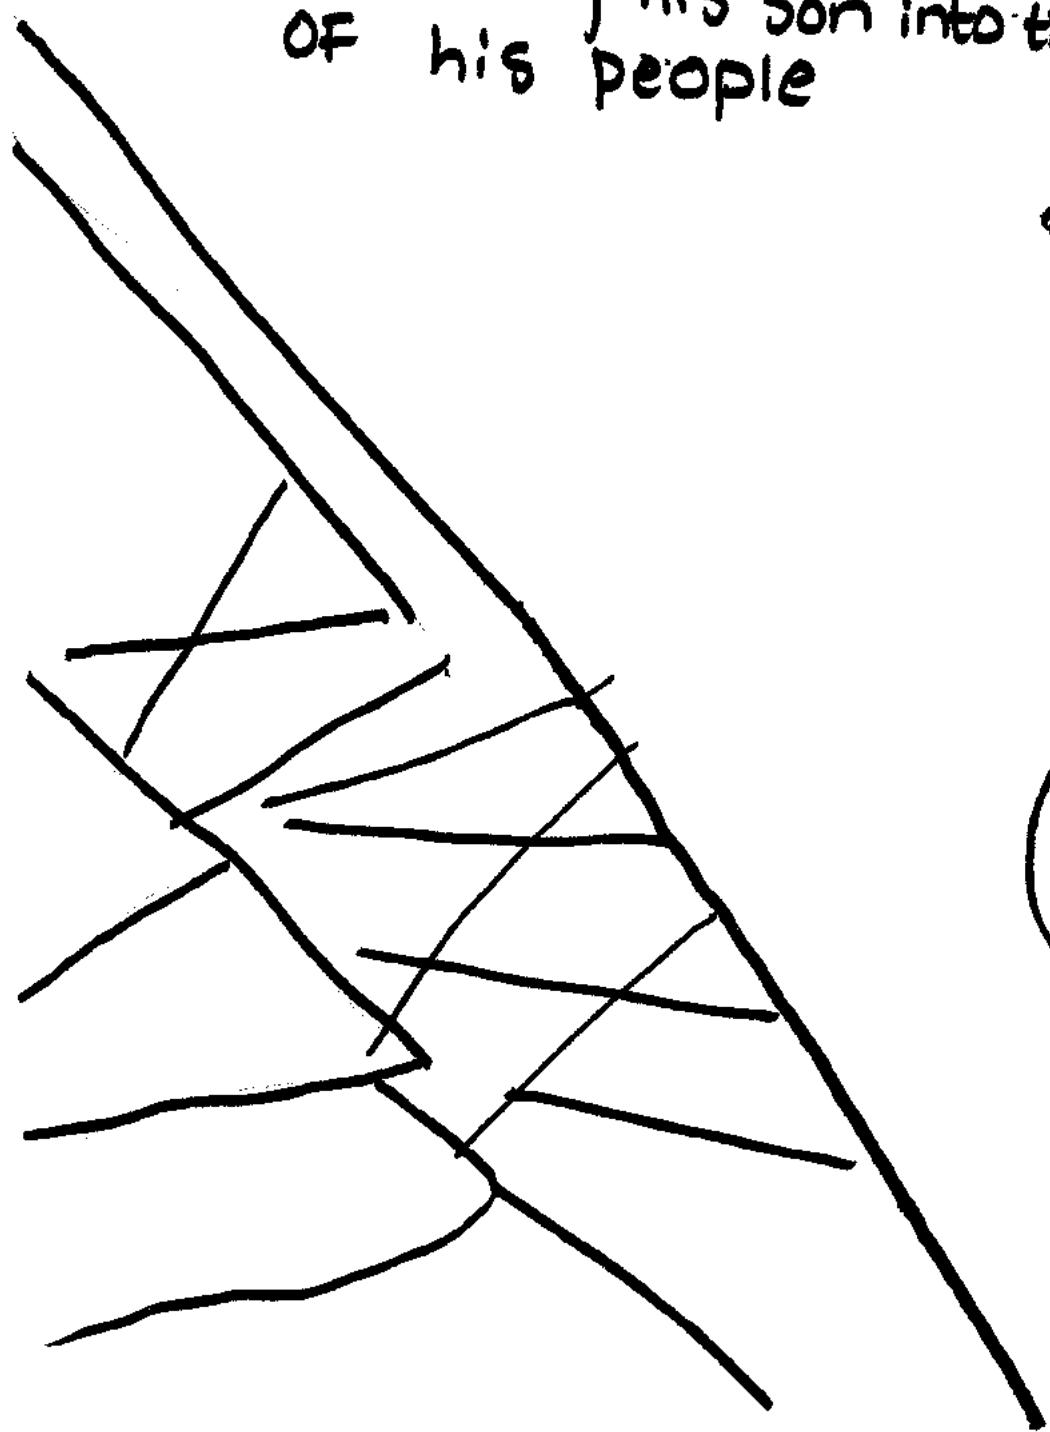

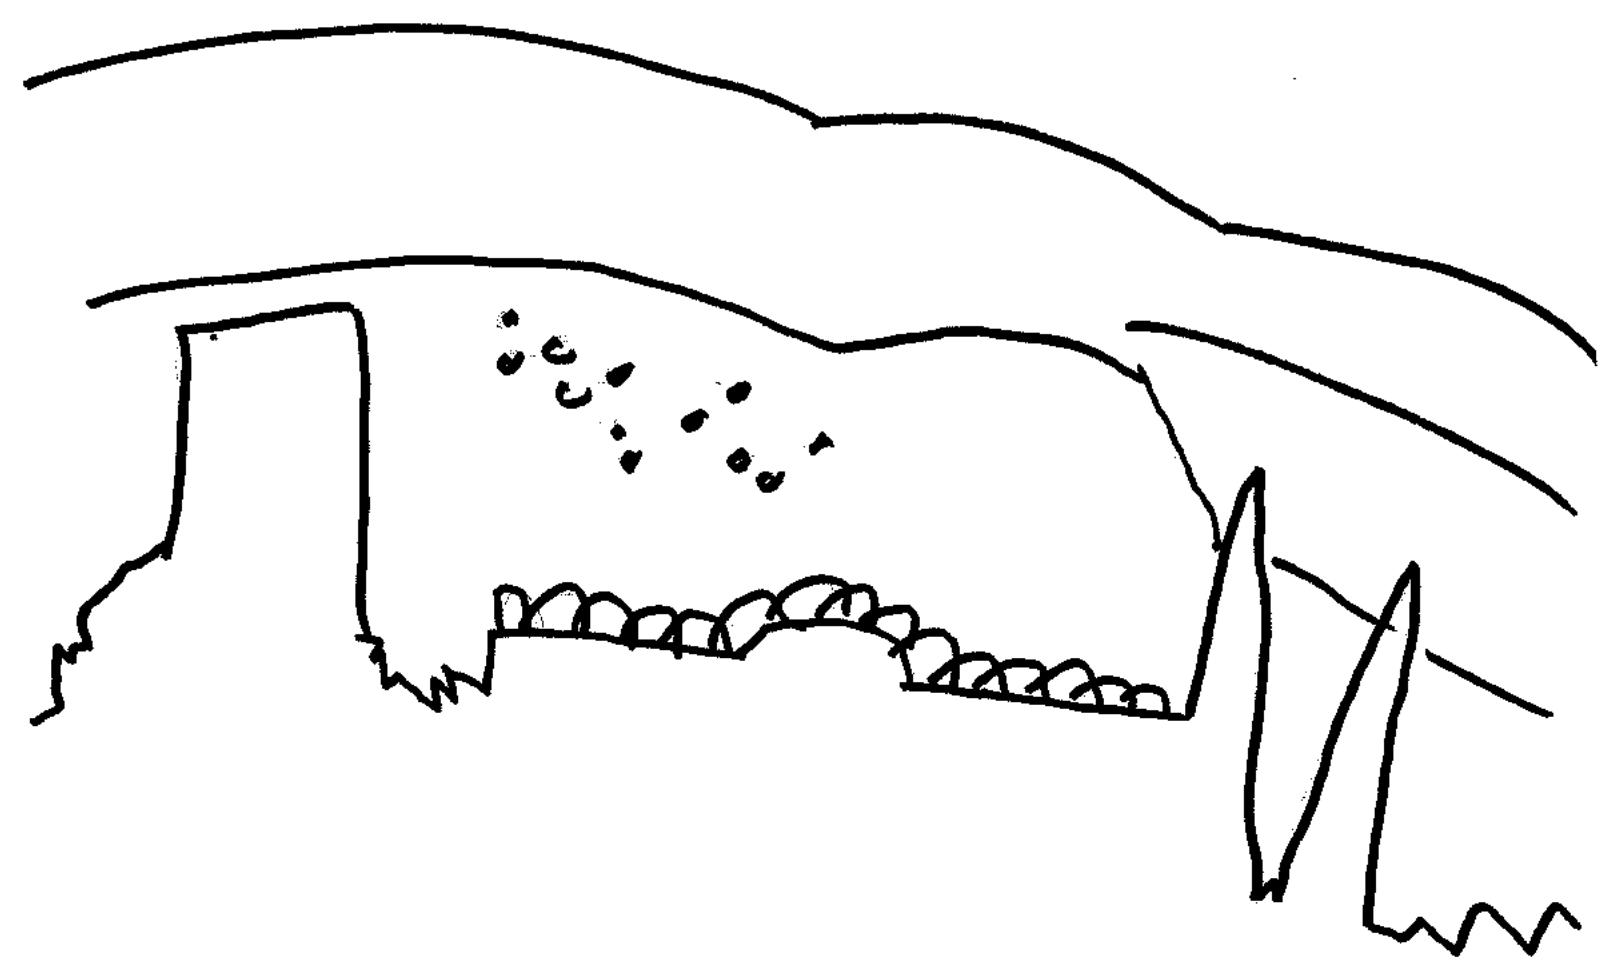

254

While Caesar, the King of the Roman world, Was showing everyone how great he was by Counting all of his people

God, the King of the universe Was showing the world how great he was by sending his Son into the world as one of his people

What a very big day!

What God had promised to Abraham, Isaac, Jacob,
and David arrived in the birth of Jesus!

And news of his great arrival was about to spread

Look at all those sheep
Do you see the man watching over the sheep?
They are shepherds.

On the night that Jesus was born, out on the rolling hills of Bethlehem, some shepherds were enjoying the cool air.

It was dark.
it was quiet.
And then all of a sudden...

God Surprised the Shepherds!
A bright light shone in the night sky.
An angel made a big announcement to the shepherds:

"I bring you good news....for all the people.
For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord....
You will find a baby wrapped in swaddling cloth and lying in a manger."

The Shepherds were so amazed!
And then there was another surprise.

More and more and more angels came, until the sky was filled with wonder and brightness

Together They Sang,
"Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace among those with whom he is pleased!"

At this, the shepherds ran to Bethlehem as fast as they could. They wanted to see the long-awaited promise of God lying in a manger.

And when they got there they saw the baby Jesus

They smiled. They knew Everything the angels had told them was true!

Jesus, God's forever King, had been born!

Thirty years passed, and Jesus grew from a baby into a man.

Thirty years passed and the world still had not heard the message the angels had sung to the shepherds.

Thirty years passed and so far no one had become a follower of Jesus.
Do you know how God told people they should follow his Son?

God didn't use angels this time.
Instead, God used a man.

This man was already teaching people about God's Kingdom.

This man lived in the desert, and his name was ...

John did not dress like most God's people.
John did not eat like most of God people.—
John did not speak like most of God's people.

But that not keep God's people From coming out to the desert to listen to John

John was baptizing people to get them ready for the coming kingdom of God

People came from the hills and valleys
They came from big cities and small towns

Infact, so many people came that some began to wonder,
"Could John be the prophet sent to rescue us Could John be the one to give us back God's place of the earth?"

John told them.
"No I am not the promised one.
but I am preparing the way for the King And then one day when John was baptizing people in the river — — —

Jesus came to him and asked to be baptized

When John baptized Jesus
a dove flew down and rested on Jesus.
A loud voice came from heaven:
"you are my beloved son;
With you I am well pleased"

John told the people, that Jesus was God's promised King.

HE told them to follow JESUS because Jesus could take away their sin

People began to listen to Jesus preach about the kingdom of God. And to some he said, "Follow me!"

Jesus chose twelve special disciples. Do you remember Jacob's twelve sons? Well, Jesus was beginning to call out a new people for God.

part 1b

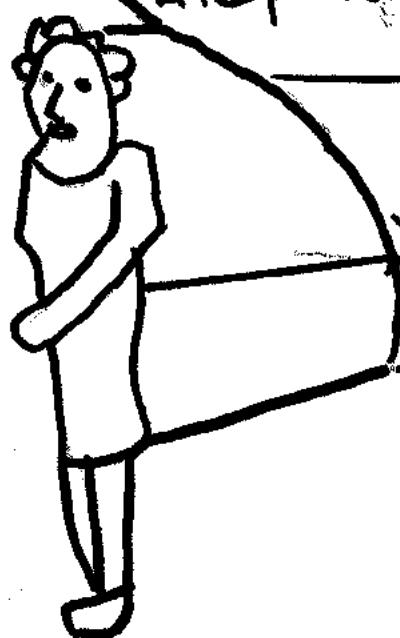

One day Jesus was walking through the temple. This was the place where people went to meet with God.

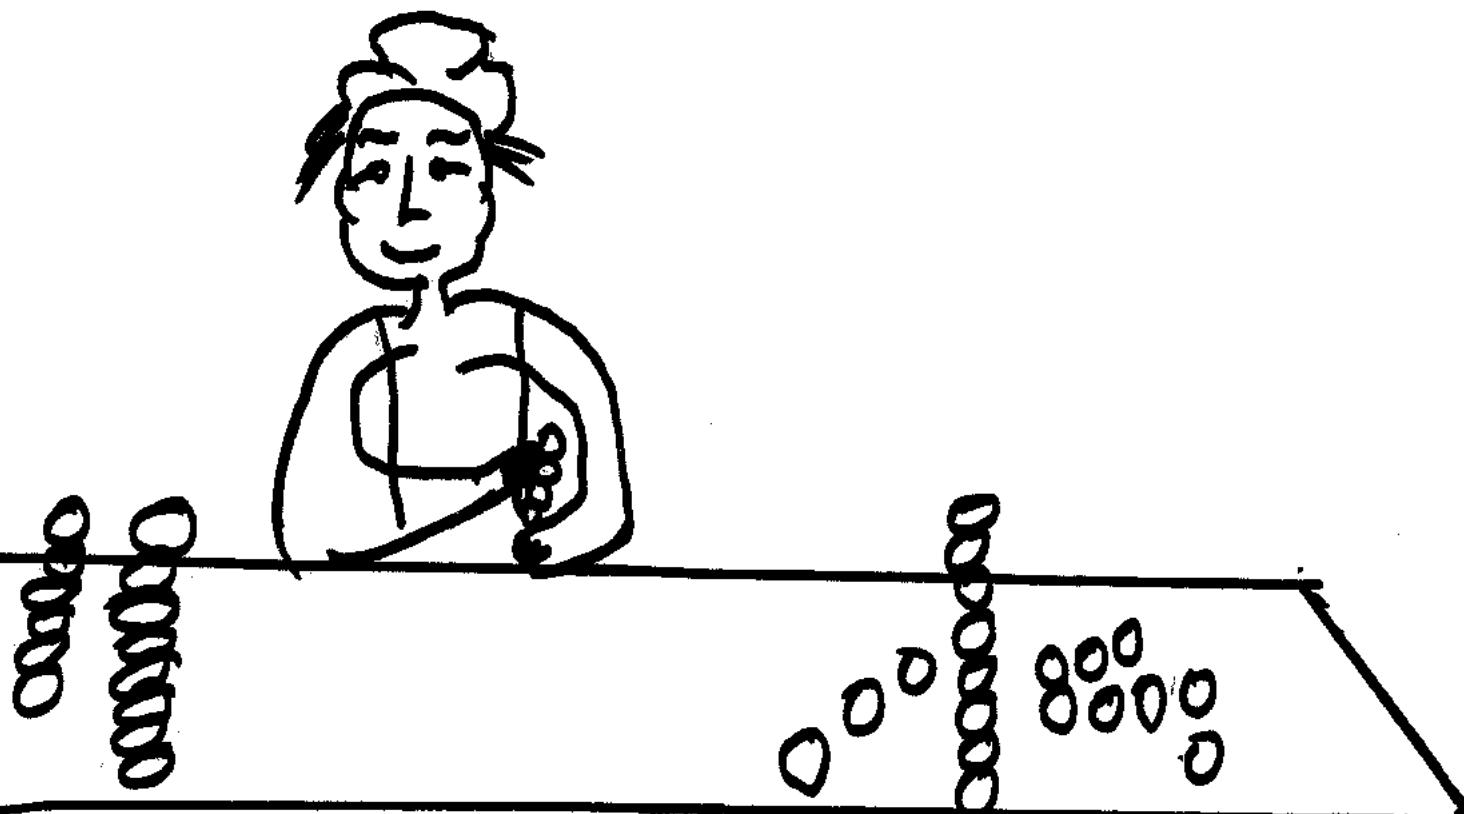

This temple wasn't the one that Solomon had built and it wasn't the one that Israel had rebuilt either.
No, those temples had been destroyed hundreds of years before.

Herod had built this temple.
The Romans had made Herod King.
Herod was clever and tricky.
He built this place to keep God's people happy so they would obey him as King.

While walking through the temple . . .

Jesus saw men selling cattle and sheep and doves

Jesus saw other greedy men sitting at tables trading money.

Seeing all this made Jesus angry.
The temple was supposed to be a holly place.
This was the place where blood sacrifices for sin were made.

Instead, the temple had become a wicked place.
people came to look important and to put lots of money in their own pockets.
people were sinning instead of coming to be forgiven what Jesus saw made him so angry that,

He did something about it

He tipped over the tables of the money traders, and all the coins scattered
He made a whip and drove out the sheep and the cattle, and all the doves scattered.

And while he was doing this Jesus demanded :

"TAKE these things away :
do not make my father's house a house of trade"

That made the people angry, and they yelled back, as if to say,
"Hey, who do you think you are?
prove to us that you are in charge of this place?"

When Jesus heard this he raised his voice for all to hear:
"Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up."

At this . . .

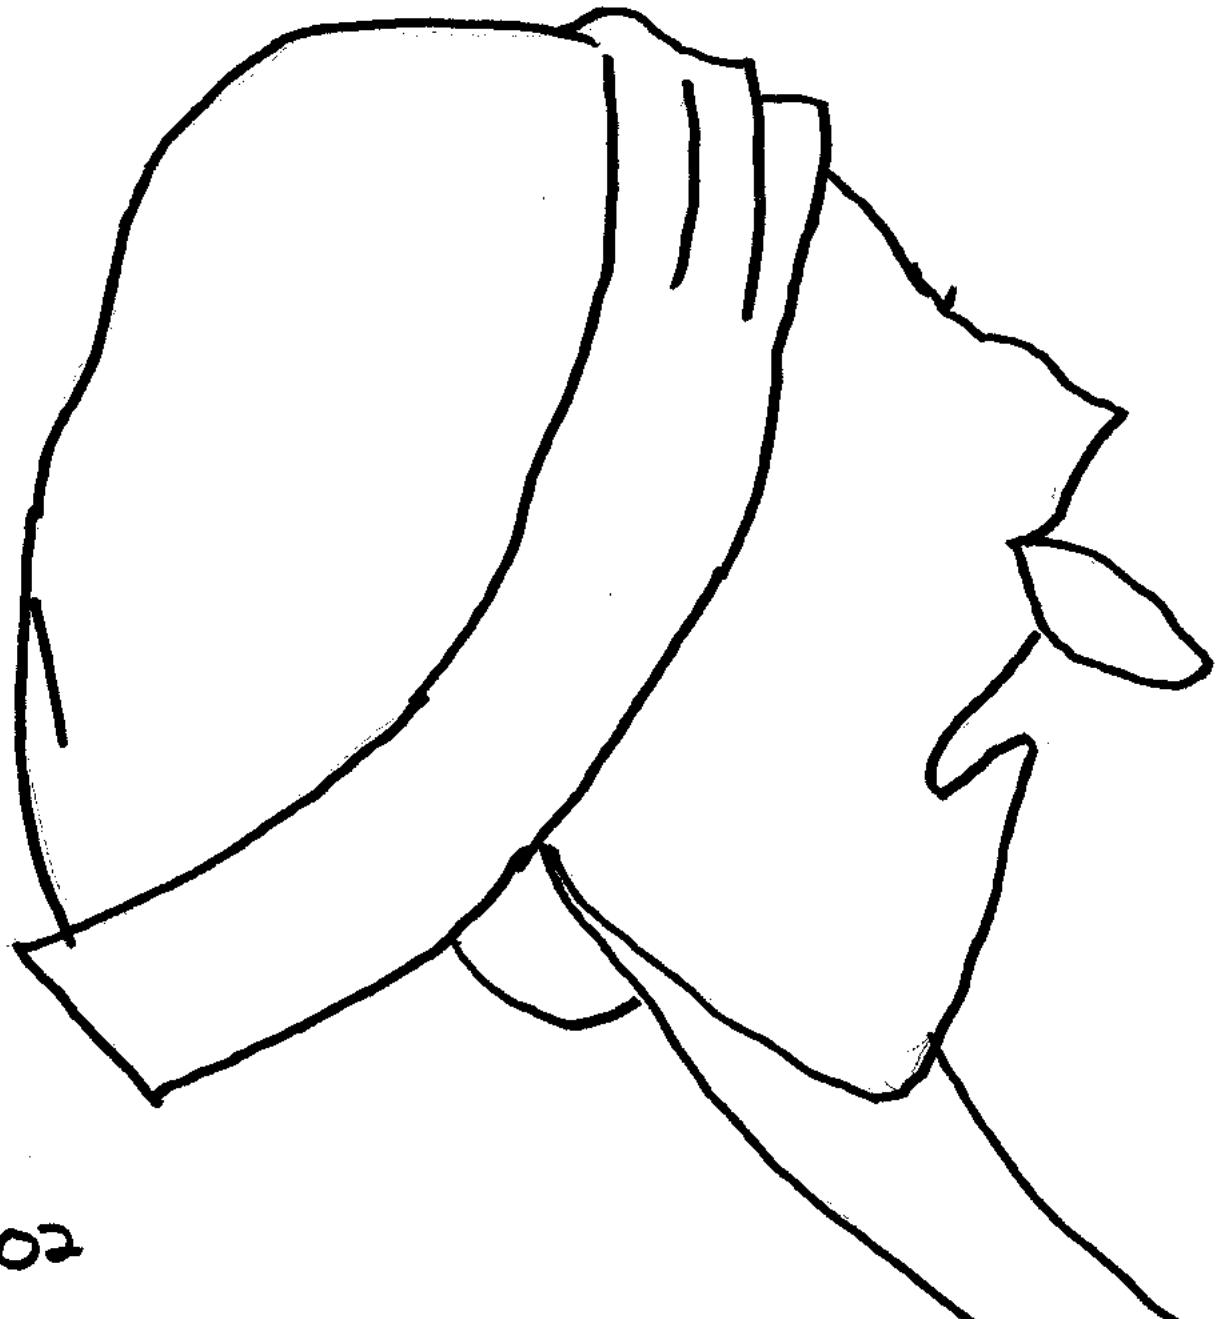

Everyone got quiet

The leaders of god's Place scratched their heads;
they closed their eyes,
and they thought,
surely, this man is confused.

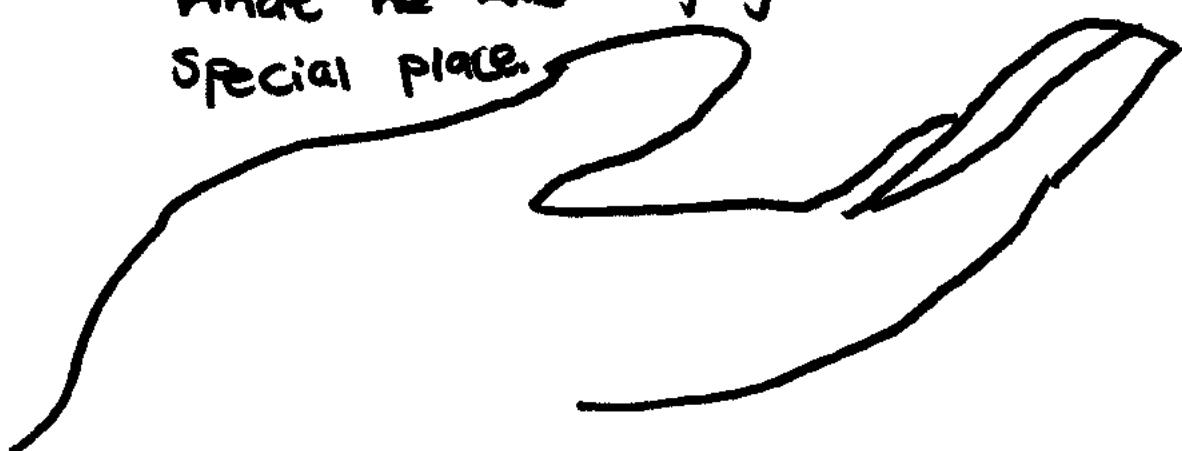

Finally one of them said to Jesus
"It has taken Forty-Six year to build this temple, and will you raise it up in three days?"

Jesus didn't answer
Jesus Just walked away.
He was right. The leaders did not under stand what he was saying about God's Special place.

This stone temple wasn't God's place anymore.

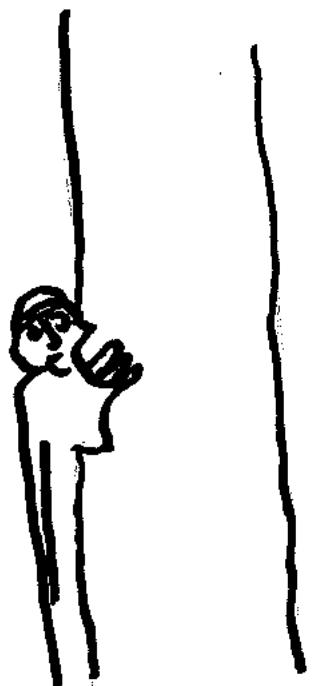

Jesus was God's special place.

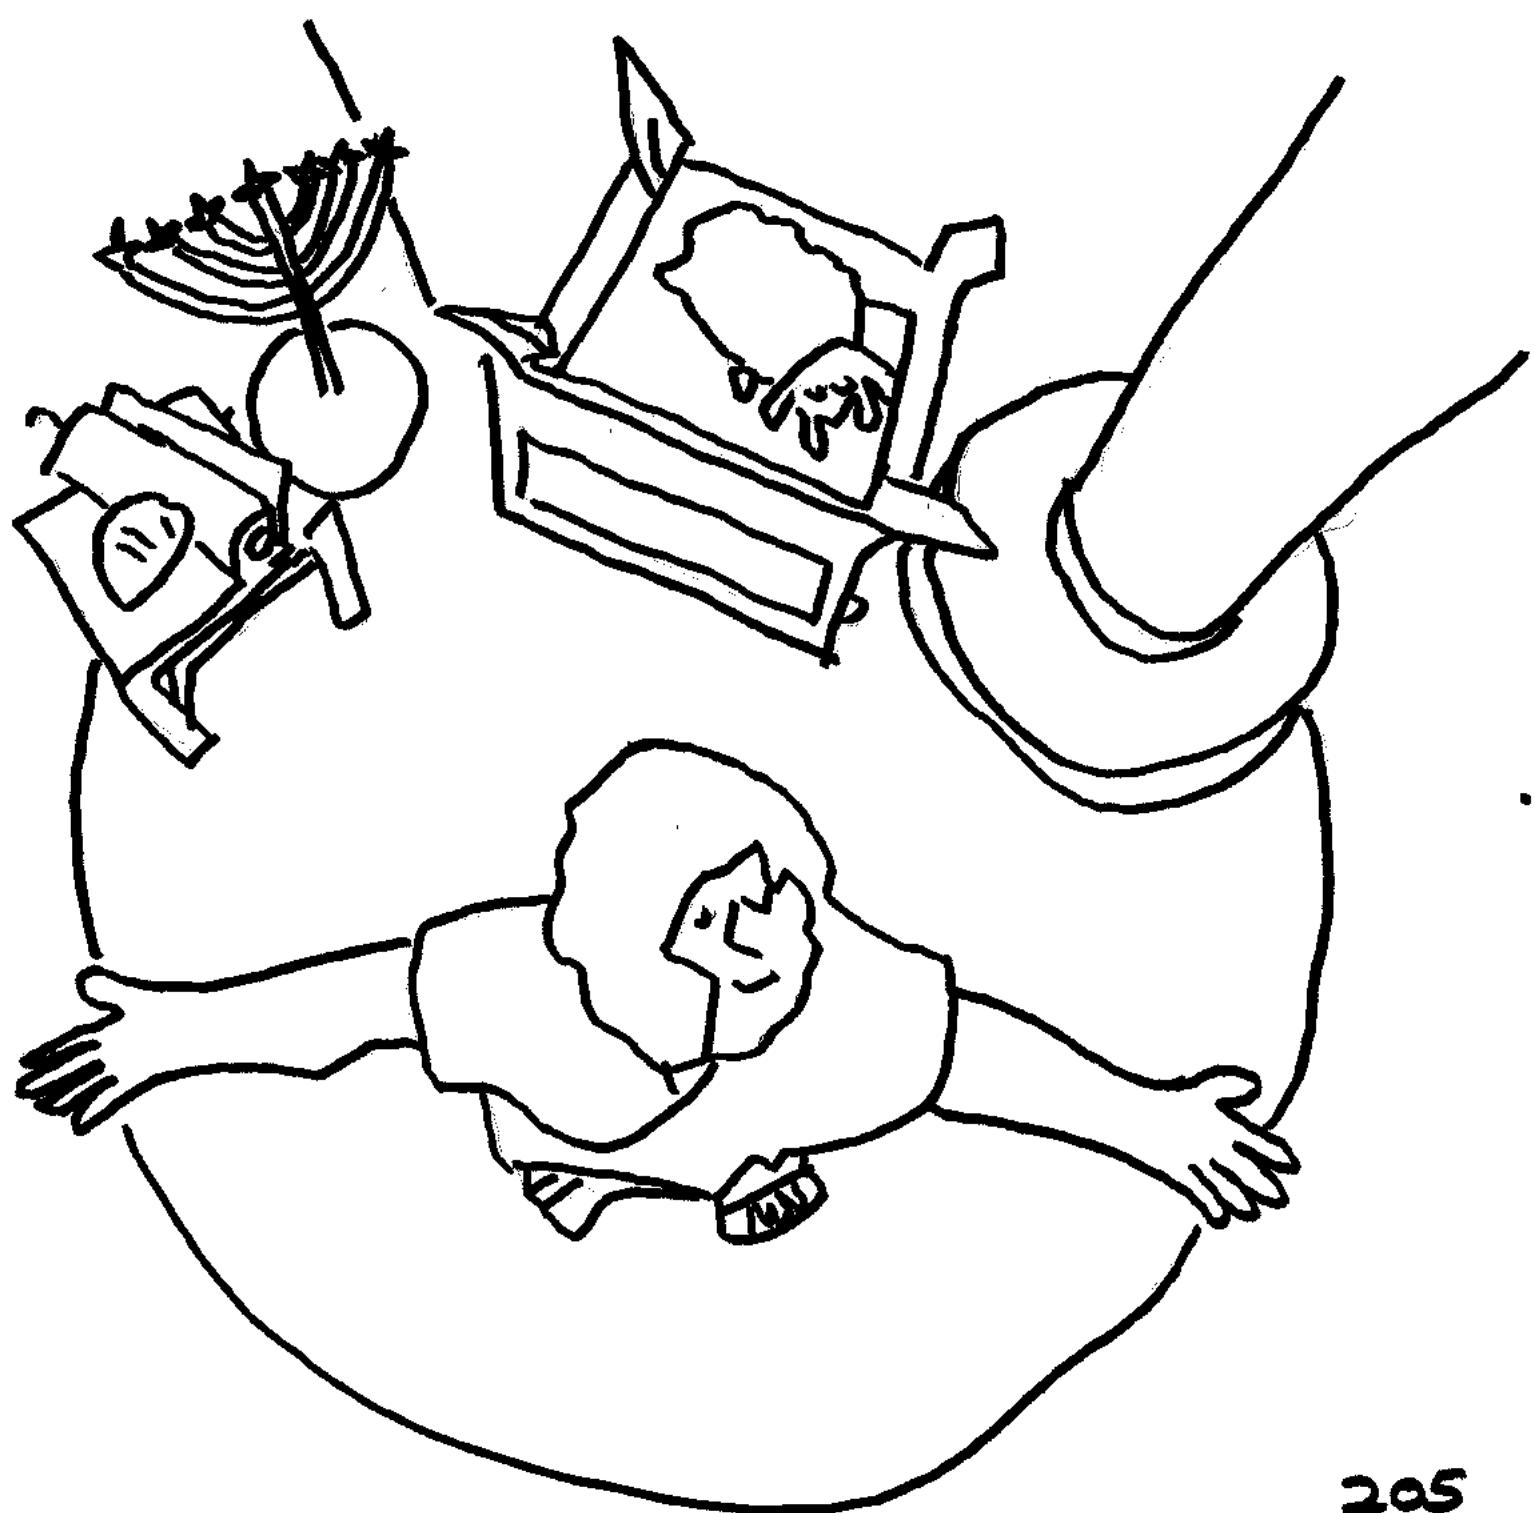

His body was God's holy temple.

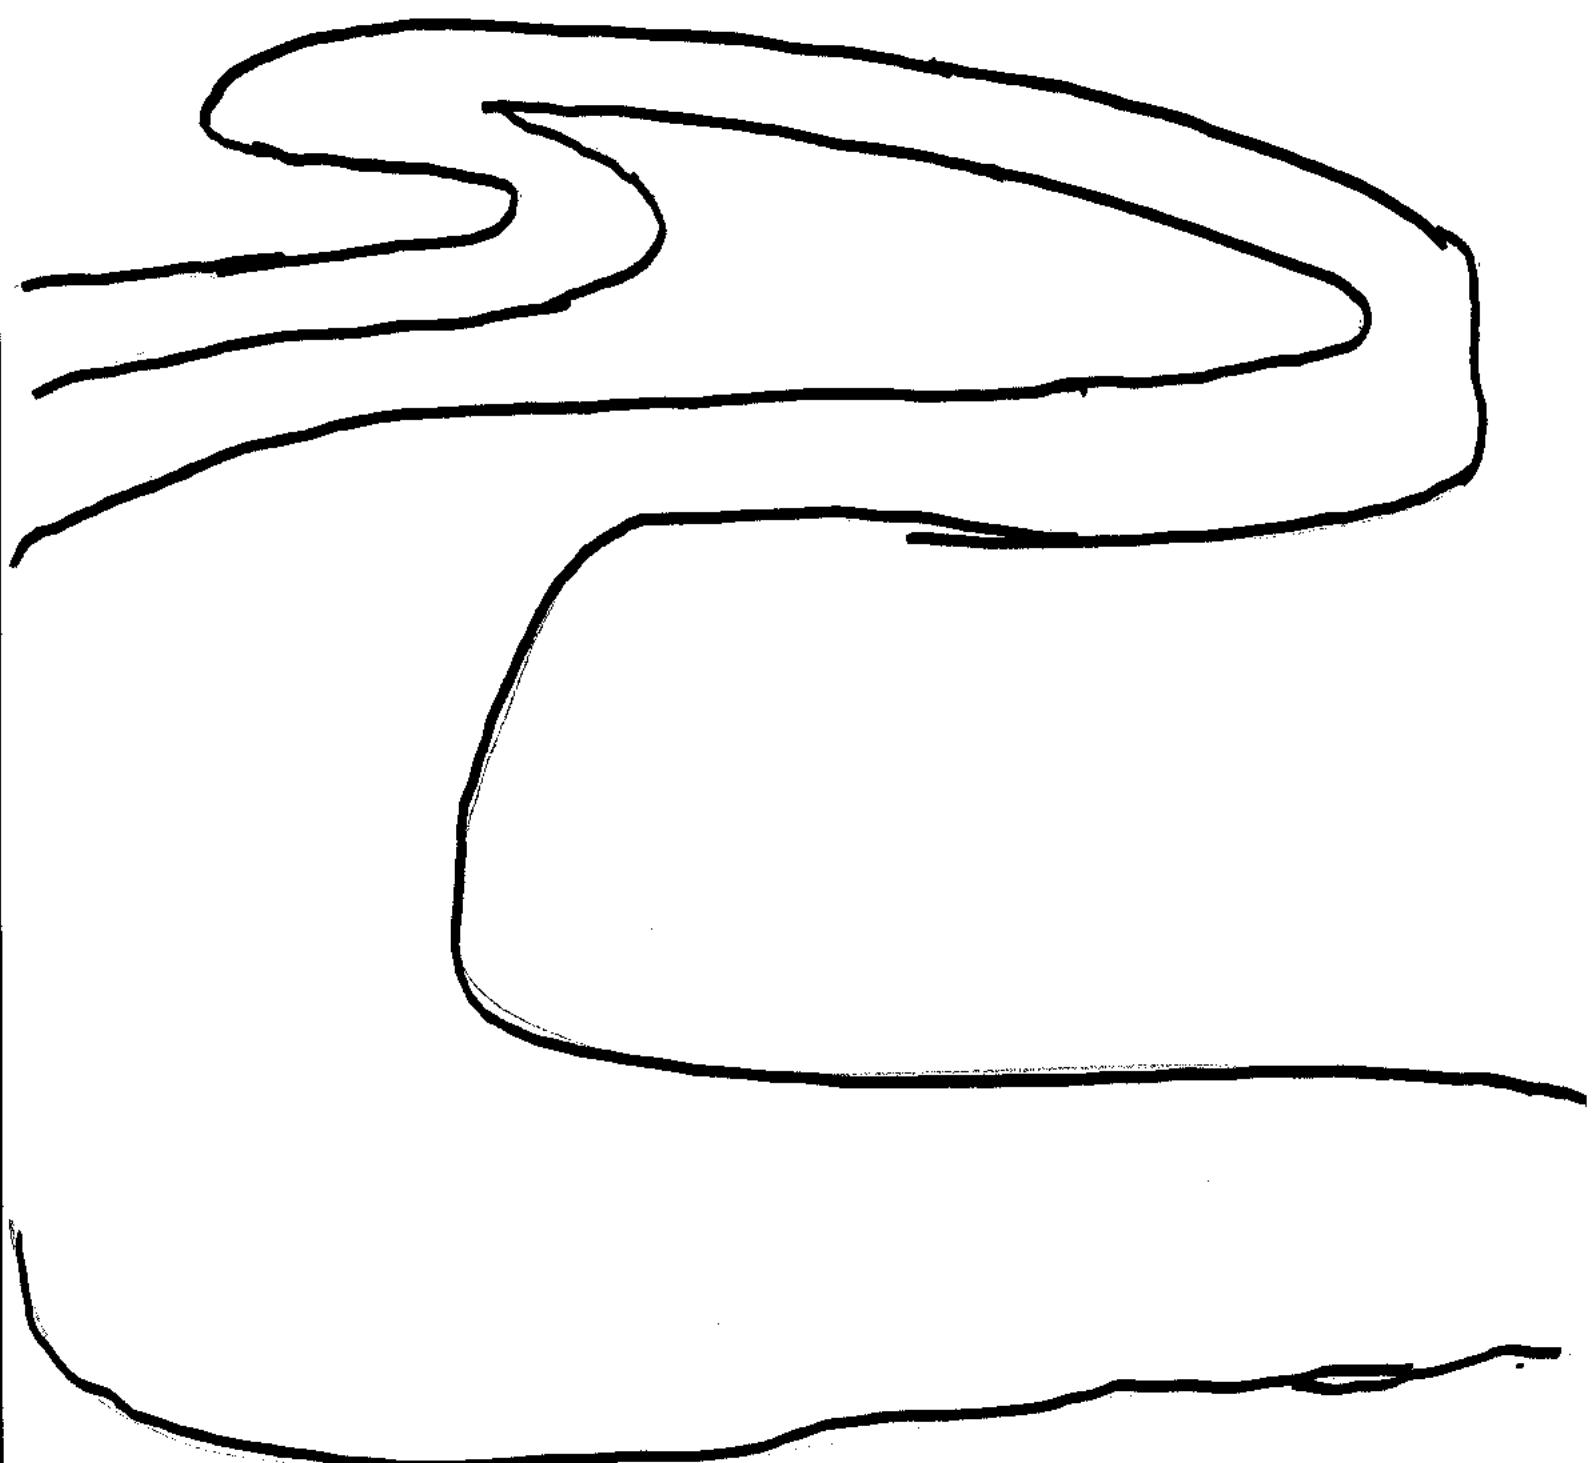

His blood would pay for sins.

He was better than the places built by Solomon, the Israelites, or Herod.

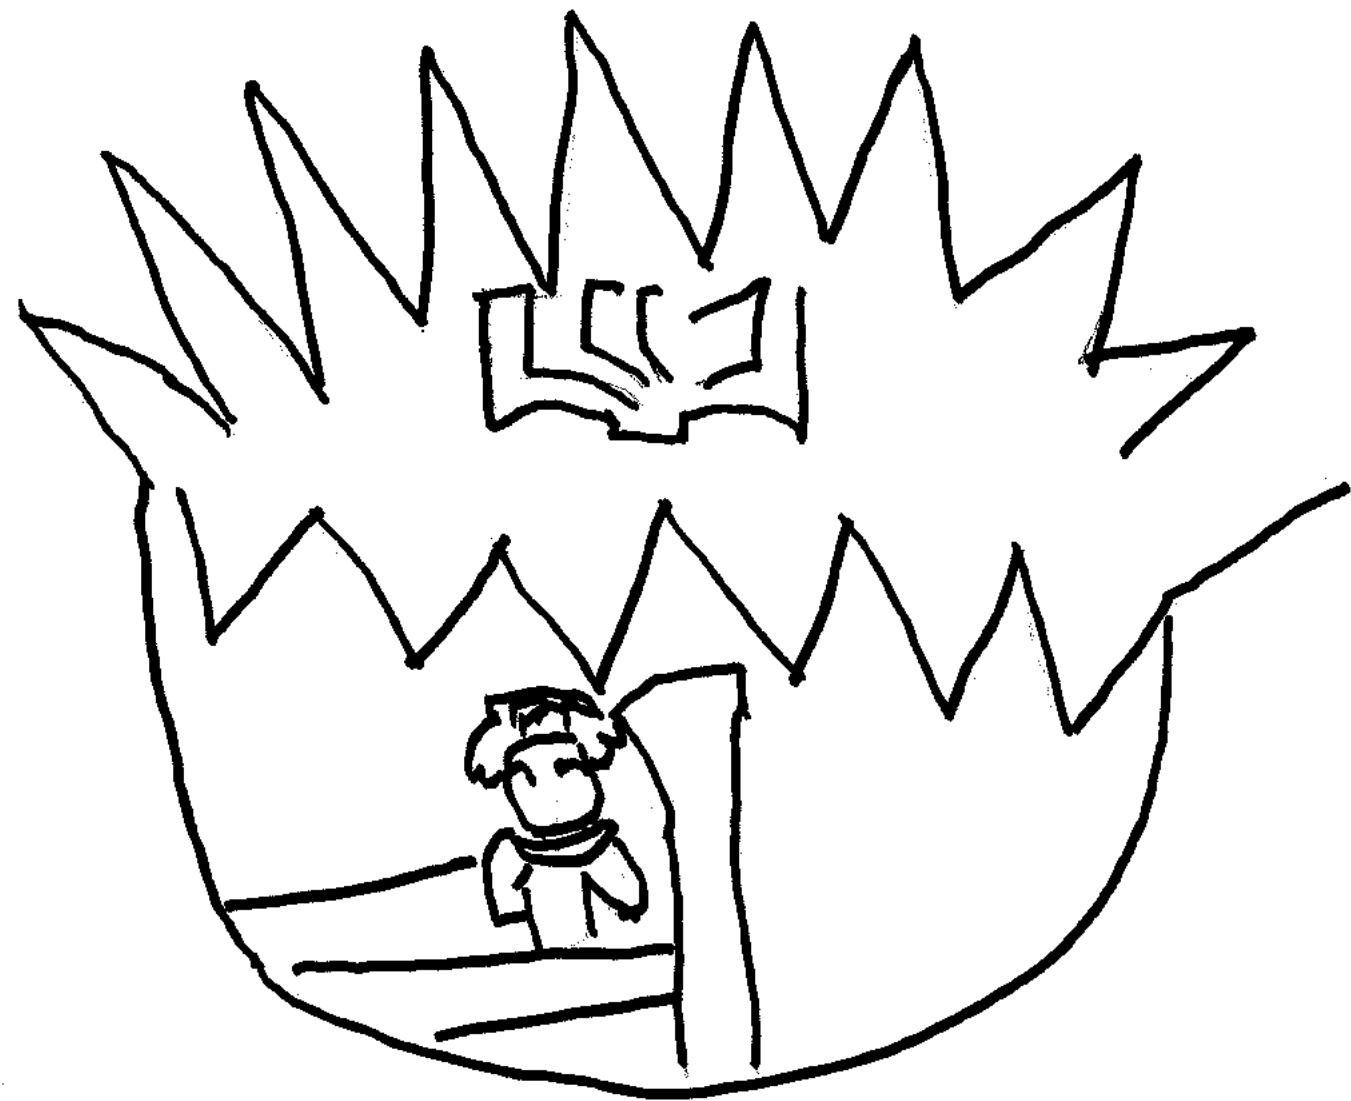

But on that day no one understood Jesus, although there was a man who thought he did.

part 17

one night, long after most people were asleep, a man walked along the streets of Jerusalem.

The man's name was Nicodemus.
Do you see him?

He was one of the leaders who liked Jesus.
But he also thought that Jesus was mistaken.

He knew what Jesus had done in the temple
And he wanted to remind Jesus that the temple was an important place in God's Kingdom.

Jesus and Nicodemus
sat down to talk

Nicodemus began,
"We know that you are a teacher come from God.
For no one could do these signs that you do unless God is with him!"

Jesus replied
"Unless one is born again he cannot see the Kingdom of God."

Nicodemus was surprised
"How can a man be born when he is old?
Can he enter a second time into his mother's womb and born?"

Then Jesus told Nicodemus that no one can enter the Kingdom of God unless he is born again.

Nicodemus did not understand.

Couldn't he see the Kingdom of God
Without being born again?

After all, he could see the temple.
Wasn't that a sign of God's Kingdom?

Couldn't he enter the Kingdom
Without being born again?

After all he was in in Abraham's family line.
Wasn't that a sign that he had already entered the Kingdom of God when he was born?

Jesus hinted from God's holy book about God's Spirit who brings new life.
He tried to help Nicodemus understand.

Jesus explained that Nicodemus had not been born into God's Kingdom.
Instead, God's Kingdom had to be born in him.
But, sad to say, Nicodemus, a teacher of God's holy book, did not yet understand.

He went out again into the dark night confused
But some would understand.

Others would not take so long to believe that Jesus was sent from God.

Others would see and be born again

Part 18

one day as jesus walked along, he saw a man blind from birth-a man who could not see

Jesus' disciples asked him who had disobeyed God,
"...this man or his parents, that he was born blind?"

Jesus said there was a different reason why this man born blind. Jesus told them to watch and see the work God had sent him to do.

So the disciples watched as.....

Jesus walked over the blind man and Spat upon the ground.

He made some mud with the spittle put it on the blind man's eyes.

Then Jesus said,

"Go, wash in the pool of Siloam" (which means sent).

So the man went.

And the man washed.

When the man opened his eyes again, he could see!

By this miracle God showed everyone that Jesus had been sent to do God's work.

Now some of the leaders listened to the man's story, but they did not believe that Jesus had made him see.

They said of Jesus,
"This man is not from God!"

But the man who had been blind knew better.

He told them that Jesus must have come from God.

This made the leaders so angry that....

They threw the man out of the temple.

Later Jesus found the man.
Jesus told him that God had sent him into the world to make people see that he could rescue them from sin.

The man now saw who Jesus really was, and he believed.

336

A man named Lazarus was Very sick.

His sister, Mary and Martha,
Knew that he was dying.
They wanted jesus to come and heal Lazarus.
So they sent for jesus.

Jesus loved his friends, but when he heard Lazarus was sick, he did a surprising thing. He stayed where he was. He did not come right away.

Jesus knew God was going to use him to do something amazing! Jesus was going to show God's power over death.

So Jesus waited until Lazarus died, and then he went to be with his friend.

By the time Jesus got there, Lazarus had been in a tomb for four days.

Marthamet him and Said
"Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died"

Page 344

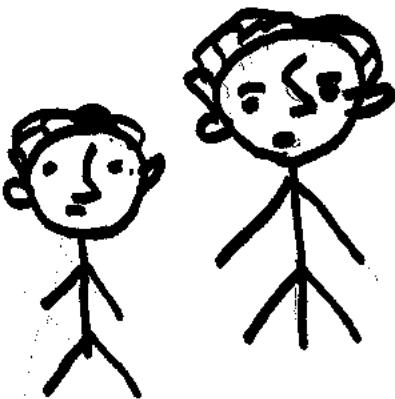

Jesus replied
"your brother will rise again....
I am the resurrection and the life Whoever believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live...
DO you believe this?"

Martha said yes.

She believed that Jesus
Was God's King and Son Who was sent to bring life to the world

Then mary came to see jesus, and jesus saw her crying.
He went with mary to the tomb.
And then jesus cried too.

Some who were saw jesus and said,
"could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man also have kept this man from dying"

They did not know that Jesus Was getting ready to show them that God had sent him to rescue people from sin and death.

Jesus told them to open the tomb.
Only then did Jesus step forward and pray,

"Father, I thank you that you have heard me....."

I said this.... that they may believe that you sent me".

Page 350

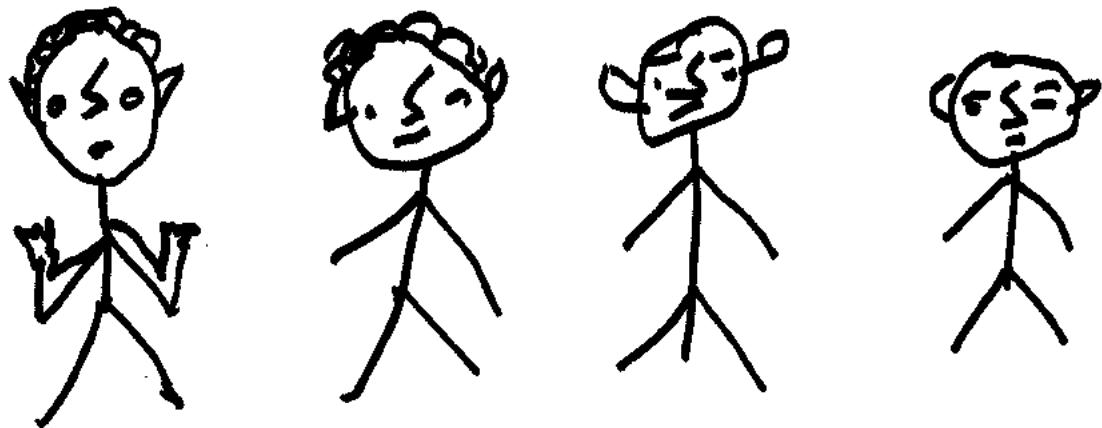

Then in a really loud voice,
Jesus shouted, "Lazarus, (ome out!)"

And do you know
What happened?

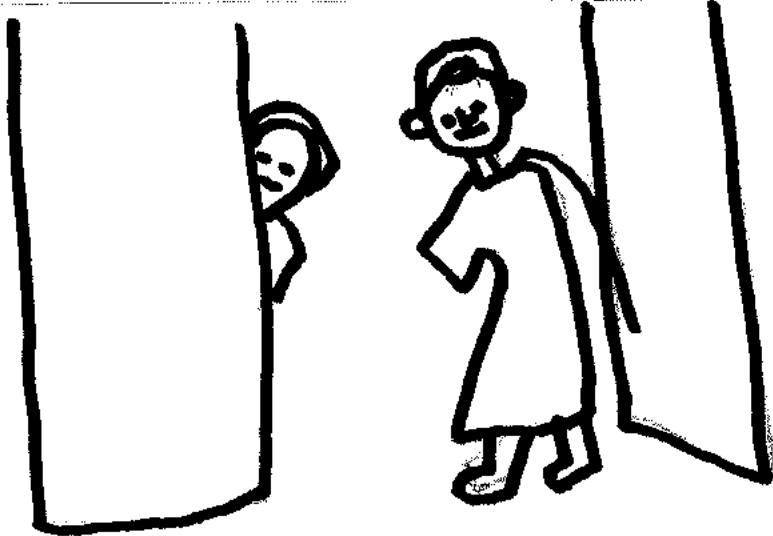

God answer jesus' prayer!

Lazarus came out. He was alive.
And dead was now alive again.
Jesus showed the people that God's spirit had power to bring new life.

many people believed in jesus on that day.

They believed;

Here is the one who will rescue God's people.

Here is the one who has become God's place.
Here is the one who even rules over death and can bring God's blessing to all the people of the earth

The people were ready to make Jesus their King!

But that made the leaders angry.

They were jealous of Jesus.

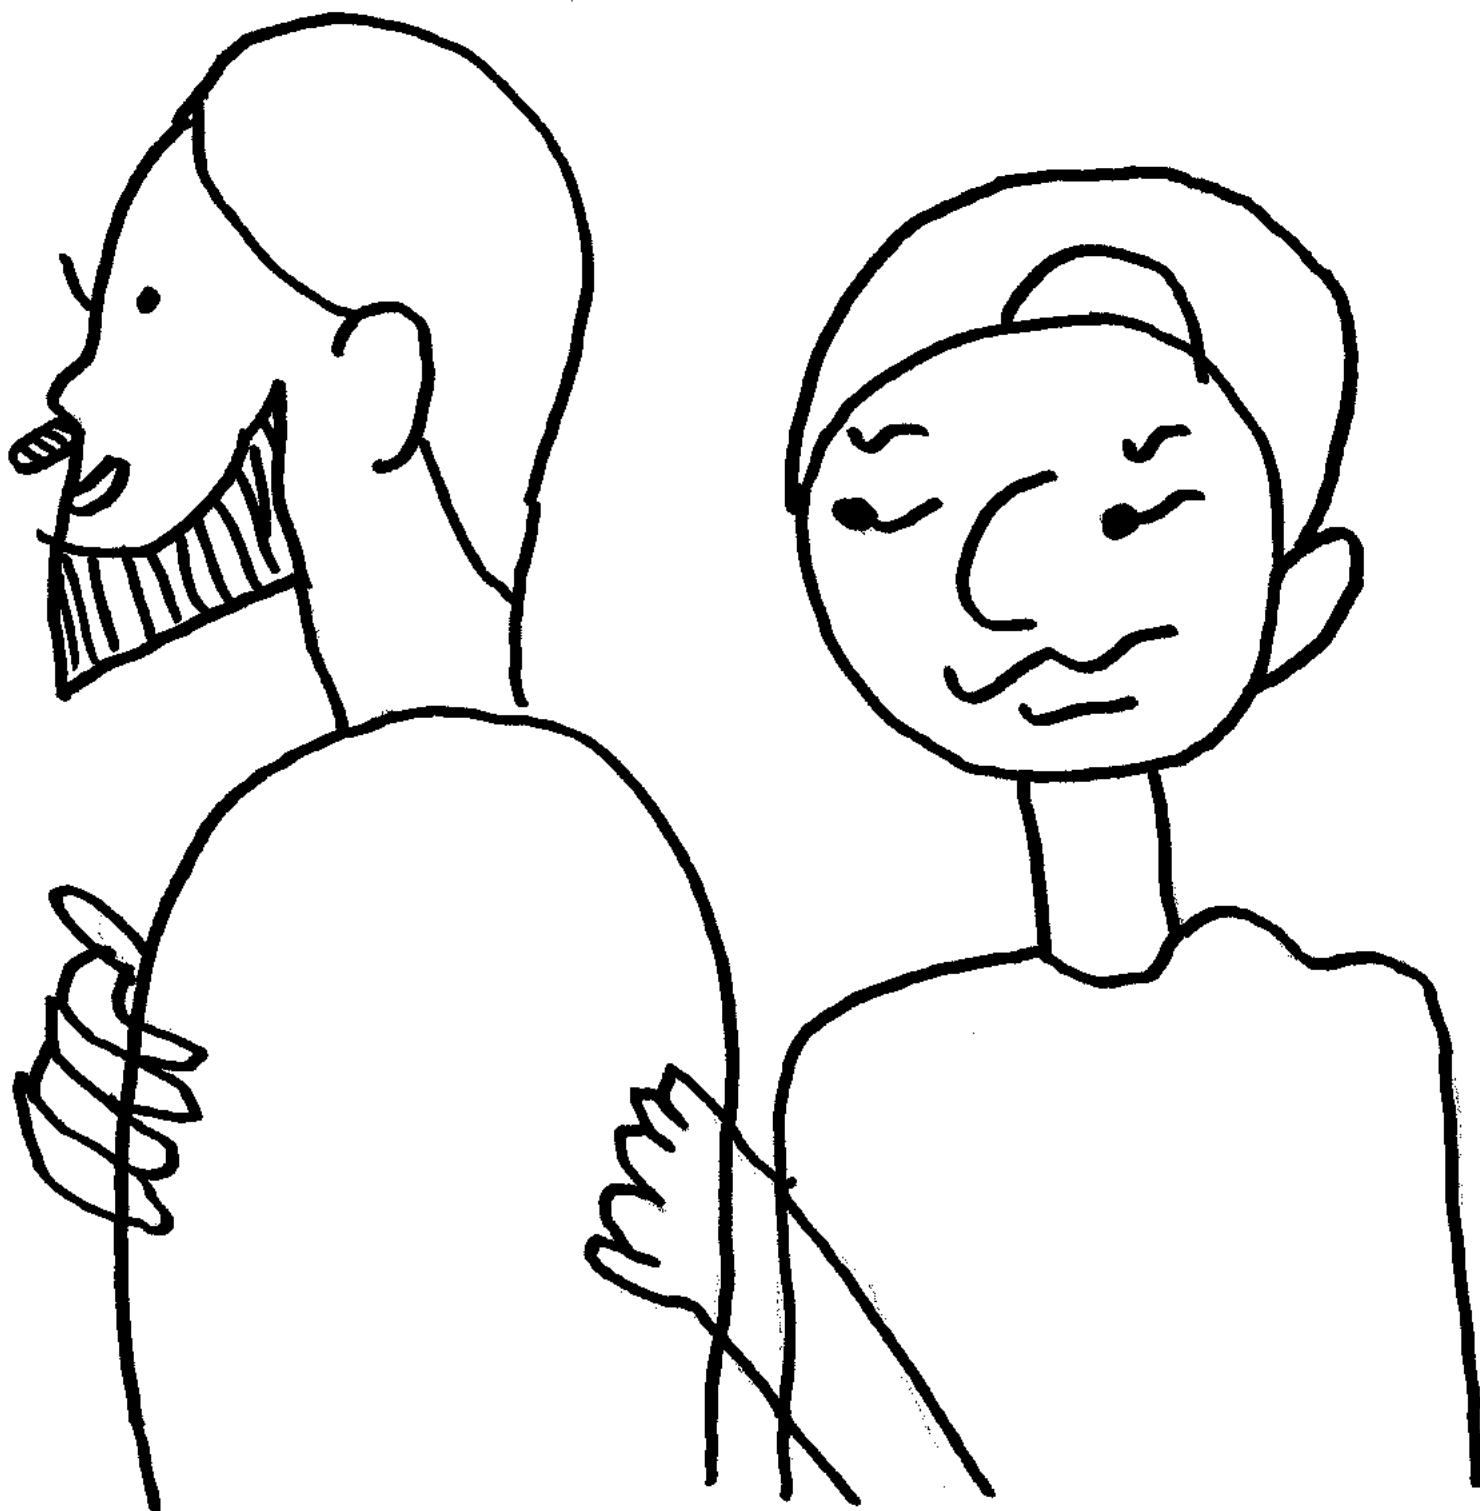

They hated him and did not want him as their King.

They decided that the time had come.

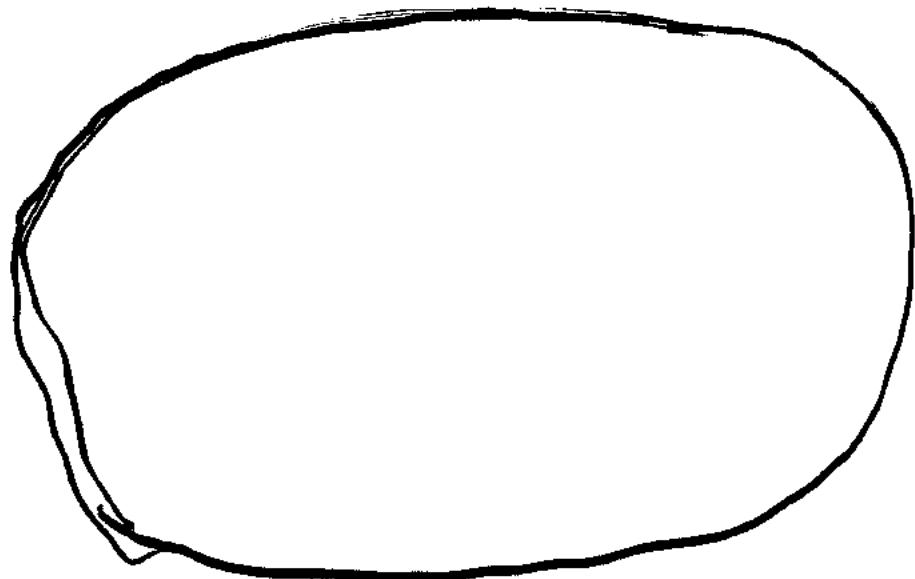

They would kill him as soon as they could

359

Part 20

360 jesus knew his time had come.

soon he would be King

To get ready for this big moment, he went to a place where he could pray.
"Father, the hour has come;
glorify your Son...."

Jesus worked hard praying.
But the disciples were tired, and they slept as Jesus prayed.

When Jesus finished, he woke them up.

He told them that his time had come. Just then...

Some people who hated Jesus marched up to them.
They brought soldiers with them too.

These men didn't believe Jesus was God's forever King.
They tied up his hands and arrested him.

Jesus' followers ran away.

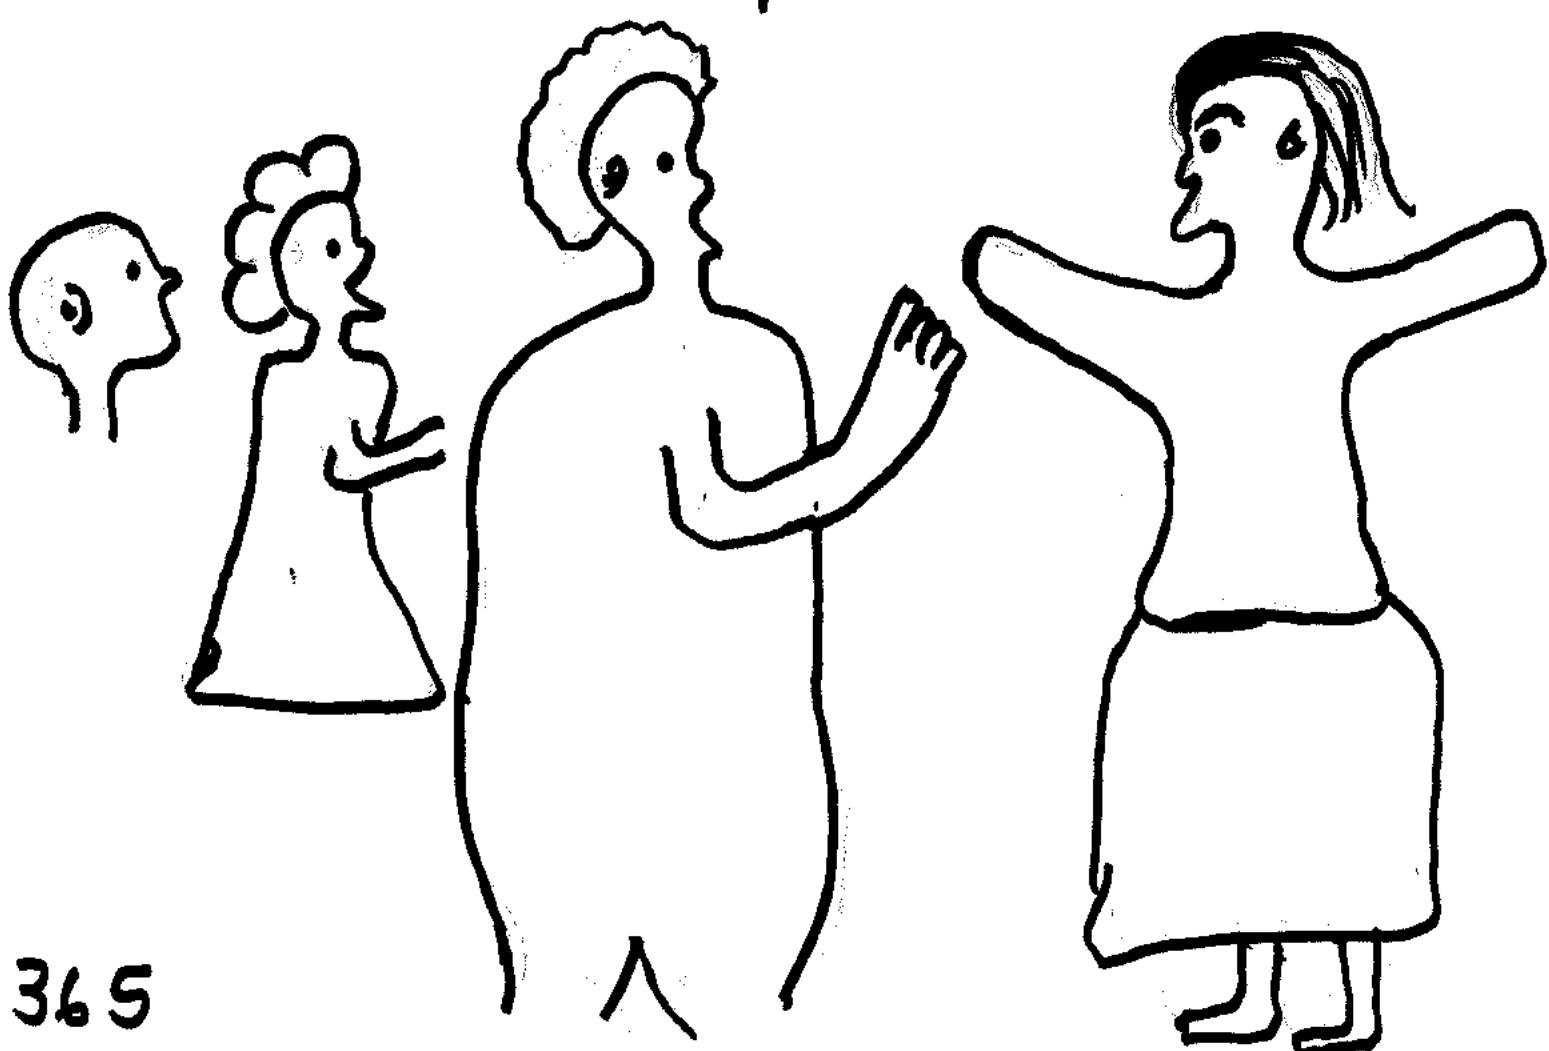

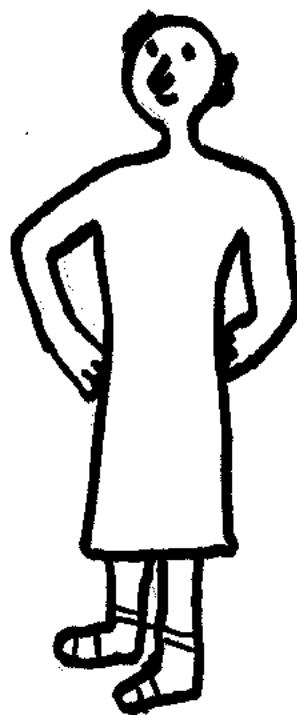

The soldiers and some leaders took Jesus to a place where they hit him in the face.

Then they led him off to Pilate, a Roman ruler, and said, "Jesus is trying to take over as king!"

A criminal like this should die. He should not be king.

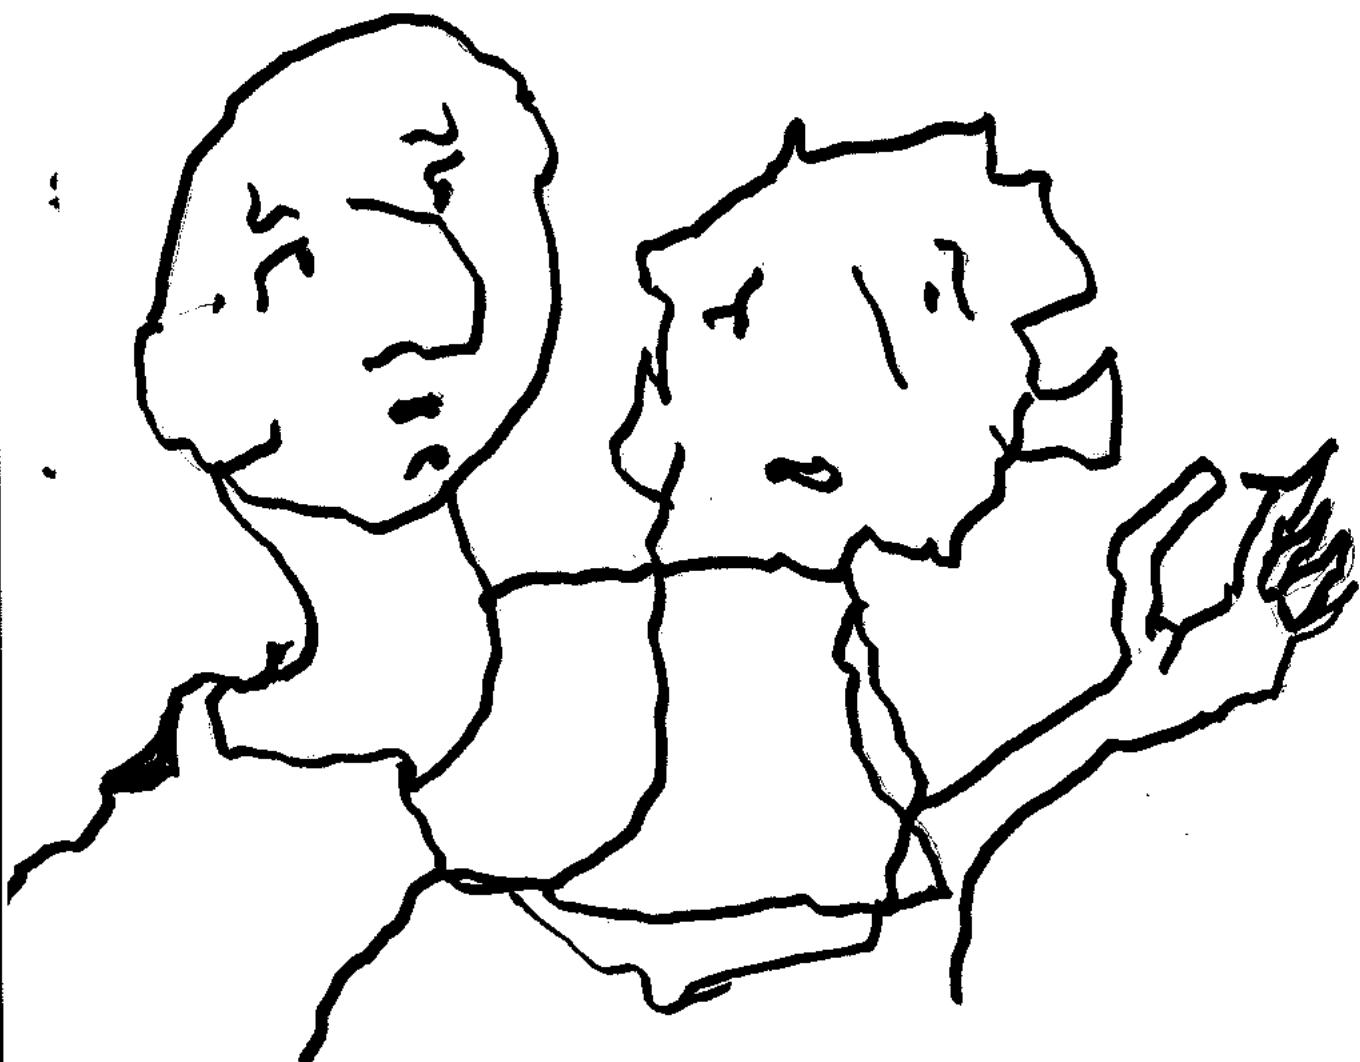

He would rather be ruled by Rome than by this pretend king."

"Crucify him, Pilate."

Pilate talked to Jesus.
He asked him,
"Are you the King?"

Jesus answered,
"My kingdom is not of this world."

Pilate did not think Jesus was trouble.

Pilate did not think Jesus was a threat to Roman rule.

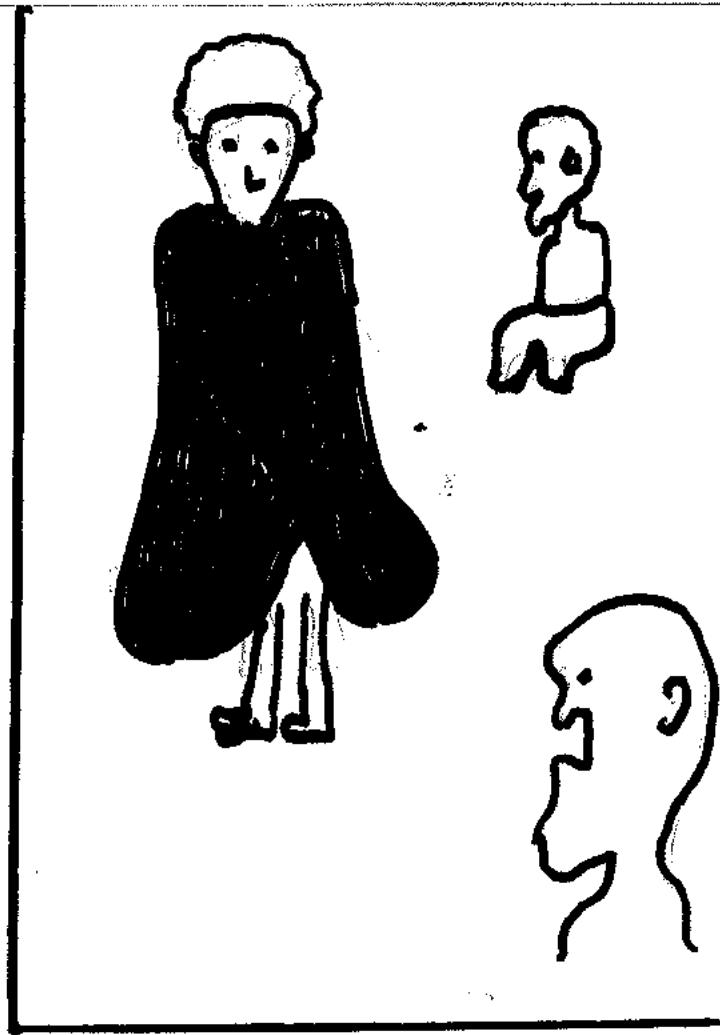

Pilate may have thought to himself,

If I can show the people that I am in control, then they will let him go.

So...

Pilate had Jesus beaten. The soldiers whipped him many times.

They laughed at the idea of Jesus as king. They dressed him in a purple robe.

They made a crown of thorns and put it on his head.

They punched him and made fun of him:
"Hail, king of the Jews!"

Then Pilate tried to let Jesus go.

But the people only shouted louder.

They wanted to kill Jesus.

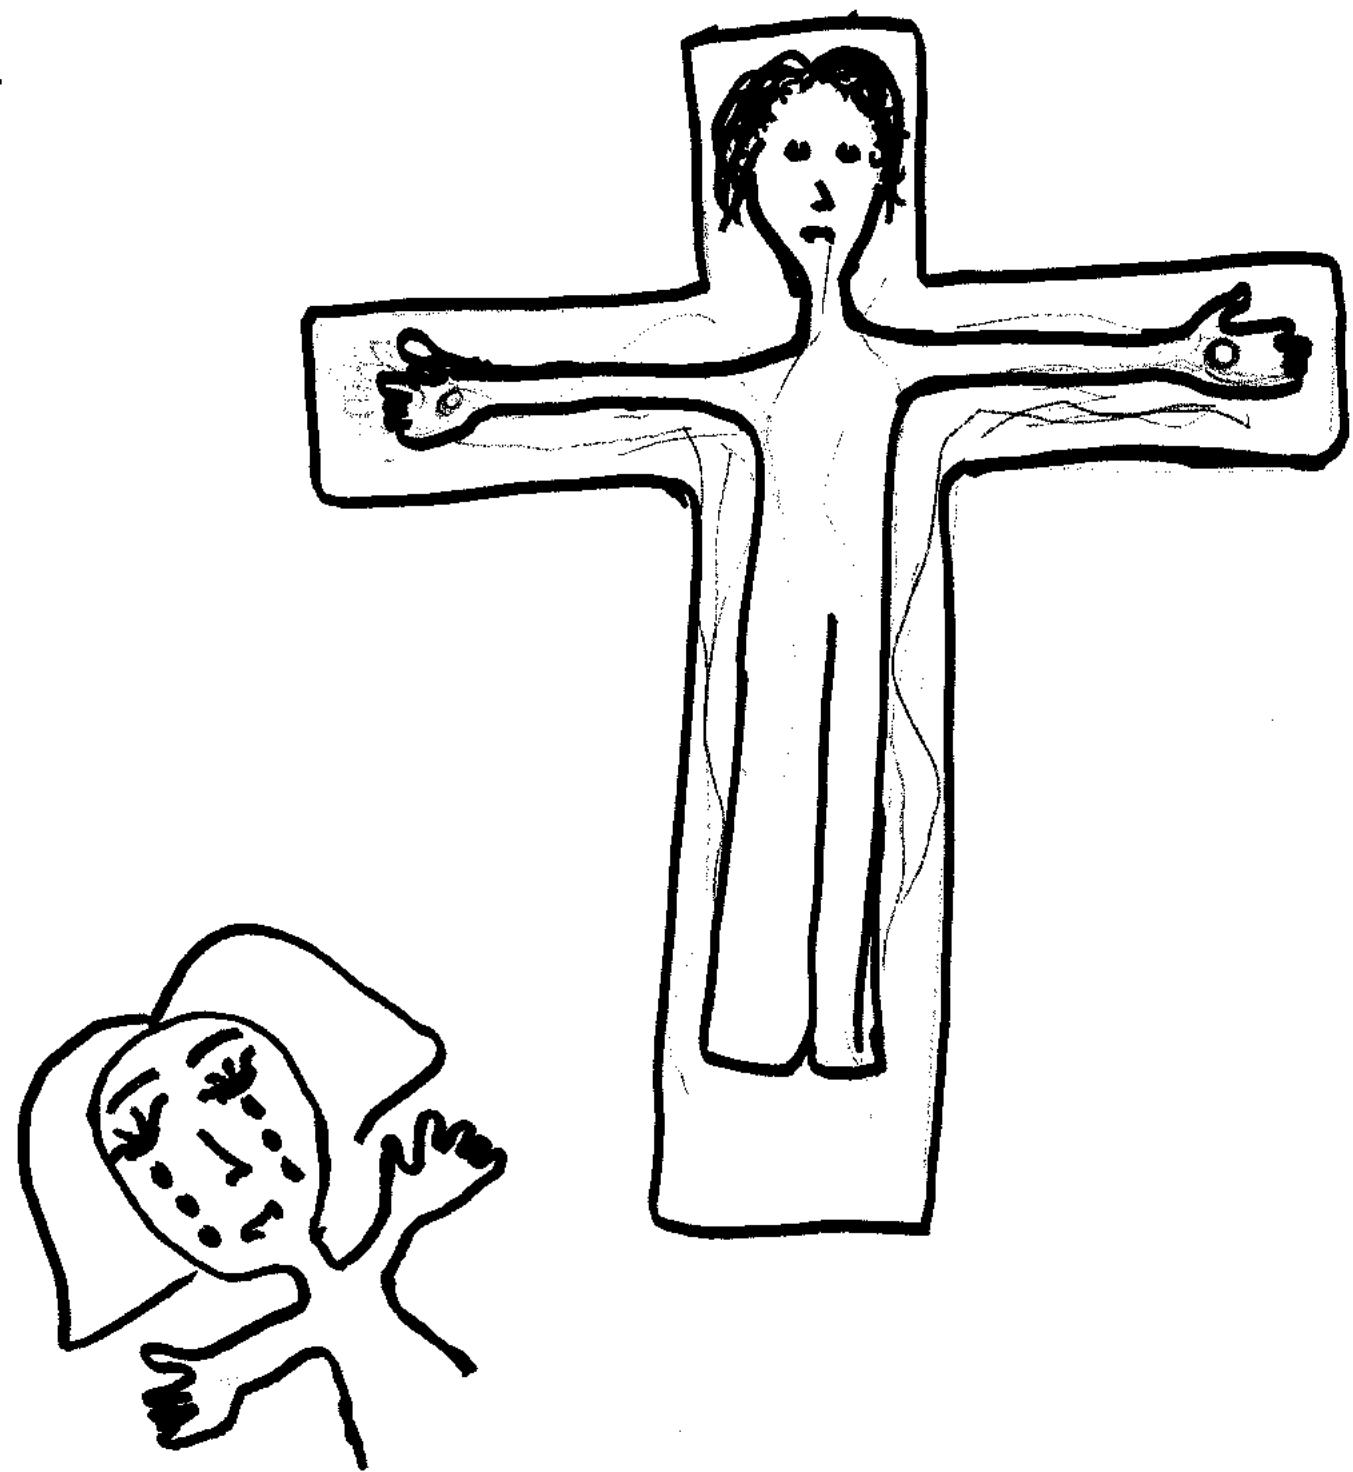

They warned Pilate that the time had come.

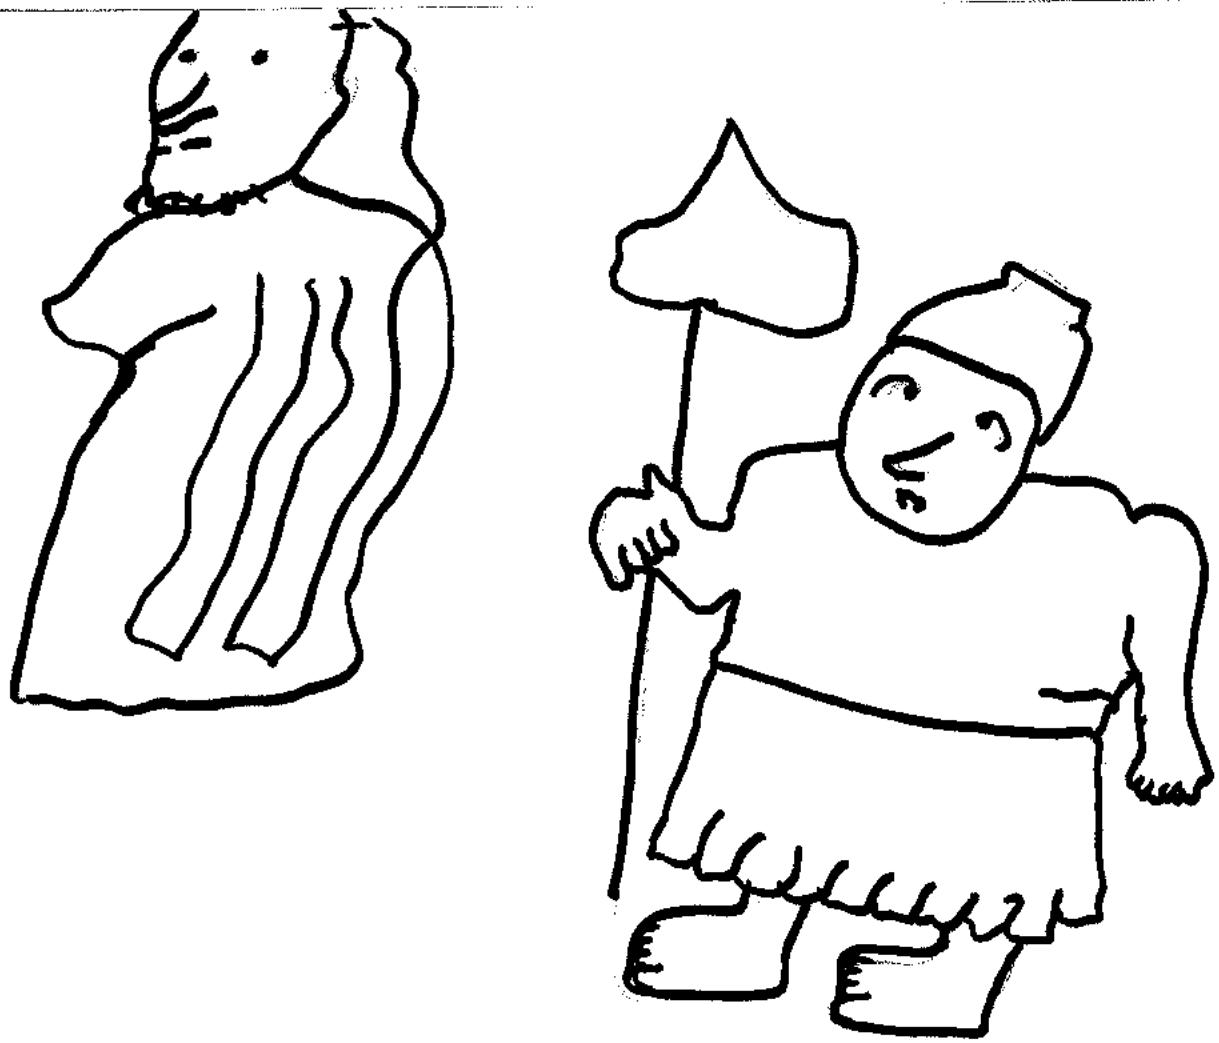

So Pilate decided to have Jesus killed.

He looked out only for himself.

And so...

On a small hill outside the city of Jerusalem, Jesus was nailed to a cross, and died.

374

Darkness fell upon the land.

Jesus was dead.

He was buried in a tomb.

A big stone was rolled in front of the entrance, and the people all went home.

For Jesus' followers, that dark day was followed by a long night.

The hours passed very slowly.
Jesus' friends cried.

They had thought he was the king.

But now their hearts were filled with sorrow, and their minds were filled with fear.

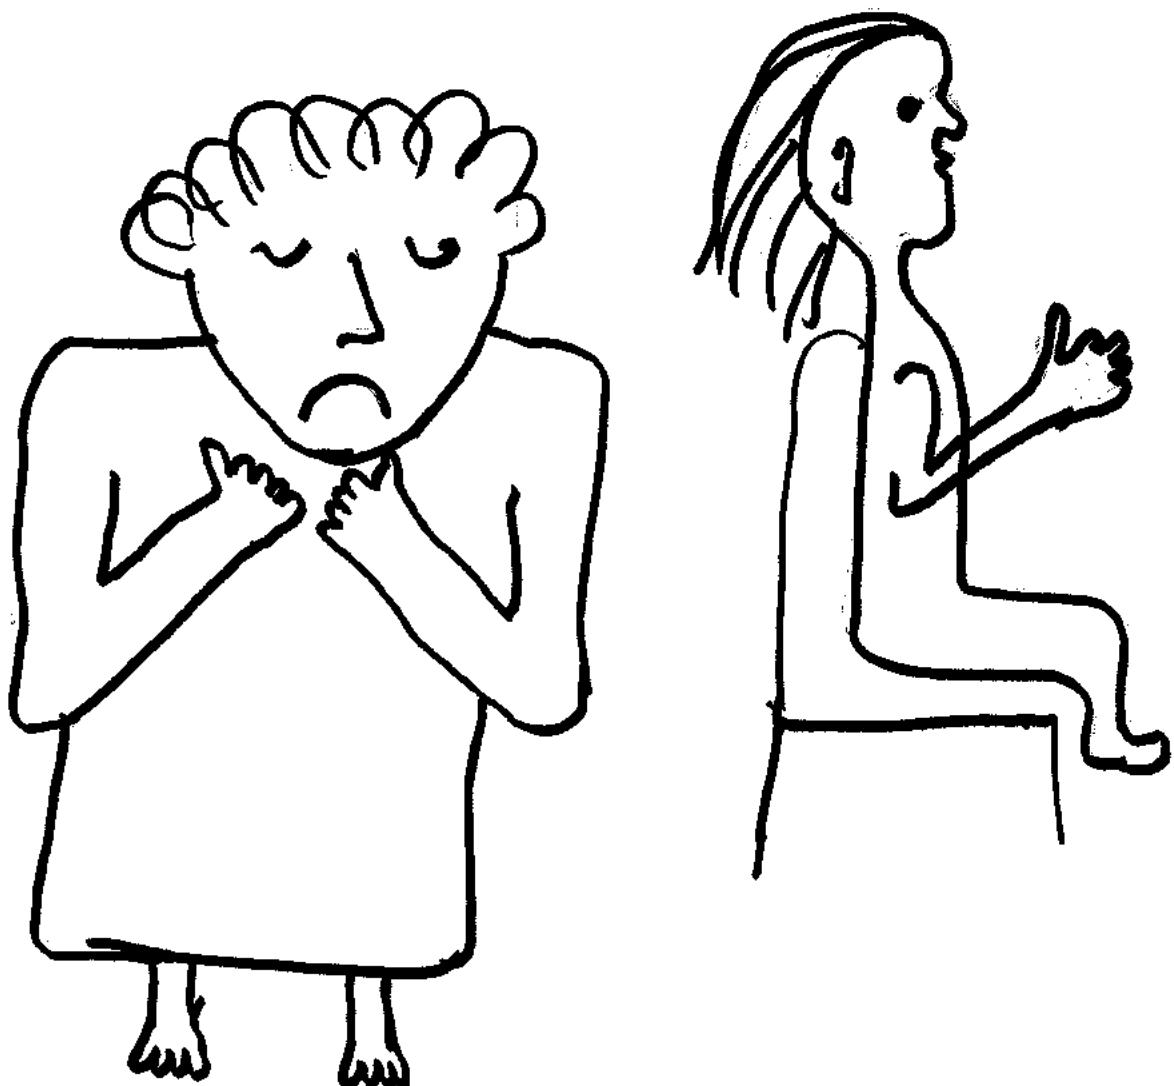

"What happened?"

"Why did Jesus have to die?"

"Wasn't Jesus God's forever King?"

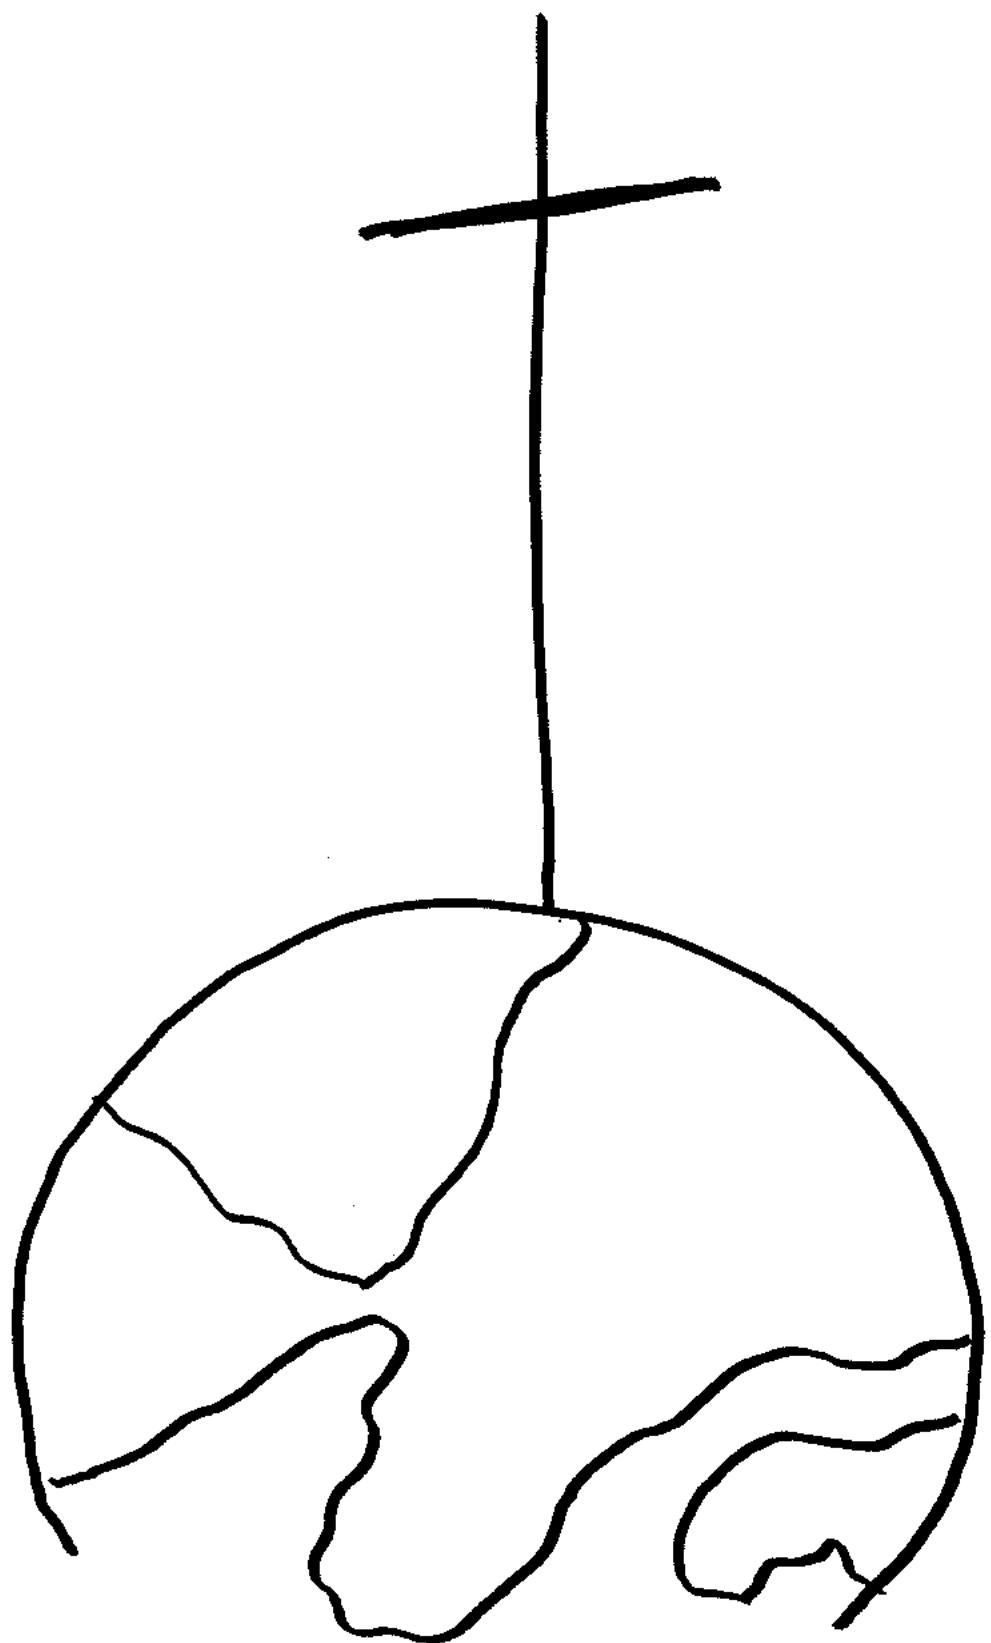

The questions kept coming until the next day turned into night.

As Jesus' followers tried to sleep
they thought,
We will be sad forever.

• Will God ever rescue his people from sin?"

"Will we ever have our place with him?"

"Will God ever bring again his blessings on all people of the earth?"

Part 22

It was the third day after Jesus has died on the cross.
The sun was not yet up.

One woman, Mary Magdalene, couldn't sleep.

She had believed in Jesus and had hoped he was the king.

She got up very early while it was still dark and went to the tomb where Jesus was buried.

As She came close, Suddenly She grew anxious and afraid.
The big Stone that covered the entrance was gone.
Jesus' tomb was open and it was empty.

She turned and ran.
She did not stop.

Seeing two of Jesus' followers,
She caught her breath and cried,
"They have taken the Lord out of the tomb."

Her friends ran off!
They raced to the tomb.
They looked around;
they went inside, but Jesus was not there.

As they walked back home , they wondered what had happened.

That evening ...

Some of Jesus' followers were meeting together. They were afraid, and so they had locked the doors.

Suddenly Jesus came and stood among them!
At first his followers were frightened,
but then their fear turned into joy.

The sadness they had felt was gone.
Their hearts were glad again.

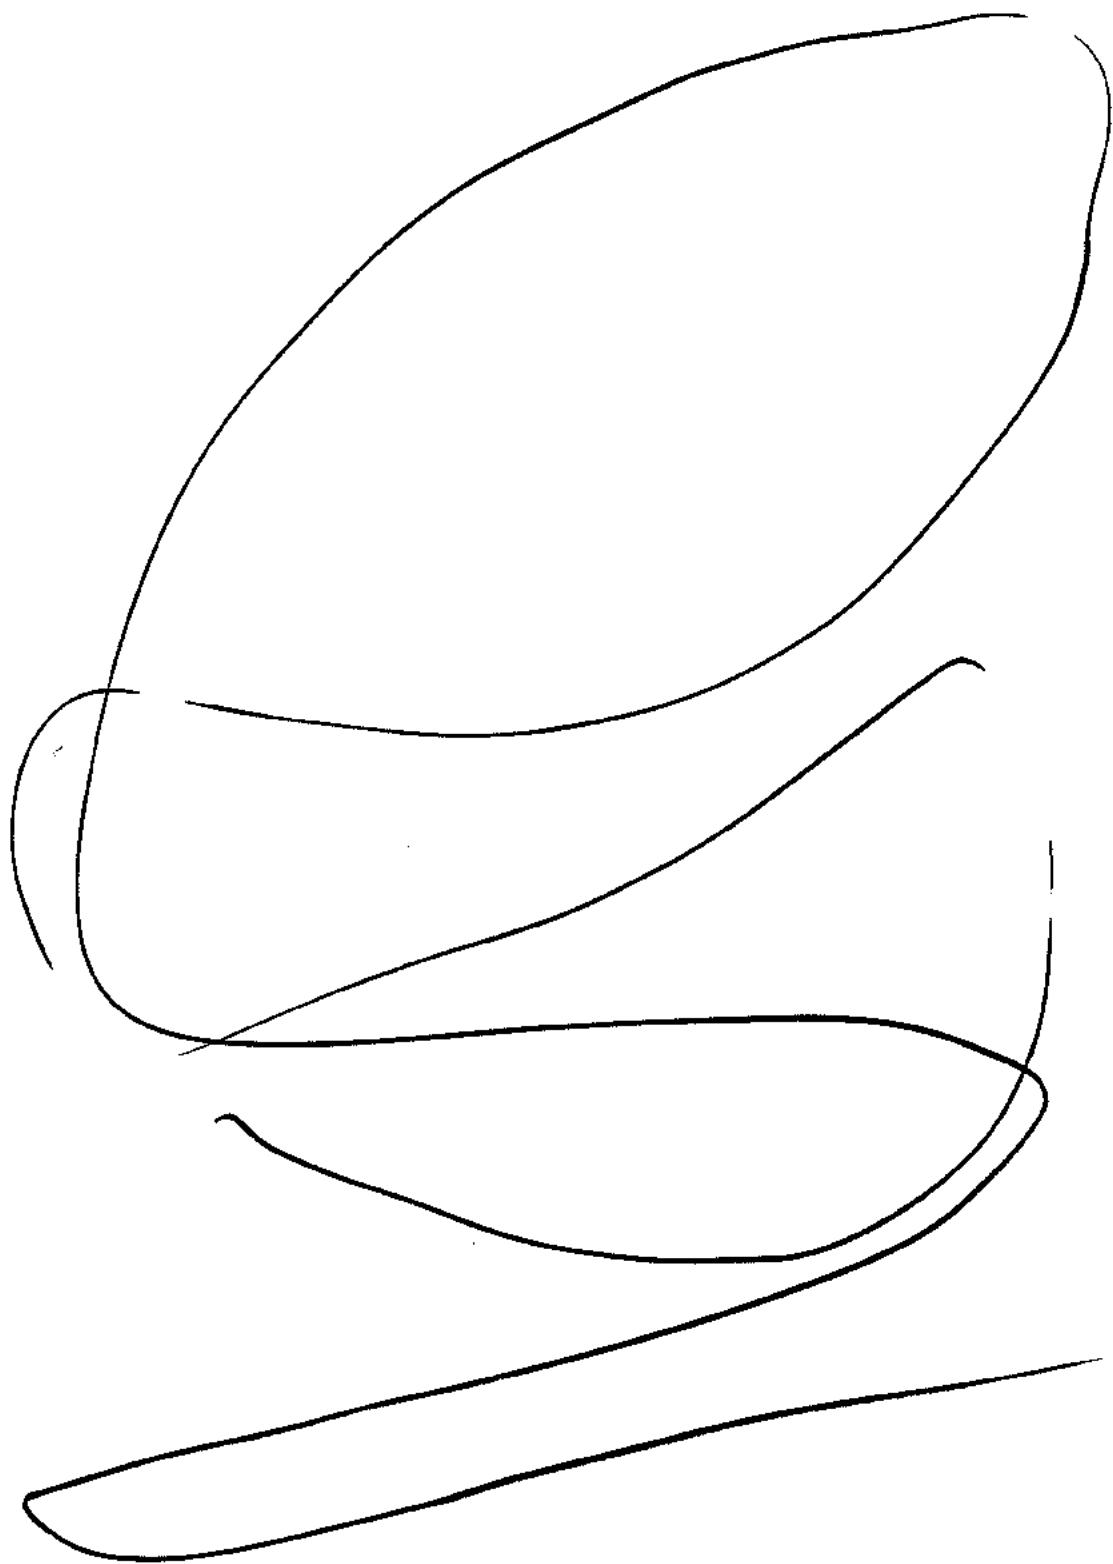

Jesus was alive.

Jesus really was alive

Jesus was risen from the dead.

The Son had risen!

It was a brand-new day.

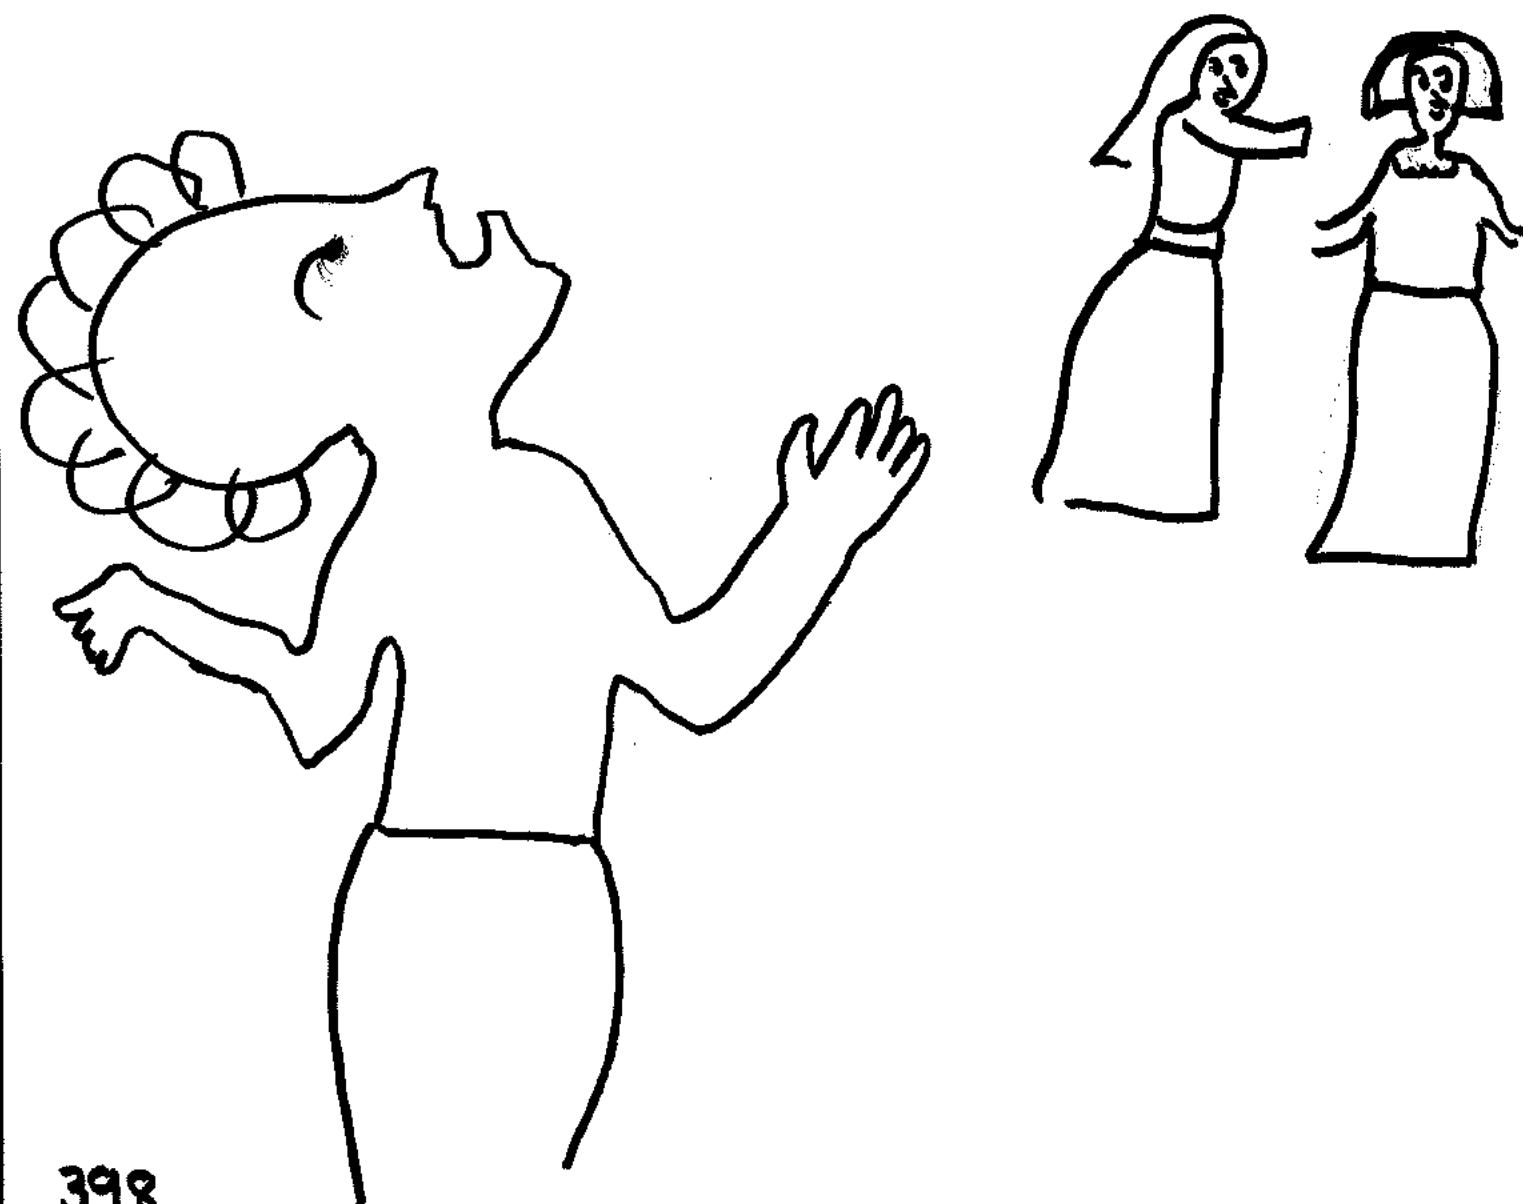

396

Jesus' followers could hardly believe it.

"We have seen the Lord!"

They were full of joy, but they were not full of understanding.

They could see Jesus with their eyes, but they could not see why he had to die and rise again.

And so . . .

Jesus opened up God's holy book that had been written long ago. He started with the books of Moses and then the Prophets and the Psalms. He showed them everything that was written there about him.

In it were many word pictures that Provided he must die to pay the Penalty for sin.

In it were many pictures that promised he would rise again.

Jesus followers were amazed as they listened and as they read.

Before, they had said,

"we have seen the Lord!"

But now they could read God's holy book and say,

"Even here, especially here,
We have seen the Lord!"

Jesus taught them carefully because he knew the day was coming when people would no longer see him with their eyes.

They would read of him instead.

He knew God's holy book would help others to believe and say,
"We have seen the Lord!"

And they too would be full of joy.

Do you see the Lord?

Painted on the pages of [redacted], Israel's hard and happy history is the big picture of God's greater King

part 24

For forty days after his resurrection
Jesus taught about God's Kingdom.

He told his chosen followers that they had kingdom work to do.

He said that although he must go away for a time, they must wait for a gift
he would send to help them do that work.

41b

And then suddenly Jesus left them.
He was lifted up into the sky.
He took his throne in heaven and began his kingly rule.

His followers went back to Jerusalem and waited for the promised gift.
Ten days passed, and...

Then they heard something.
There was a loud sound like the wind blowing.
It came from heaven and filled the room.

Then they saw something. Little flames of fire floated overhead and came to rest on each of them.

Then they said something.
They were praising God in languages that had never learned.

The promised gift,
the Holy Spirit, had come to them!

Other people also heard the wind and voices. But they didn't recognize the Holy Spirit.

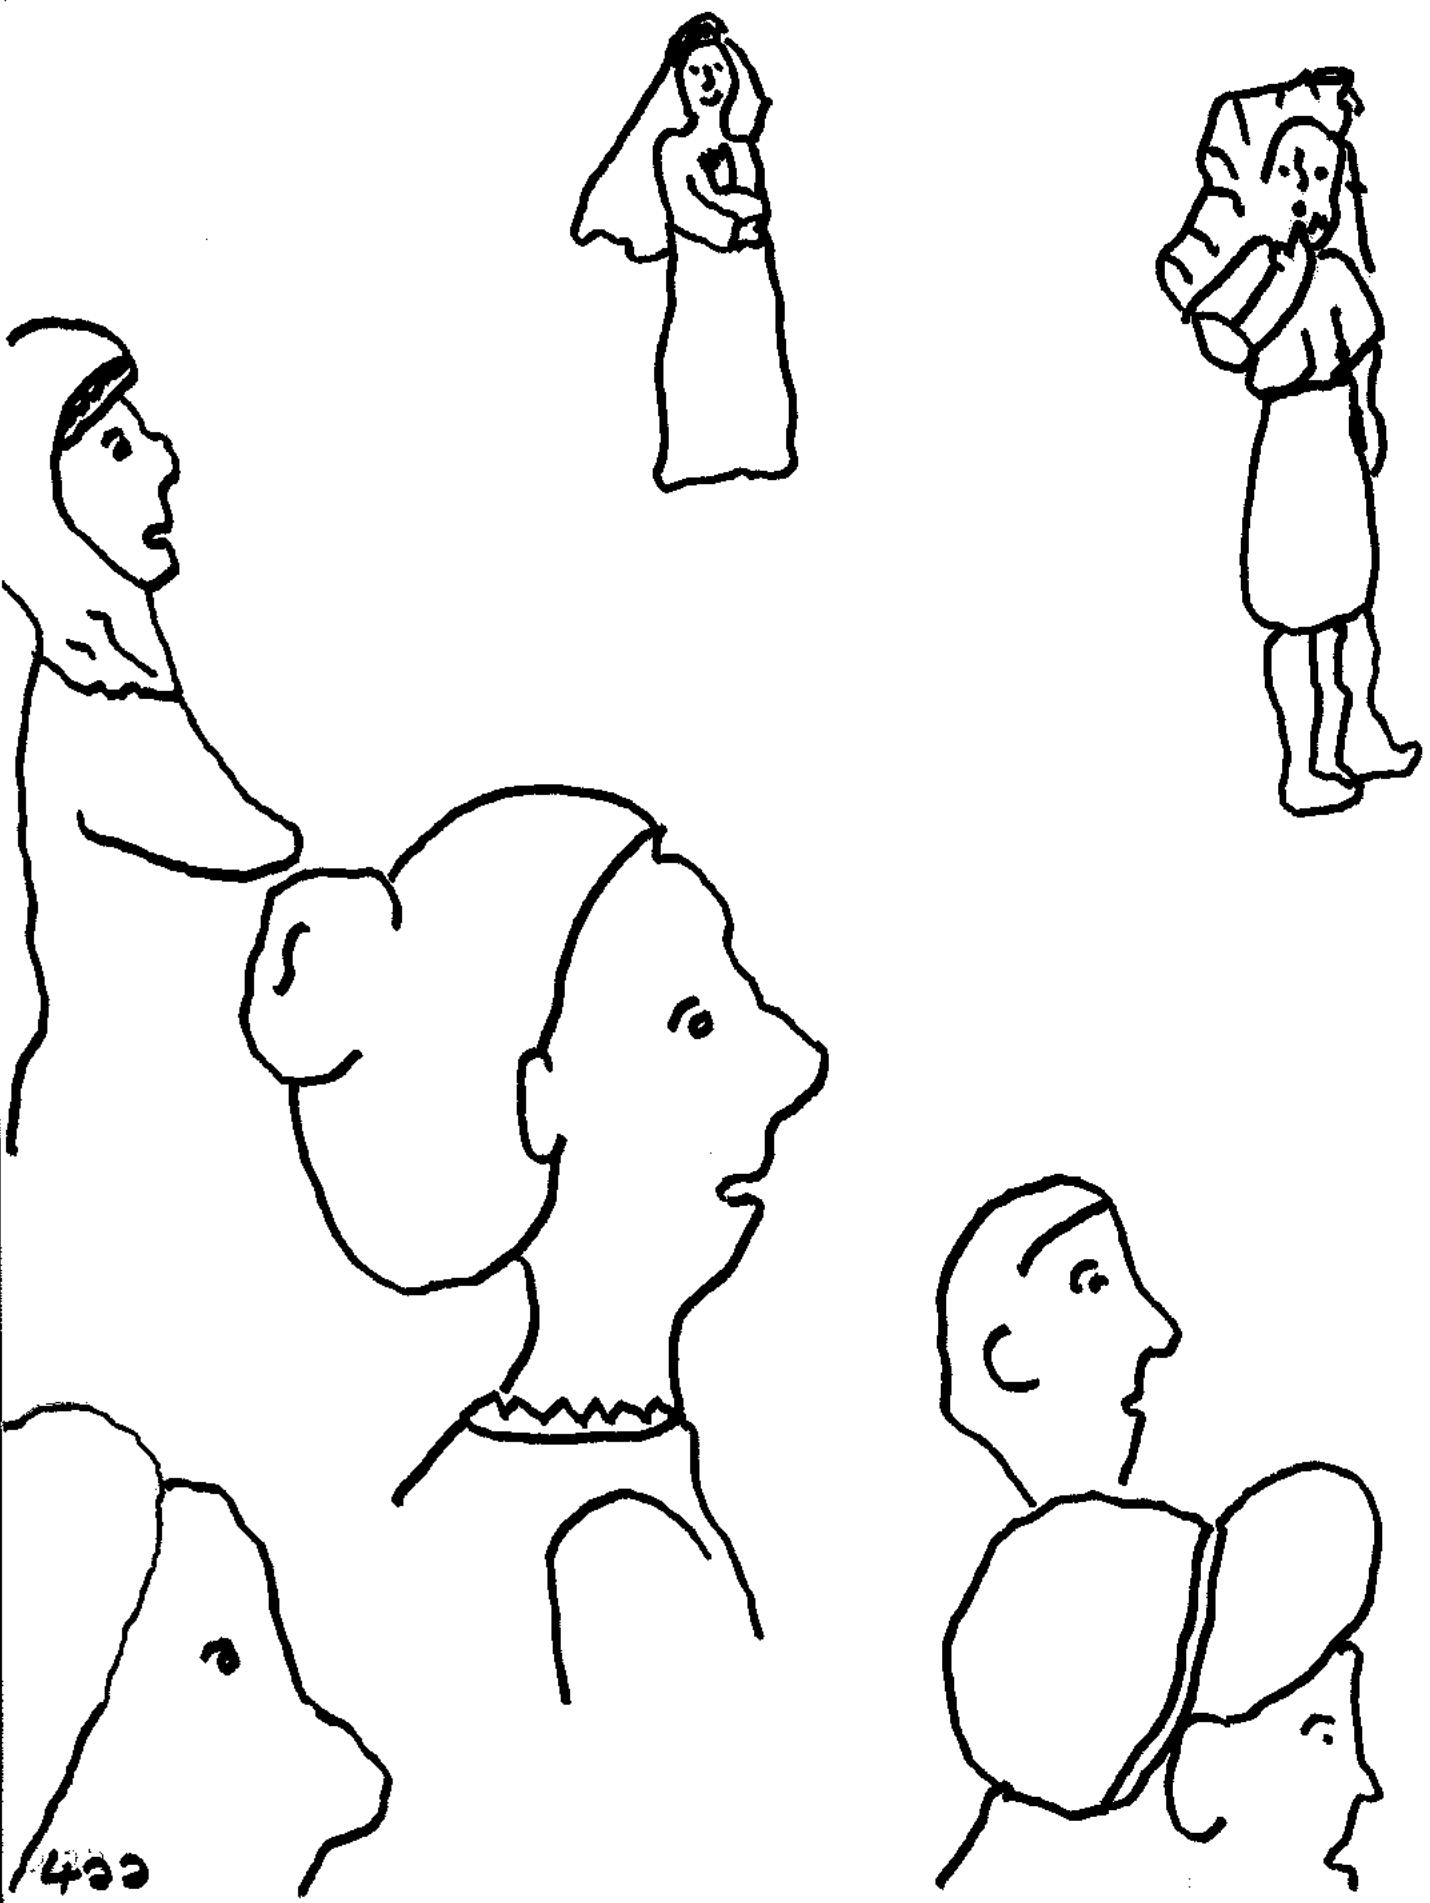

They wondered if Jesus' followers were drunk.

Peter raised his voice and spoke:

"These men are not drunk, as you suppose..."

This news entered into their hearts.

Many confessed their sins and believed.

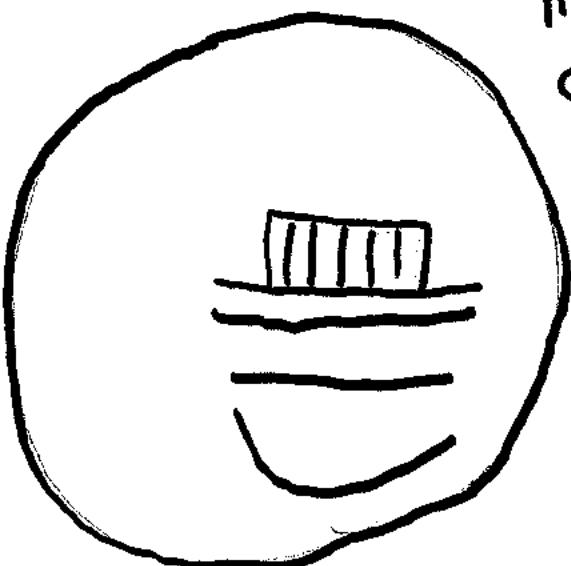

On that special day, God's Spirit gave new life to many God's people were growing in number again!

And as the good news of God's kingdom spread, still more people repented and believed

The good news spread and spread and spread!

The Word that was preached in Jerusalem went out all across the land.

it spread to people in Judea.

It spread to Samaria too.

Later the apostle Paul spread it as far away as Rome.

Far and near, people from every Nation
Were beginning to follow Jesus as their king

Part 25

God's people were growing in number.
But how would they grow strong in their faith?

They had not seen Jesus face to face

They had not talked with him or heard him teach.

And those who had been with could not be with them all the time.

Would God's people know what to do?

God knew what to do for his people

God chose some of Jesus' special Followers to write letters to Complete God's holy book

These letters told God's people:

"Remember, hold on to the message.
keep believing in Jesus!"

Love one another like family. Forgive one another.

Be careful! Don't let people trick you.

Run away from sin. Endure hardship.

And look for Jesus' return".

Everywhere that God's kingdom spread these letters could be found.

They helped God's people grow in faith.

They made God's young church strong.

436

Part 26

Do you see the man writing?

His name is John

Long ago he had run with Peter to the empty tomb.

~~Later~~ he had traveled far and wide, telling others of God's King.
But now John was very old.

He would not be doing much travelling or speaking anymore People who didn't believe his message had seen to that!
They were keeping John here as a prisoner.

But God had a big surprise for him to go.

One day, without any warning, 440

God gave John a peek into the future! John was not in prison on the island anymore. He traveled to heaven in a vision.

An angel showed John many things.
John saw the holy room of God and the throne where Jesus sits.

He saw the place of hell for everyone who rejects Jesus as God's King.

He even saw Satan crushed forever!

And he also saw...

ways to the new world

A new heaven and earth.

And then he heard something wonderful. A loud voice came from the throne saying, "Behold, the dwelling place of God is with man. He will dwell with them, and they will be his people... He will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning nor crying nor pain anymore, for the former things have passed away... I am making all things new... Write this down, for these words are trustworthy and true."

445

After hearing this, John saw a garden inside a city.
A river as clear as crystal was flowing from the throne, and on either side was the tree of life.
And thent...

John awoke from his vision.

John smiled. John knew,
All God's promises, all the things Jesus had told him years ago were true.

The old man could hardly write fast enough.
He had seen the very good ending for everyone who follows Jesus as God's

king.

God's forever people will one day live in God's forever place under God's forever rule.

Can you believe it?

Amen. Come, Lord Jesus!

The Bible is a big book about a big God who keeps a big promise

Every one loves a good story - especially children! But what we sometimes overlook is that the Bible is more than collection of great stories. It is the real account of God's love for the world.

The Big Picture Story Bible presents this remarkable true story. Simple words and striking illustrations unfold the storyline of God's word from Genesis to Revelation. All ages will enjoy this exciting discovery of a God who keeps his big promise.

David R. Helm serves as lead pastor of the Hyde Park congregation of Holy Trinity Church in Chicago. He also serves as chairman of the Charles Simeon Trust, an organization that promotes practical instruction in preaching.

Growing up, Gail Schuhmacher loved to draw pictures depicting the songs and stories she heard in church. She earned a B.A. in art from Wheaton College and makes her home in Chicago's Hyde Park neighborhood with her husband, Keith, and their four children.
